1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon. I am going 3 to ask the clerk to call the four cases that are on the 4 calendar this afternoon.

5 THE CLERK: The Court calls Case Number 1:16CV236, 6 Carcano, et al. versus McCrory, et al.; Case Number 1:16CV425, 7 United States of America versus State of North Carolina, et 8 al.; Case Number 1:16CV844, Berger, et al. versus United States
9 Department of Justice, et al.; and Case Number 1:16CV845, North 10 Carolinians for Privacy versus United States Department of 11 Justice, et al.

12 THE COURT: All right. I believe the clerk has 13 everyone organized fairly well. What I am going to do is ask, 14 if you would, just stand and announce for me for the record who 15 you are and your representation in this case. Yes, sir.

16 MR. WILKENS: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Scott
17 Wilkens from Jenner & Block on behalf of the Carcano
18 Plaintiffs.

19 THE COURT: All right. Very good, thank you.

20 MS. STOUGHTON: Your Honor, Corey Stoughton on behalf 21 of the United States as Plaintiff.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. GARDNER: Good afternoon, Your Honor, I'm Josh 24 Gardner on behalf of the United States on behalf of Berger and 25 North Carolinians for Privacy, the defense suits.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. That's 2 Mr. Gardner; is that right?

3 MR. GARDNER: Yes, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. Yes, sir.

5 MR. BOWERS: Good afternoon, Your Honor, may it 6 please the Court, Butch Bowers here for Governor McCrory, the 7 Department of Public Safety, and the State of North Carolina.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. DUNCAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Kyle Duncan 10 here for the Intervenor Defendants, Senator Phil Berger and 11 Representative Tim Moore.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Yes, sir.

13 MR. FRANCISCO: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Noel 14 Franciso for the University of North Carolina Defendants, and 15 with me in the courtroom are John Gore and Carolyn Pratt.

16 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

17 MR. DALTON: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Caleb Dalton 18 on behalf of North Carolinians for Privacy as Plaintiffs and 19 Proposed Intervenors.

20 THE COURT: All right. Very good. I think that 21 covers all the groups I have. Is there everybody else we need 22 to include at this point?

23 All right. What I intend to do is start with the 24 joint Rule 26(f) report that's been filed in what I am going to 25 refer to as the 236 and 425 cases, which would be the Carcano

1 case and the Department of Justice versus McCrory case. I am 2 going to use the shorthand 236 and 425. If that creates some 3 confusion or if I misstate that at some point, please let me
4 know. We'll correct it and make sure we're all on the same 5 page.

6 Then once we've gone through the joint report, set 7 that schedule and taking care of everything, I'll turn to 8 cleaning up and then the separate reports in what I am going to 9 call the 845 case. Then we'll see what else needs to be 10 addressed.

11 Any objections from anybody to proceeding that way?

12 All right. So beginning then with the 236 and the 13 425 case, what I may do is just summarize here the deadlines, 14 as I understand it, and where I have questions, I'll ask 15 questions; but I want to make sure this is interactive, so if 16 you all have suggestions or clarifications or questions about 17 any of it, go ahead and resolve all of that today.

18 Any objection to proceeding that way?

19 MR. BOWERS: No, Your Honor.

20 MR. WILKENS: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: So the first thing is the track for 22 discovery. There isn't a particular track that would apply 23 here, and I think we've covered everything or will cover 24 everything, so I am not going to designate a particular track; 25 but if there are any issues that we need to have a filler, we

1 can do that. I have the date to close all the discovery would 2 be October 7, 2016. That means under the local rules all 3 discovery would need to be served in time to be completed by 4 October 7, so everything would be answered and finished by 5 October 7.

6 Is that everyone's understanding on this then?

7 MR. BOWERS: Yes, Your Honor.

8 MR. WILKENS: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Initial disclosures would be 10 August 5, 2016. You all would meet by August 5 as well to work 11 out details for a protective order and a 502(d) order, things 12 along those lines.

13 As far as written discovery, requests for production, 14 initial requests would be served August 12, document discovery 15 completed September 12, and, as I understand, your response and 16 objection would be within 14 days and then a rolling production 17 from 14 days up to 30 days; is that correct?

18 MR. WILKENS: Yes, Your Honor.

19 MR. BOWERS: Yes, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: As a practical matter for me, it looks 21 like if your initial requests are August 12 and you have a 22 rolling production up to 30 days, everything is going to have 23 to be served August 12 in order to have a response for document 24 discovery to be completed September 12. So as a practical 25 matter, it would be everything by August 12, is that right, or

1 do we need to clarify anything along those lines?

2 Let me start with you, Mr. Wilkens, for the Carcano 3 Plaintiffs. Do you understand the question?

4 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, I do, and I take the point.
5 I would say that we had talked about whether we could agree to 6 a production of the documents shorter than 30 days, and the 7 compromise we've come up with was this idea of a rolling 8 production.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. WILKENS: We would certainly want the ability to 11 serve additional requests after the initial set and we see what 12 we get from the other side, and it may be that if we did that, 13 we could do it in relatively short order, although it wouldn't 14 leave 30 days; it might leave, I don't know, three weeks or a 15 shorter period to comply with.

16 THE COURT: We could have document discovery 17 completed by September 12 with the 14 day as the date, with an 18 additional 14 days for completion of rolling productions.
19 Would that satisfy your request on that?

20 MR. WILKENS: That would satisfy our request.

21 THE COURT: So September 12 would be completion of 22 everything, including responses and objections, for anything 23 that could be provided within 14 days, but if there was a 24 rolling production still ongoing, it could continue for another 25 14 days after September 12. Would that be the request?

1 MR. WILKENS: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Let me ask then for the Department of 3 Justice. Is it Ms. Stoughton? I want to say your name 4 correctly.

5 MS. STOUGHTON: That's right.

6 THE COURT: Would that be what your understanding 7 would be?

8 MS. STOUGHTON: Your Honor, we would be fine with 9 that. Just to be clear, I think this is what everyone is 10 saying, but the additional window would be for any later-served 11 discovery after August 12?

12 THE COURT: That's right. So August 12 -- as I 13 understand what we'd be just clarifying here, you could have an 14 initial request up to August 12. You would essentially get 15 another 14 days to make additional requests from August 12 so 16 that by September 12th, you had everything answered that was 17 served August 12, including all your rolling production, and 18 then if there is rolling production ongoing, it's still 19 completed within 14 days after September 12; is that right?

20 MS. STOUGHTON: All I want to clarify is that with 21 respect to any discovery served on August 12, the time for 22 complete production on that round of discovery is still 30 23 days.

24 THE COURT: So maybe the way to clarify is that 25 initial requests are served by August 12 and all requests are

1 served no later than 14 days after August 12. So you've got 14 2 days, and then if there is still rolling production continuing 3 on those later requests, all of it is due with -- 14 days for 4 responses and objections, rolling production of 14 to 30 days 5 from the date the request was served.

6 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, Your Honor. To be clear, what 7 I'm obviously concerned about is the back-end date to ensure 8 that if the discovery is served on August 12, that it does --

9 THE COURT: That you still get it by September 12?

10 MS. STOUGHTON: Right. And I'm concerned about -- 11 primarily because of depositions that might be --

12 THE COURT: That need to be added. So essentially 13 everything that you want completed by September 12, you need to 14 serve on August 12. If you serve it later, you've got an 15 additional 14 days to serve it later. The 14-day response and 16 objection period and the rolling production of 14 to 30 days 17 will apply to those, which means that you might have responses 18 to those rolling productions -- or ongoing rolling production 19 that extend up to 14 days after September 12 for those 20 later-served requests.

21 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I think we are on the same page. It's 23 not a bad thing to repeat it different ways to make sure 24 everybody understands.

25 MS. STOUGHTON: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Gardner, is that your understanding 2 as well?

3 MR. GARDNER: Yes, it is.

4 THE COURT: Are you in agreement with that?

5 MR. GARDNER: Yes.

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bowers, do you understand 7 that?

8 MR. BOWERS: I think I do. No objection.

9 THE COURT: All right. Is there any part you want to 10 clarify any further to make sure we are all on the same page?

11 MR. BOWERS: No, ma'am, I think we are good.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Duncan?

13 MR. DUNCAN: We understand, Your Honor. No 14 objection.

15 THE COURT: All right. Okay. Yes, sir.

16 MR. FRANCISCO: We're fine with that as well, Your 17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: And then, Mr. Dalton? At this point
19 North Carolinians for Privacy isn't part of this particular 20 conversation, but if there is something that you need to be 21 heard on for some reason, then I'll let you be heard on that, 22 if we need to take something up.

23 MR. DALTON: Your Honor, if granted intervention, we 24 are fine with joining whatever agreed-to discovery schedule.

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr. Dalton, just

1 to follow up with that, I am not going to keep coming back 2 around to you then as part of this conversation, but if you 3 need to interject at some point, that would be okay. Just let 4 me know.

5 MR. DALTON: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. We are going to only add just 7 a minor clarification then. Then all the requests for 8 production dates and the deadlines would be as provided in the 9 joint report. I guess the only difference was that document 10 discovery completion may go for an additional 14 days after 11 September 12, but the deadlines for 14 days for responses and 12 objections and the rolling production of 14 to 30 days after 13 service of the request would still apply.

14 All right. As to interrogatories and requests for 15 admission, it would be 24 interrogatories per side in each case
16 and 50 requests for admission per side in each case. I read 17 that as per side, meaning that that would be used jointly 18 between the Carcano Plaintiffs in that case and then all of the 19 State Defendants, the legislative Intervenor Defendants and the 20 UNC Defendants in the Carcano case, and then the Department of 21 Justice Plaintiffs and each of those group of Defendants in the 22 425 case. Is that correct?

23 MR. WILKENS: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. And just so I understand, 25 that would be 24 in each case. So the Carcano Plaintiffs would

1 have 24 interrogatories and 50 requests for admission, and then
2 the Department of Justice Plaintiffs would have 24 3 interrogatories and 50 requests for admission; is that right?

5 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And then the Defendant groups, Mr.
7 Bowers, Mr. Duncan, Mr. Francisco, you all would share the 24 8 interrogatories and the 50 requests for admission in each case; 9 is that correct?

10 MR. BOWERS: That's correct.

11 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, Your Honor.

12 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. As to the -- is there 14 anything else we needed on any of that? All right.

15 As to the number of depositions, it looks like you 16 all will meet August 8 to decide the number of depositions.
17 Fact depositions will take place between August 15 and 18 September 23, expert depositions between September 5 and 19 October 7.

20 Are those limits still appropriate in light of the 21 additional 14 days for document production if there were 22 late-served requests? Is there any adjustment we need to make 23 to any of that, as far as Plaintiffs?

24 MS. STOUGHTON: Your Honor, I don't think so. I 25 think that was the concern -- the reason I raised that concern

1 is to make sure we get documents needed. As long as we plan
2 appropriately, I think we should be fine.

3 THE COURT: Okay. All right. And, Mr. Wilkens?

4 MR. WILKENS: That's also our position, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. As far as -- let me just -- 6 any of the Defendants have anything else they would need to add 7 as to that?

8 MR. FRANCISCO: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: As far as the number of depositions, I 10 can leave that open for you all to decide unless you think it 11 would be helpful for me to go ahead and give some indication.
12 If it's better for you all to meet on that first, I can do 13 that. I just don't want that to linger as a problem. Any 14 reason to address that today?

15 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, I think we would prefer to 16 see the initial disclosures and the expert disclosures, and 17 then we would have a better sense of how many depos that might 18 be needed, and then we can actually negotiate that. It might 19 be better to leave it until we've got those disclosures done.

20 THE COURT: All right. I can do that. Any objection 21 to that?

22 MR. BOWERS: No objection.

23 MR. DUNCAN: No objection.

24 THE COURT: All right. As far as expert summaries 25 and reports, I actually did have some question about this

1 because, looking at the joint report, I was trying to reconcile 2 paragraphs 1C and 1D. I just want to make sure I am following.

3 It looks like under paragraph 1C the Defendants are 4 required to identify and give topics by August 5, and then 5 Plaintiffs have to identify rebuttal experts one week after 6 expert reports from Defendants, but then Plaintiffs' and 7 Defendants' reports are all due August 12 and rebuttal reports
8 are all due September 9.

9 Is that what you anticipate, Mr. Wilkens, or do we 10 need all of those in there?

11 MR. WILKENS: Well, actually, Your Honor, this is one 12 issue that I wanted to raise, and it's for the first time here 13 today, and I haven't raised it yet with all the other parties.

14 While we don't expect -- so we've named a number of 15 experts in our PI, preliminary injunction, papers, and they 16 have put in declarations. We don't anticipate at this time 17 appointing additional experts other than potential rebuttal 18 experts, but because we want to keep that possibility open, 19 subparagraph C, which right now just talks about the Defendants 20 disclosing expert witnesses by the 5th, because they haven't 21 done any such disclosures yet, we would want the ability to 22 also, if we choose to, add an additional expert or change 23 experts versus what we have in the PI, for example. We would 24 also want to under C be able to make any such disclosure on 25 August 5. So it would be open to the Defendants as well the

1 Plaintiffs.

2 THE COURT: Well, it makes sense to make them 3 parallel somehow, at least to the extent that 1D seems to 4 contemplate expert reports from Plaintiffs or Defendants by 5 August 12; is that right?

6 MR. WILKENS: Yes. And, Your Honor, we -- this is 7 why you see the sentence that talks about designating. We had 8 talked about the possibility and we want to certainly have the 9 ability to designate the declarations that have been put in for 10 the preliminary injunction as expert reports so that we 11 wouldn't necessarily have to redo the reports for those 12 experts. That's the second sentence under D.

13 THE COURT: Right. So you may designate any of 14 those, but nothing that I see here limits you to that.

15 MR. WILKENS: That's correct.

16 THE COURT: And you just want to clarify that?

17 MR. WILKENS: We want to clarify that we can -- that 18 not only can we put in reports from the declarants that are in 19 the preliminary injunction papers, but we could also put in a 20 report from a newly identified expert, if we were to do that, 21 on the 5th under C.

22 THE COURT: Right. So as you understand -- and maybe 23 I should take one step back before we add you in. As you 24 understand the way these dates would work for Defendants, 25 Defendants would need to identify and give topics by August 5,

1 do their reports by August 12, and then within one week after I
2 guess the reports, you would identify rebuttals, and then 3 rebuttal reports would be September 9; is that right?

4 MR. WILKENS: Right.

5 THE COURT: So we're just clarifying 1D includes 6 reports from both Plaintiff and Defendant. The whole pattern 7 of identifying first would apply both to Plaintiffs and 8 Defendants, and to the extent there might have been some prior 9 discussion or uncertainty about it, you just want to clarify 10 that you might have witnesses other than those you've 11 identified for preliminary injunction?

12 MR. WILKENS: Yes. As I said earlier, it's not 13 something that we currently plan on doing, but it's something 14 that we just want to keep the possibility open.

15 THE COURT: All right. Before I go over to 16 Defendants, let me see, is there anything else that the 17 Department of Justice needs to add on that?

18 MS. STOUGHTON: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: As far as designated experts, do you 20 intend to designate some experts for Department of Justice 21 then?

22 MS. STOUGHTON: We don't intend to designate any 23 experts beyond the experts we've already identified in the 24 preliminary injunction papers. We may designate rebuttal 25 experts after seeing the Defendants' experts, but that's 1 obviously a separate process.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. So, yes,
3 sir, Mr. Bowers?

4 MR. BOWERS: I don't have any objection to the 5 proposed amendment. That's sounds reasonable to me.

6 MR. DUNCAN: Same position here. No objection to 7 that, Your Honor.

8 MR. FRANCISCO: Agreed, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. So let's just clarify then 10 how 1C and 1D are going to work. Disclosure of the identity 11 of -- let's say -- instead of each of the Defendants, we'll say 12 the identity of any expert witness and each specific topic area 13 on which each expert intends to present evidence shall be 14 exchanged by August 5, 2016. That would be any expert witness 15 for either party would need to be identified. And does that 16 cover your request?

17 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, just a suggestion, it may 18 be easier if we leave the wording "Defendants' expert 19 witnesses," and then after that, we put a comma, "and any not 20 yet disclosed Plaintiffs' experts," so we wouldn't have -- 21 because they have our declarations in the preliminary 22 injunction. We wouldn't have to do disclosures for those 23 experts where they already have the full declaration.

24 THE COURT: And the only reason I'm pausing is 25 because I know you've identified them for preliminary

1 injunction. Are you intending to include all of them, or do 2 they need to have some indication from you that -- if there is 3 some subgroup of those that you would be using or whether you 4 intend to use all of them?

5 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, my apologies. That makes 6 sense. So we can certainly do the disclosures, Your Honor, 7 evenhandedly on the 5th.

8 THE COURT: Then they might be ones you've already 9 disclosed for preliminary injunction, but it's just to clarify 10 that it's for trial purposes now?

11 MR. WILKENS: Yes.

12 THE COURT: So it would be disclosure of the identity 13 of any expert witnesses and each specific topic area by 14 August 5, and then I don't know if you even need that last 15 sentence. Both parties would have rebuttal experts. I guess 16 do you want the requirement of identifying them within one week
17 after production of the expert reports -- let me make sure I am 18 following along on that -- or whether you just wait until 19 rebuttal reports are due on September 9?

20 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, I think -- so under -- I 21 mean, D certainly deals with rebuttal reports. We wanted to 22 make it clear that they wouldn't be limited to the experts that 23 put in the initial reports, but that new experts could be 24 designated at the rebuttal phase. That's why that sentence is 25 in C.

1 THE COURT: So we could put that for both sides then:
2 Any party in the above-captioned actions reserves the right to 3 identify rebuttal experts to be identified no later than one 4 week after production of affirmative expert reports.

5 Does that cover what you're looking for?

6 MR. WILKENS: Yes, Your Honor.

7 MS. STOUGHTON: Your Honor, that's fine.

8 THE COURT: Does that work for Defendants?

9 MR. BOWERS: Yes, ma'am, that's good for us.

11 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. Good. Thank you.

13 All right. So we then have identify experts with 14 their topics by August 5, provide reports by August 12, 15 identify rebuttal experts one week after the reports are 16 provided, and then provide rebuttal reports September 9. This 17 case probably doesn't have non-retained experts, but to the 18 extent there would be disclosures for non-retained experts, 19 those same deadlines would apply as retained experts under Rule 20 26.

21 Any question or anything else we need to clarify as 22 to any of those things for Plaintiffs or for Defendants?

23 MR. BOWERS: No, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: All right. Deadline to amend would be 25 August 15. Deadline for supplementation would be September 16.

1 Discovery disputes, attorney conferences would be held within 2 three days of identifying any dispute. If a motion needed to 3 be filed, it would be filed within five days, responses within 4 five days, and replies within three days.

5 What I can also consider doing -- and I'll let you 6 confirm that that's what you intended as far as those 7 deadlines, but also let me know whether it would be helpful to 8 go ahead and set, say every other week, a preliminary telephone 9 hearing so we know it was set on the calendar. We can take up 10 of any issues, if there are any issues. If there are no 11 issues, you can let the case manager know. We'll just cancel 12 the hearing. If it looks like there are more issues than are 13 appropriate for a telephone hearing, we'll switch it to an 14 in-person hearing, but at least everybody knows there's a 15 possibility you might need to be here that day or at least 16 available for a telephone conference.

17 Would that be helpful to go ahead and do in this case 18 for Plaintiffs?

19 MR. WILKENS: Yes, that would be very helpful, Your 20 Honor.

21 THE COURT: Ms. Stoughton?

22 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, Your Honor, thank you.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Bowers?

24 MR. BOWERS: Yes, ma'am, that sounds good.

25 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, that would be fine.

1 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. What I'm looking at doing, 3 and I'll take your suggestions on this as well, if we look at,
4 say, Fridays, I have criminal duty in the afternoons, but I
5 should be able to do hearings in the mornings on some Fridays
6 in August and September, and so if we set them for, say, 7 10:00 on Friday -- and we can look at when we need to start, 8 but it looks to me like there won't be much underway for 9 disputes to have arisen until, say, the 19th. So it would be 10 August 19, September 2, September 16, and September 30. That's 11 every other Friday during what looks to be the most intense 12 part of the discovery period in this case.

13 Any objections to those days and times, Mr. Wilkens?

14 MR. WILKENS: No objections, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Any objection to that, Ms. Stoughton?

16 MS. STOUGHTON: No, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Bowers, how does that work for you 18 all?

19 MR. BOWERS: No objection, Your Honor.

20 MR. DUNCAN: No objection.

21 MR. FRANCISCO: No objection, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. So what I am going to do is 23 ask the clerk to set this case for telephone status conference 24 on those dates, and that would be August 19, September 2, 25 September 16, and September 30 at 10:00. My intent is to set

1 them for a telephone hearing, but I'm giving notice to the 2 parties now that I may, as late as the Wednesday before, let 3 you know it needs to be an in-person hearing, and so we'll set 4 it for here if we have to if there are issues that need to be 5 heard and resolved other than by telephone hearing.

6 What would be helpful to me is if that Wednesday by 7 close of business you all can submit a joint statement that 8 just tells me what issues you have, if any, to resolve at the 9 telephone conference. That lets me know what it is to expect 10 that I might need to hear. You can just do a brief page or two 11 summarizing what the dispute is or what the parties' positions
12 are. I don't need a whole lot on that, but it would be helpful 13 to have just a joint statement letting me know what is on or 14 what would be before me. If there are motions that have been 15 briefed or are in the process of being briefed, we can take a 16 look at whether there are issues that can be resolved at the 17 hearing or whether we need to set it on for the next scheduled 18 hearing or set a separate hearing for that.

19 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, would those joint 20 statements be by letter or would they be filed on ECF?

21 THE COURT: So the joint statements, it would be 22 helpful to have those filed on ECF so that it's in the record
23 that way, and I can have access to it on ECF that way. If you 24 all decide you don't need a hearing, you can file a joint 25 statement, or you can just let the case manager. On that, my

1 case manager is Kimberly Garrett. Judge Schroeder's case
2 manager is Ms. Engle, who's here. You can go to Ms. Engle 3 first. If you can't get her, you can go to Ms. Garrett.
4 They'll be working together on this. You can touch base with 5 them if you have questions about that or if you need to touch 6 base on coordinating or scheduling, but if you've got a joint 7 statement that sets out the issues, you can file that on ECF.
8 If you just want to let me know you don't need a hearing, you 9 can just let the case manager know, and they can do a docket 10 entry and cancel that hearing.

11 Feel free to cancel those hearings if you all can 12 work these things out, but it's probably helpful to set those 13 in case there are issues we need to resolve so it doesn't delay 14 any of the discovery in this case.

15 As far as dispositive motions, I think we are now at 16 some of the concluding and pretrial dates, but just to go over 17 those, it looks like dispositive motions and Daubert motions
18 would be due October 14. Responses would be due within 14
19 days, so that would be October 28. Replies would be 7 days, 20 which would be November 4. So it's fully briefed by 21 November 4. We are looking at a November 14 trial date.
22 Obviously with 14 days from the close of dispositive motion 23 briefing and the trial date, it may be that the trial can also 24 function to some extent as a hearing on those dispositive 25 motions if they are not issues that can be readily resolved

USA et al v. NC et al-Scheduling conference 7/22/16

1 prior to trial. Those can function that way. It would seem 2 that if there are issues that can be resolved readily prior to 3 trial, that can happen as part of the pretrial proceeding in 4 that ten days; but, otherwise, if it's a bench trial and it 5 gets rolled over into some hearing on dispositive motions, then 6 that may be how that ends up working out.

7 MR. FRANCISCO: Your Honor, may I?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MR. FRANCISCO: We have filed motions to dismiss in 10 both cases. My understanding is that those aren't governed by 11 this schedule, that this is separate, but I think -- I'm not 12 sure we had an opportunity to clarify that with --

13 THE COURT: As far as the deadlines for responses and 14 replies?

15 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Right. So I think that it's worth 17 addressing. My intent would be that the UNC Defendants are 18 still part of this discovery scheduling plan. And you are 19 still participating in everything else?

20 MR. FRANCISCO: Absolutely.

21 THE COURT: But the ordinary response and reply times 22 under the local rules will apply to your motions that have 23 already been filed?

24 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. I think that that would be my

1 understanding. Anything else we would need to hear on that,
2 Mr. Wilkens?

3 MR. WILKENS: That's our understanding as well.

4 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Stoughton?

5 MS. STOUGHTON: It's our understanding as well, 6 although we may be calling you to ask about those dates in the 7 near future.

8 THE COURT: If there are requests for extensions of 9 time, I'll let you handle those, but the ordinary deadlines 10 would be the deadlines provided in the local rules.

11 MR. FRANCISCO: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. As far as motions in limine 13 that are not Daubert related, those would be due October 26, 14 responses November 2, no replies. Exhibits and witness 15 designations due October 24 with any objections November 2.

16 If there are joint stipulations of fact that you all 17 can make, I think that would obviously be helpful. You can 18 potentially do that at least either with your designations or 19 with your pretrial briefs November 7, and we'll just go ahead 20 and -- I am going to include that with the pretrial briefs on 21 November 7, any joint stipulations, including stipulations of 22 fact.

23 Anything, Mr. Wilkens, to add or suggest on that?

24 MR. WILKENS: No, Your Honor, that's fine.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Anything, Ms. Stoughton, on that?

1 MS. STOUGHTON: No, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Anything for Defendants on that?

4 MR. DUNCAN: No, Your Honor.

5 MR. FRANCISCO: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: The trial date would be November 14. As 7 I understand it, the anticipated length of trial is one week 8 and at an outside maximum of no more than eight trial days, 9 which, if you took all eight, would take you to the Wednesday 10 before Thanksgiving. Is that what it looks like to you all?

11 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, we would just like to note, 12 just given how -- well, we're not that far out from trial, but 13 we would just ask for some flexibility in terms of the length 14 of the trial, given that we just don't know exactly what the 15 issues are yet, and it may be the case that eight days don't 16 prove to be enough.

17 THE COURT: Well, I think that the district judge 18 would certainly also retain some flexibility as to when in the 19 time frame, once you all have some more suggestion as to your 20 anticipated length and then what the district judge determines, 21 in terms of how long he is going to give you for trial. So I 22 am not going to set that other than that's what you anticipate 23 right now, and we'll set for now a November 14 trial date. If 24 that needs to be revisited at some point or if the district 25 judge needs to include some additional limitations on that,

1 then those would be things you could visit at the pretrial
2 conference, and if you know earlier, then certainly something 3 you would want to go ahead and raise earlier so that can be 4 addressed.

5 MR. WILKENS: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Does that take care of it for the 7 Department of Justice?

8 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: For the Defendants?

11 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, Your Honor.

12 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: That is what I have for the joint 26(f) 14 report. I think that I have made the assumption there and 15 would intend to do explicitly that the 236 and 425 cases are 16 consolidated for discovery. With respect to how they are 17 tried, that remains at the discretion of the trial judge. They 18 are on the same schedule, and they are consolidated for 19 discovery, and then the trial judge will take up any issues 20 with respect to how they might be presented for trial.

21 Anything else before we get into other issues as far 22 as the 26(f) report itself? Mr. Wilkens, anything for your 23 clients?

24 MR. WILKENS: No, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Anything else for your client?

USA et al v. NC et al-Scheduling conference 7/22/16

1 MS. STOUGHTON: No, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Bowers?

3 MR. BOWERS: Nothing further.

4 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Duncan?

6 THE COURT: Mr. Francisco?

7 MR. FRANCISCO: Nothing further, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. The other issues I have are 9 not in a particular order, but I am going to take them up just 10 as I have them noted here.

11 I have the first issue to address with respect to the 12 844 case, that is, the legislators' case. As far as I am 13 aware, there weren't separate individual reports filed in this 14 case. So it's my assumption then that you are intending to 15 dismiss that case, but let me hear from you, Mr. Duncan. Is 16 that where we are with that?

17 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, Your Honor. We have agreed with 18 the Carcano Plaintiffs and the Department of Justice that we 19 will voluntarily dismiss that case, and we'll proceed with our 20 claims in that case as counterclaims in the 236 and 425. As I
21 understand it, I think DOJ is working on this, there will be a 22 joint notice filed sometime today before 5:00 setting forth the 23 parties' agreement in detail.

24 THE COURT: All right. So that would be an 25 anticipated stipulation of dismissal of the 844 case, so we

1 don't need to take anything else up with that one?

2 MR. DUNCAN: Exactly, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Is that correct?

4 MR. GARDNER: That's correct, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Is that correct as far as you're aware as 6 well, Ms. Stoughton and Mr. Wilkens?

7 MR. WILKENS: Yes, and I think the agreement will 8 also just provide some further detail with respect to the 9 Plaintiffs as to which the counterclaims are directed.

10 THE COURT: I think that would probably be helpful.
11 That's one of the other things on my list. I don't want to 12 jump ahead of what your agreement might be, but it might help 13 just to talk through that to make sure. I have a couple of 14 questions about that. The counterclaims in the 236 case are 15 also the subject of a motion to strike; is that correct?

16 MR. WILKENS: That is correct. And correct me if I 17 have the agreement wrong, but I think what's going to happen is 18 the -- there's an agreement that the counterclaims will now be 19 directed only at the ACLU of North Carolina, no longer at the 20 individually named plaintiffs.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MR. WILKENS: And then with respect to the current 23 motion to strike, we would withdraw the first argument in 24 there, as to the -- that they're duplicative -- that they 25 should be dismissed as duplicative, the counterclaims, but we

1 would leave standing, pardon the pun, the standing argument in 2 that motion to strike, but we still want to -- will be 3 asserting that there is no standing with respect to those 4 counterclaims.

5 THE COURT: As counterclaims. Now, the same issues 6 are raised as defenses, and you are not raising any objection 7 to that; is that right?

8 MR. WILKENS: Um --

9 THE COURT: These would be defenses that they have 10 intervened to raise. The only question is whether they are 11 raised as counterclaims; am I right? Am I following? Maybe 12 I'm not.

13 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, I am not entirely -- as I 14 stand here, I am not entirely sure. I think that's right, but 15 I don't want to --

16 THE COURT: Well, I am venturing into this not 17 because I am going to have that to resolve myself so much as if 18 we can clean it up further today and not have to send this to 19 Judge Schroeder to resolve or for you all to keep briefing 20 while you are trying to do discovery, I think that would be 21 ideal.

22 My question -- and you might be able to speak to 23 this, Mr. Duncan. If you can assert these which you've 24 designated as counterclaims as defenses that you would be 25 entitled to be heard on, is there any reason why you have to

1 assert them as a claim now that you've been allowed to 2 intervene? It would be still asserted as a defense, and you've 3 been allowed to intervene as a defendant to assert the 4 defenses, but they wouldn't be affirmative claims against the 5 ACLU for a declaratory judgment.

6 It seems the only difference would be that then if 7 the ACLU decided to voluntarily dismiss the claims, the case 8 would go away. Otherwise, I am trying to imagine what your 9 claims would still be if the ACLU dismissed the claims, whether 10 you would still be asserting a claim against them for some kind 11 of declaration.

12 MR. DUNCAN: You raise a good point, Your Honor, and 13 it may be something we need to think about further and talk to 14 the ACLU about.

15 At this point, let me say this: If they voluntary -- 16 if the ACLU voluntarily dismissed their claims, which we 17 realize --

18 THE COURT: Right.

19 MR. DUNCAN: If they did, I think at that point, we 20 would still want a declaratory judgment that the law at issue 21 is lawful under the federal statutes.

22 THE COURT: Wouldn't that be against the ACLU?
23 That's what I am trying to figure out.

24 MR. DUNCAN: That's a good question because we are 25 raising the same thing with respect to DOJ. I do think it

1 makes sense --

2 THE COURT: Right. So you're in that case. You
3 would still have your counterclaims as to DOJ, but whether you 4 can just assert them as defenses in the 236 case --

5 MR. DUNCAN: Why don't we talk further, because to be 6 perfectly transparent, we talked to ACLU with respect to the 7 counterclaims; we haven't talked about any other issue with 8 respect to the thing that Your Honor is raising.

9 THE COURT: Well, again, I am not intending to rule 10 on anything as to those motions, and I think ultimately they 11 would go to Judge Schroeder rather than to me. Again, my 12 intent is just to try to help you all think through those 13 things and clean them up, if we can. So if you can moot the 14 motion to strike by agreeing that the counterclaims will be 15 asserted as affirmative defenses rather than counterclaims in 16 the 236 case and then you would still have your counterclaims 17 in the 425 case, that might resolve that issue.

18 MR. DUNCAN: Correct. Just to be clear, what Mr.
19 Wilkens said was accurate with respect --

20 THE COURT: Right, where you were so far.

21 MR. DUNCAN: I just want to confirm that what he said 22 was accurate, but the motion to strike would be withdrawn with 23 respect to the duplicative nature of the claims. It would 24 persist in asserting justiciability claims on the standing 25 issue.

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MR. DUNCAN: What Your Honor is suggesting we talk 3 about I think goes a little bit beyond that, so we want to talk
4 to them about it. The intent here, of course, is to clean it 5 up as much as possible.

6 THE COURT: Absolutely, and that's my intent here.
7 It may be, as I go through my list, there are other things that 8 are in a similar-type posture where it makes sense to take a 9 30-minute recess and let you all have some more conversations 10 about this so that we can clean up as much we can while we are 11 here today, but I will leave that then for you all to talk a 12 little further on that.

13 MR. DUNCAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Yes, anything else?

15 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, I wanted to ask. So I'm 16 assuming -- and we may -- I just -- we may not be able to get 17 to an answer today.

18 THE COURT: Right.

19 MR. WILKENS: So we would still, I think, plan to -- 20 that the filing by 5:00 would happen without dealing with this 21 question of affirmative defenses, but then we would have that 22 conversation to potentially amend that filing if appropriate.

23 THE COURT: And I think that would be all right if 24 there is an opportunity to note in the filing that there is 25 still the possibility that you are working this out in light of 1 our conversation today. Then you can do that, and then if you 2 are not able to resolve it, it is where you've left it that 3 way.

4 MR. DUNCAN: Sure, I think that's fine, because it
5 sounds like where we may be thinking about going would be a 6 place that would moot out their motion altogether.

7 THE COURT: It moots, right, the motion to strike, 8 and it takes the counterclaims out as affirmative counterclaims 9 from the 236 case, but keeps the issues in as affirmative 10 defenses and keeps the counterclaims in the 425 case.

11 MR. DUNCAN: Understood, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. We are at least on the same 13 page as to what that would involve?

14 MR. WILKENS: Yes, we are on the same page.

15 MR. DUNCAN: And we do agree that we would like to 16 file the joint notice today since I think we are ordered to do 17 it by 5:00.

18 THE COURT: Right. Right. Right. As far as just 19 the preliminaries of that kind of conversation, is there 20 anything else, if you went down that road, that you want to 21 raise today or think through in terms of that option?

22 MR. WILKENS: Not at this time, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Anything else you can think 24 of that we need to talk through on that?

25 MR. WILKENS: Not on that. Not on that. I think we

1 will be able to just talk through those issues together and 2 come to some resolution quickly.

4 MR. DUNCAN: Right. And, Your Honor, this is with 5 respect to the Carcano Plaintiffs. With respect to the DOJ, we 6 have sort of a similar but distinct agreement that will be in 7 the joint notice as well.

8 THE COURT: All right. And that might be the next 9 place to go then. Does that resolve where we are in terms of 10 the 844 case then, which was just as to the 236; right?

11 MR. DUNCAN: Well, that's right. The 844 case is 12 only against the Justice Department. We are talking about the 13 ACLU case just because it's --

14 THE COURT: -- all related --

15 MR. DUNCAN: -- it's all in this universe.

16 THE COURT: -- now that we've consolidated to some 17 degree. So the 844 case you are dismissing in light of your 18 counterclaims in the 425 case; am I right?

19 MR. DUNCAN: That is correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. And that is where you all are 21 going in your joint --

22 MR. DUNCAN: I can only say that because I have 23 numbers written on my paper.

24 THE COURT: I don't intend to use the numbers to make 25 it more confusing.

1 MR. DUNCAN: I think the numbers are helpful.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

3 MR. DUNCAN: But let me just -- I mean, Mr. Gardner
4 may want to confirm what I said about the agreement with DOJ.

5 THE COURT: Is that correct?

6 MR. GARDNER: That's correct, Your Honor. The 7 agreement we have is somewhat similar to the ACLU's in that the 8 Berger Plaintiffs will dismiss their affirmative complaint, 9 they will maintain their counterclaims, and then the United 10 States will challenge them on any or all grounds with the 11 exception that we will not argue that they are duplicative, 12 which was the first argument that was raised by the ACLU in 13 their motion to strike.

14 I will say, Your Honor, that for the reasons you 15 intimated with respect to the ACLU lawsuit, the United States 16 doesn't really see a need for the Berger Plaintiffs to maintain 17 these as counterclaims. I think the notion that the United 18 States would be dropping its lawsuit is remote, and that their 19 interests would be protected. I think -- and I don't want to 20 mischaracterize what -- the conversation Mr. Duncan and I had 21 previously, but I think one of Mr. Duncan's concerns was that 22 if the United States somehow lost the lawsuit and lost for 23 failure to meet its burden of proof, the legislature may not 24 have sufficient protection because they would not be able to 25 obtain a declaration.

1 Candidly, Your Honor, I think these are mostly legal 2 issues, and the way this case likely will get resolved is based 3 on those legal issues. So I think that the Berger Plaintiffs 4 have the protection they need. So we don't really see the need 5 for those counterclaims, and we think it would be more 6 efficient to just proceed as defenses.

7 THE COURT: I think I will let you all develop that 8 with briefing how you need to. To me, it's a little clearer in 9 the 236 case that that might be appropriate. In the 425 case, 10 there might be some separate considerations or determinations 11 to make with respect to whether there is a basis for the 12 counterclaims there.

13 MR. DUNCAN: I think that's fair, Your Honor. I 14 think we should talk about them separately.

15 THE COURT: Separately, right. So it may be that you 16 can reach some agreement on the 236 case that's separate from 17 some remaining issue on the 425 case. On the other hand, I 18 would encourage you not to spend a lot of time litigating those 19 issues while you are also trying to do this expedited discovery 20 because I don't know that it changes or helps anything. If 21 those legal issues are there, they're still going to be there 22 when you get to the bench trial, and Judge Schroeder will still 23 be able to sort those out. Litigating briefing -- rounds of 24 briefing on that ahead of time is just going to divert you from 25 being able to do discovery.

1 MR. DUNCAN: We could not agree with you more.

2 MR. GARDNER: And that thought is a conversation that 3 Mr. Duncan and I have actually had, so I think we are on the 4 same page.

5 THE COURT: I would say this: By not disputing them 6 bringing the counterclaims, we could certainly at least sort of 7 agree or I could let you make that determination with the 8 caveat from the Court that that's not a waiver of any argument 9 you might make that they lack standing or shouldn't be able to 10 bring these claims as counterclaims in the case.

11 MR. DUNCAN: Right. As I understand the agreed 12 schedule, those might be better dealt with during dispositive 13 motions as part of some dispositive motion, which might be the 14 better --

15 THE COURT: -- way to resolve all those issues 16 together?

17 MR. DUNCAN: That's right.

18 THE COURT: I will encourage you all to see if you 19 can at least put those issues into the framework that we have 20 for a schedule here, rather than having it going sort as 21 another separate thing while you are also trying to do 22 discovery.

23 MR. DUNCAN: Noted, Your Honor.

24 MR. GARDNER: I am confident that we can do that.

25 THE COURT: All right. So I think that's all I

1 had -- well, actually, I do have one more question for you,
2 Mr. Duncan. On the 425 case and the counterclaims, there is a 3 jury trial request. Are you still requesting a jury trial?

4 MR. DUNCAN: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. So we can go ahead and strike 6 the jury trial request?

7 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And I think that was in the 236
9 counterclaim as well.

10 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, same, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: We'll strike the jury trial request on 12 the counterclaims.

13 MR. DUNCAN: Your Honor, if I may raise one thing? I 14 don't think I should have raised this during the discussion of 15 the 26(f) report, but there is an issue with respect the 16 July 29 deadline for responding to the United States' 17 preliminary injunction. I think that's sort of separate, but 18 in my mind, it's related to the 26(f) report. So I just note 19 it, and we can discuss it when you want to.

20 THE COURT: I have the preliminary injunction just as 21 a question to raise, whether we can coordinate some schedules 22 on that, so we will come to that then.

23 So I've stricken the jury trial request. I think 24 everyone is in agreement that it's on for a bench trial.
25 Anything as to any of the Plaintiff groups?

1 MR. WILKENS: No, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Anything from any of the other Defendants 3 on that?

4 MR. BOWERS: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. And so I think that takes 6 care of everything with respect to the 844 case; is that right?

7 MR. DUNCAN: I think so, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Is that right, Mr. Gardner? Everything 9 -- we've taken care of everything we need to address as far as 10 the 844 case?

11 MR. GARDNER: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. All right. Before I then get 13 into the motions that are pending otherwise with respect to the 14 Carcano case or the 425 case, just in terms of coordinating 15 other cases, I am going to wait and come back around to the 16 845, the North Carolinians for Privacy case. I know there's 17 one case remaining in the Eastern District of North Carolina as 18 to that. Just so I understand, I believe that's the McCrory 19 and the State; is that correct?

20 MR. BOWERS: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Are you still intending to pursue that 22 case as well, or what is the status of that?

23 MR. BOWERS: The status is the Department has filed a 24 motion to dismiss and our response is due today, so we'll be 25 filing a response to that today. If I recall correctly, the

1 Court in the Eastern District set a July 26 reply date for the 2 Department, and then we'll likely hold a hearing on that motion 3 at some point after the 26.

4 THE COURT: So I understand, is that a mirror, to 5 some extent, of the 425 case or your counterclaims in the 425 6 case; is that right?

7 MR. BOWERS: I think that's an accurate depiction, 8 yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: But at least for now, you are still 10 pursuing both; is that right?

11 MR. BOWERS: At least for now, we are still pursuing 12 both, yes, ma'am.

13 THE COURT: Are you contemplating dismissing that 14 one, or we'll just let them both go at this point?

15 MR. BOWERS: We've had active discussions with the 16 Department about possibly resolving that case. They've been 17 good exchanges, but we haven't come to any agreement on a way 18 to do that. I think it's fair to say that we're contemplating 19 it, but no decisions have been made.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything that we can do here, in 21 terms of confirming your ability to bring counterclaims in this 22 case in lieu of some agreement in that case, that would be 23 helpful where you've got the Court approving an agreement that 24 you all might have that you can assert those claims here, 25 preserving whatever defenses you might otherwise -- or that

1 they might otherwise want?

2 MR. BOWERS: That certainly wouldn't hurt, Your 3 Honor, and we would be grateful for any assistance in that 4 regard.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. GARDNER: I think the challenge, Your Honor, very 7 candidly is, as you know, the other case is before the Eastern 8 District, and so it's a bit of a challenge. We can only ask 9 this Court to do so much.

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MR. GARDNER: The Government is concerned about the 12 duplicative, mirror-image nature. We did not want to have to 13 file a motion to dismiss in the Eastern District. We were 14 hoping it could have gotten resolved sort of the way the Berger
15 case is going to get resolved. I understand it can't happen 16 that way at least now, but we don't want to be in the position, 17 I don't think, frankly, the Governor wants to be in the 18 position, where we are litigating the exact same claims in two 19 different courts at the same time.

20 THE COURT: It may be that an agreement to let them 21 assert these counterclaims with any defenses that you might 22 want to raise reserved for the dispositive motion period would 23 allay their concerns on that.

24 The only other question I had, while I have you, is 25 with respect to whether the United States is going to raise

1 some issue that the individual secretary of education or 2 secretary of the Department of Justice needed to be a party in 3 the case in order for them to file their counterclaims?

4 MR. GARDNER: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: If you're content that whatever claims 6 they can raise, they can raise -- if they could raise them as 7 affirmative claims in the Eastern District case, then they can 8 raise them as counterclaims in this case?

9 MR. GARDNER: Yes, Your Honor. I mean, again, 10 consistent with, you know, any other legal arguments we might 11 have with respect to standing and such, yes, absolutely.

12 THE COURT: But it would not be an issue where they 13 are giving something up by trying to assert them as 14 counterclaims here as opposed to affirmative claims there?

15 MR. GARDNER: No, Your Honor. I mean, we are not 16 here to sandbag. We are not trying to trick them into 17 dismissing and then going "aha." It's not nothing like that at 18 all. I think everyone here, everyone, including Mr. Bowers, 19 wants to litigate this case efficiently. We don't see any 20 efficiencies to be gained by particularly litigating these 21 mirror-image claims in two different districts.

22 We are fine with having the Governor litigate these 23 claims in the Middle District, and we would obviously reserve 24 our right to challenge those counterclaims at the appropriate 25 time in exchange for dropping their separate lawsuit in the

1 Eastern District, similar to what we've discussed with counsel 2 for the legislature.

3 THE COURT: And, again, it might be slightly 4 different in terms of the time. You may be able to reach some 5 agreement with the Carcano group and their agreement, that it's 6 different for that case as opposed to whether the counterclaims
7 can exist as counterclaims against the United States as opposed 8 to against private -- the ACLU, private entity, or private 9 individuals; but if there were some agreement that any issues 10 with respect to the counterclaims in the 425 case would be 11 raised on the dispositive motion deadline that we've set out in 12 the scheduling order so that everybody knows they are not going 13 to have to fight those fronts while we are going through the 14 discovery period but that you're reserving the right to be able 15 to make those defenses, although none of those defenses would 16 be any different than the defenses that would apply if it were 17 the affirmative suit that were otherwise brought, would that be 18 something you're willing to agree to?

19 MR. GARDNER: I think that's something that we ought 20 to have a discussion about. I think there are some logistics 21 there. For example, would we have to still answer the 22 counterclaims, and that gets a little dicey given the timing of 23 when our response would be due vis-a-vis the dispositive 24 motions schedule that we've all agreed to. I think if we could 25 work out those kind of particulars, and I am confident we can,

1 I think that's an approach that makes a lot of sense to me.

2 MR. BOWERS: I would tend to agree, Your Honor. Just 3 to be clear, I do believe that the proposal that Your Honor is 4 making would help with the efficiencies, but also want to be 5 clear that our conversations have been very professional. In 6 no way am I insinuating or suggesting that they are going to 7 sandbag us. I think -- and I know you weren't saying that. I 8 just want to make clear that we are not doing that, that we 9 don't allege that.

10 Also, the Court is probably aware of this, but just 11 for the record, you know, we did file a motion to transfer 12 venue in the Eastern District, and that motion was denied. So 13 we did give it the old college try at least once.

14 THE COURT: Well, if your alternative -- now, I don't 15 want to go too far into the Eastern District case. What I want 16 to do is make sure we do everything we can in this case or the 17 cases that are here so that they can get sort of cleaned up as 18 efficiently as possible.

19 I will leave that to you, but it sounds like there 20 are some discussions that you all might be able to have that 21 would let both sides feel comfortable with a stipulation of 22 dismissal in the Eastern District case without prejudice to 23 pursuing the claims here as counterclaims in the 425 case with 24 some additional logistics that may need to be addressed on 25 that. That's not something I would even begin to try to direct

1 you to do, but that is a suggestion for possibly conversation 2 that might make sense in terms of where you might be able to 3 clean this up and put it on a schedule that then would have 4 those issues on the briefing schedule we've set out for 5 dispositive motion briefing.

6 MR. GARDNER: That makes a lot of sense, Your Honor.

7 MR. BOWERS: It does to me as well, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. So I think that takes care of 9 what I wanted to cover with where that other proceeding stood.

10 MS. STOUGHTON: Your Honor, can I just raise two 11 issues related to this discussion?

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 MS. STOUGHTON: Just two concerns I just want to get 14 out there to frame the discussion we need to have.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. STOUGHTON: One is I am little bit concerned 17 about the assumption that postponing consideration of these 18 defenses until the dispositive motion deadline accomplishes the 19 goal of making discovery more expeditious, because if you look 20 at our schedule, dispositive motions are due one week after 21 discovery closes.

22 THE COURT: Right.

23 MS. STOUGHTON: And in my experience, discovery is 24 the most intense at the end. So I think that's something that 25 the parties should discuss, but I did just want to put that out

1 there. The second --

2 THE COURT: Well, certainly nothing prevents you from 3 working on them earlier. It would just be a matter of 4 responses -- and you can file them earlier, if you wanted to do
5 so. I think what we could agree is that the responses wouldn't 6 be due or the replies wouldn't be due until the briefing 7 schedule that's set so we wouldn't have serial motions coming 8 to the Court. I think that's part of the concern, too, is 9 having all of this teed up, for lack of a better word, for the 10 district judge to be able to resolve all of it without having 11 to get sort of pieces along the way.

12 I don't know that it makes any difference for the 13 scope of discovery because those exist, to some extent right 14 now, at least as defenses, and the intervention has been 15 allowed at least that far. If that's something that we need to 16 address separately -- but I don't know if it will have been 17 briefed in time to get that resolved before it will -- 18 discovery will already have been undertaken.

19 MS. STOUGHTON: Well, Your Honor, first, thank you on 20 the first thing. That was very helpful to help me think it 21 through. The second thing you raised was exactly the second 22 thing I was going to raise, which is that I can't think of any 23 reason why the presence of these issues as counterclaims would 24 change the scope of discovery as opposed to defenses, but I 25 think that's a critical piece in our ability to move toward an

1 agreement on that.

2 THE COURT: So to the extent you need some input from 3 the Court on scope of discovery issues, it looks to me like 4 regardless of whether these are raised as defenses or 5 counterclaims, they are all still within the scope of what 6 would be part of discovery in this case.

7 If the contention is there shouldn't be any discovery
8 on this because this whole defense or this whole intervenor 9 should be dismissed completely, I think that's not going to get 10 resolved before the discovery period. So I don't think there 11 is a basis I am going to preclude discovery. Does that make 12 sense?

13 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, and that's not our position with 14 regard to any of these parties --

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So does that help 16 address those?

17 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Anything else before 19 we move on to some of the other pending motions as to what 20 we've covered so far?

21 All right. I show a motion, Number 52, by the State 22 Defendants to conduct expedited discovery related to the 23 preliminary injunction. It looks to me like that's moot in 24 light of the schedule we've adopted here and in light of Judge 25 Schroeder setting the hearing August 1. Is that right?

USA et al v. NC et al-Scheduling conference 7/22/16

1 MR. BOWERS: Yes, Your Honor, that's moot.

2 THE COURT: All right. So I am going to let the 3 clerk go ahead and note in the 236 case, Motion Number 52 is 4 moot.

5 Now, as I understand it, if your contention is at the 6 hearing that you need discovery or that some piece should be 7 resolved at the expedited or the advanced trial, then that's 8 something that you can address with Judge Schroeder, but there 9 is not any expedited discovery we would be doing obviously at 10 this point; is that right?

11 MR. BOWERS: That's right, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. Is that as far as the 13 Plaintiffs understand; is that correct?

14 MR. WILKENS: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. And then I think that's 16 everything I had with respect to the preliminary injunction in 17 the Carcano case. Is there anything else -- the 236 case, 18 anything else that would be something we'd need to get just 19 cleaned up prior to the August 1 hearing in that case?

20 MR. BOWERS: No, Your Honor.

21 MR. WILKENS: Not that I'm aware of, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. There's the not yet fully 23 briefed preliminary injunction requests by the United States in 24 the 425 case, and just so I understand that, I think that there 25 are -- let me make sure what I have here. There's the 1 Department of Justice's motion, the waiver of the reply, and as 2 I understand it, that's opposed by the Legislative Defendants

3 and the other Defendants as well, and a request for extension
4 of time to respond. I'm not going to take any of that up 5 substantively. To the extent there's something you want to 6 raise or address with Judge Schroeder at the hearing, you can 7 do that, but what I want to determine is everyone's just 8 general position on that and whether there is anything we can 9 do right now to sort of address those things or clean those 10 things up that would be helpful here today.

11 As far as the Department of Justice, anything we need 12 to do on that?

13 MS. STOUGHTON: I don't think so, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Just so I understand, are you asking for 15 your preliminary injunction to be heard August 1?

16 MS. STOUGHTON: Well, Your Honor, we had understood 17 that the reason Judge Schroeder was not -- let me back up. We 18 had understood that Judge Schroeder preferred to try to deal 19 with things collectively as much possible in all of these 20 cases.

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MS. STOUGHTON: And we had understood that the reason 23 why Judge Schroeder did not set the United States' preliminary 24 injunction hearing alongside the hearing for the Carcano 25 preliminary injunction was because it would not be fully

1 briefed in time; and when that date was set for August 1, what 2 we realized was that if we waived our reply brief, it would be 3 fully briefed. So our intention was to just identify that to 4 the judge and give him an opportunity, if his preference was 5 to, in fact, hear them together, to hear them together. That 6 was the nature of the filing, and that's the United States's 7 position.

8 THE COURT: All right. To the extent there are 9 issues with respect to any discovery that the Defendants might 10 contend they need, that would be as part of the discovery that 11 we are setting here today.

12 MS. STOUGHTON: Your Honor, I understood the 13 Defendants' request for discovery to be as a general matter as 14 to all of these preliminary injunctions. I certainly can't 15 think of a reason why they would need discovery with regard to 16 the United States' motion that wouldn't apply equally to the 17 other preliminary injunction that they raised. There are 18 additional legal issues, but they are not of a different legal 19 or factual nature than the claims in the other preliminary 20 injunction. So I didn't see that as a distinction that would 21 change the judge's approach to whether discovery was necessary 22 to decide those matters on a preliminary injunction basis.

23 THE COURT: All right. And, again, I'm not going to 24 begin to try to address what Judge Schroeder is going to choose 25 to do with it, but if Judge Schroeder's determination or

1 preference is to deal with the United States and whatever part 2 of the Carcano motion for preliminary injunction he determines 3 at an advanced trial on the merits, and so that's going to be 4 part of that advanced trial, is there a reason to do more 5 preliminary injunction briefing, or would it just get rolled 6 into the briefing that we already have? Does that make sense?

7 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, Your Honor. Your Honor, I 8 understood, at least at the present time, that the preliminary 9 injunction briefing schedule was still in place.

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MS. STOUGHTON: I think our preference is that that 12 remain in place.

13 THE COURT: So that would still get briefed, but then 14 if Judge Schroeder ultimately waits to rule on that at the 15 advanced trial on the merits, then that would be where it all 16 gets rolled in; is that right?

17 MS. STOUGHTON: Correct, Your Honor. I think for our 18 purposes, I think, especially given the compressed period of 19 discovery, there is usefulness to having the preliminary 20 injunction motion briefed even if it's not decided until the 21 trial that we scheduled for November.

22 THE COURT: All right. I think I understand your 23 position on that. All right. Yes, sir?

24 MR. DUNCAN: Your Honor, yes, and I understand that 25 you don't intend to rule on any of these matters, but I would

1 like our position on the record to be clear.

2 THE COURT: That will be helpful.

3 MR. DUNCAN: Because our position is quite different 4 from the United States. I guess the premise of it is -- during 5 the telephone conference I believe on July 13, followed by 6 Judge Schroeder's order on July 14, we thought the clear 7 premise of that is to roll the United States' preliminary 8 injunction motion into an advanced trial that would take place 9 in late October or early November. Given that that's the 10 premise that I still understand it to be, it doesn't -- it's 11 not appropriate to have a preliminary injunction response due 12 on July 29 before we engage in any of the discovery and, you 13 know, further briefing, frankly, that we are going to have in 14 advance of the trial. So the July 29 date is just sitting 15 there, difficult to understand what it's doing there in light 16 of what Judge Schroeder's order said in the July 14 order.

17 THE COURT: And I believe that one is to be referred 18 to Judge Schroeder anyway, so I don't think it's actually 19 coming to me; in which case, then Judge Schroeder can make that 20 determination, whether he wants you to file a response to the 21 preliminary injunction or whether he wants to roll it all into 22 the trial on the merits. I guess that's your request, and 23 maybe I should say it this way: I think if that's going to be 24 your request, then you can make that request explicit in terms 25 of when you propose that the response to the preliminary

1 injunction would be due, or how you propose to respond to their 2 motion for preliminary injunction, if at all, what your 3 proposal is.

4 As I understand it, the Department of Justice says, 5 okay, well, even if it gets rolled in under this schedule that 6 we have, we would still appreciate having a response to the 7 motion for preliminary injunction now even if it's not 8 determined by the Court until after the hearing in November.

9 MR. DUNCAN: Well, I guess we have two responses, and 10 I'm not sure if I'm making it to you or to Judge Schroeder, but 11 I'll just make it anyway.

12 THE COURT: Right. Go ahead.

13 MR. DUNCAN: So the two responses are that the 14 schedule that we've now agreed to ought to supercede the 15 July 29 deadline, and so it should simply go away, and we tried 16 to make that point in our motion for extension of time.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. DUNCAN: The motion -- the reason we also made a 19 motion for extension of time is because the United States filed 20 its notice on Friday, I forget the date, but a Friday, 21 suggesting that its PI motion be heard on August 1. Now, we 22 felt like we had no choice but to file a motion for extension 23 of time because we had understood that that PI hearing was 24 being rolled over into October, November. So it's purely 25 defensive because we simply -- we have a deadline sitting

1 there, but it's not clear that it makes -- it's appropriate 2 anymore.

3 THE COURT: All right. I think I understand, and to 4 be clear, I'm not going to make some determination about what 5 Judge Schroeder intends to do or what he did, but I think that 6 if there are some issues with respect to what gets heard at the 7 August 1 hearing, Judge Schroeder can make that determination.

8 The second piece, with respect to whether we roll 9 some preliminary injunction briefing into the schedule we have 10 here, nothing I am doing today right now supercedes whatever 11 you might need to do or clarify with Judge Schroeder unless we 12 can make some agreement on that today. It does not sound like 13 there's going to be some agreement on that, but that's why I 14 raised the question, if you follow.

15 MR. DUNCAN: I do. If I may make one more point?

16 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

17 MR. DUNCAN: It is our understanding of Judge 18 Schroeder's order, which I believe was on July 14, that the 19 United States' preliminary injunction motion has, in fact, been 20 rolled over into the October, November trial date. We believe 21 that the order says that. So if the United States wants to 22 have its preliminary injunction motion heard, the substance of 23 its motion, on August 1, it's up to the United States to make a 24 motion to do that, and there is no such motion. That's why we 25 were somewhat confused by the notice that was filed. We didn't

1 know how to interpret that, as a motion or not.

2 THE COURT: Well, I think it is a fair point that if 3 you all want some or need some determination ahead of the 4 hearing to clarify this dispute you have, then we need to get 5 that sort of presented in a way that it can be addressed 6 without me venturing too far into trying to give you a 7 preliminary determination on that.

8 Let me actually make sure other Defendants are sort 9 of similarly situated in terms of your position on this.

10 MR. BOWERS: Yes, Your Honor, we echo everything 11 Mr. Duncan just said.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. BOWERS: I would add just one point.
14 Ms. Stoughton mentioned that, you know -- I think she did. I 15 don't want to mischaracterize it -- something about they would 16 like to have a response to their PI motion at some point prior 17 to trial, and we would be willing -- at least on behalf of my 18 clients, we would be willing to discuss a reasonable time 19 period within which we would file such a response, beyond 20 July 29 of course.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MR. BOWERS: So we are not trying to keep them 23 from --

24 THE COURT: If there is some reason -- or something 25 that would be helpful to them to know what your response would

1 be, then you could do that; it would just be not by the 29th?

2 MR. BOWERS: That's correct, Your Honor.

3 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, that's our position as well, Your 4 Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. DUNCAN: We would be happy to work something out.
7 We just didn't know if it needed to be worked out in light of 8 the schedule.

9 THE COURT: Where things are. All right.

10 Mr. Francisco, anything else?

11 MR. FRANCISCO: Your Honor, we concur with 12 Mr. Duncan's position.

13 THE COURT: So, Ms. Stoughton, let me come back to 14 you. It sounds like if it's just a matter of having some 15 response to preliminary injunction so that you can know what 16 their response position issues will be, that might be something 17 that you can work out with them in terms of a date when they 18 might file that with the assumption, if we go down that track, 19 that it's going to be substantively for the Court rolled over 20 into the trial.

21 If you are asking for your motion to preliminary 22 injunction to be heard on August 1, it does make sense to me 23 that if that's a request that you are making, that you make 24 that as a request so that it can actually go to Judge 25 Schroeder, and he can make a determination on that.

USA et al v. NC et al-Scheduling conference 7/22/16

1 MS. STOUGHTON: Understood, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Is that fair enough?

3 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes.

4 THE COURT: So I will leave it this way. If then you 5 want to be heard on that and you think that there is some room, 6 even in light of what Judge Schroeder did at the prior 7 telephone conference and order, then I will leave it to you to 8 make a decision whether you want to make such a request, but to 9 the extent that you want to, you would need to file that as a 10 separate motion.

11 MS. STOUGHTON: I understand.

12 THE COURT: I am trying to be careful that I am not 13 directing you to file that --

14 MS. STOUGHTON: I understand.

15 THE COURT: -- or making some indication about 16 whether there's room for that so much as if that's a position 17 that you take and something you want to pursue, you need to 18 file a motion so that it can go to Judge Schroeder, and he can 19 make that determination.

20 MS. STOUGHTON: I completely understand, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And so --

22 MR. DUNCAN: May I ask for one clarification, Your 23 Honor?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. DUNCAN: I can consult a docket, but I am just

1 asking. Our motion for extension of time to respond to the 2 United States' preliminary injunction, is it -- I don't 3 understand whether it's been submitted or not to Judge
4 Schroeder.

5 THE COURT: I think that's docketed at Number 97.
6 Ms. Engle can tell us that.

7 THE CLERK: That was submitted.

8 MR. DUNCAN: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: It was submitted to Judge Schroeder; is 10 that right?

11 THE CLERK: It was submitted to Judge Schroeder on 12 July 18.

13 THE COURT: So that request for extension of time is 14 submitted to Judge Schroeder. I am trying to -- what I think 15 might make sense is for you to all to have a conversation about 16 where you are on that. If the Government is not going to make 17 that kind of request for hearing on some piece of your 18 preliminary injunction on August 1, then it seems that you all 19 can work out some agreement that would moot that request for 20 extension of time, but if you are going to proceed with your 21 request, then I think Judge Schroeder can consider all of those 22 things together.

23 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Does that sound right?

25 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes.

1 MR. DUNCAN: Yes.

2 THE COURT: So I will leave that then as it is. If 3 the United States decides not to file a request with respect to 4 its preliminary injunction for the August 1 hearing, then the 5 parties will have some further discussion that might moot the 6 pending requests for extension of time, and I will leave that 7 to you all; but nothing about the schedule that we are adopting 8 today affirmatively supersedes anything that's otherwise set 9 with respect to that briefing schedule, and we'll just leave 10 that for separate determination. Does that sound right to you 11 all?

12 MR. DUNCAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 MS. STOUGHTON: Yes, thank you.

14 THE COURT: I believe we already jumped ahead and 15 addressed this when I had the -- in the 236 case, the motion to 16 strike the counterclaims. I think we've discussed that, 17 whether those could be affirmative defenses rather than 18 counterclaims. So I don't think there is anything else we 19 needed to address. We covered that, yes, Mr. Wilkens?

20 MR. WILKENS: Yes, that's right, Your Honor. And we, 21 I think, clarified that this agreement or stipulation will go 22 in by 5:00, and then we will have further conversations about 23 whether we can proceed with the defenses.

24 THE COURT: All right. Yes.

25 MR. WILKENS: Just to be clear on the record, and I

1 think it will be clear in the statement that's filed, but with 2 regard to the pending motion to strike, the first argument, we 3 would withdraw that on the duplicative nature of the 4 counterclaims, but we would keep the -- pages 9 through 15 on 5 standing would still be a live argument that we've agreed would 6 remain.

7 THE COURT: Would remain?

8 MR. WILKENS: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: And I will ask you -- I don't know the 10 logistics of your timing on this -- is there the ability still 11 to note that in light of our discussions here today, you'll 12 continue having conversations about that, or is that already 13 prepared and filed?

14 MS. STOUGHTON: Your Honor, I don't know the answer
15 to that question because there are -- there is another attorney 16 back in Washington who was tasked with doing that while we are 17 here today. So that's all I know.

18 THE COURT: I understand. So we will just note for 19 the record as part of these proceedings that, in addition to 20 whatever is included in the joint report, there is also this 21 additional possibility that you all will continue having those 22 discussions that may result in the motion to strike being 23 rendered moot, if the counterclaims are treated as affirmative 24 defenses that would still allow all of those to be raised as 25 issues in the case. Is that where we are?

1 MR. DUNCAN: Yes, Your Honor. As I understand it, we 2 are supposed to keep talking. We are going to file our joint 3 notice, but we can talk further and that we may have another 4 joint notice.

5 THE COURT: You may be able, right, to take care of 6 that.

7 I already covered this as well with you, Mr.
8 Francisco, but with respect to the motions to stay and motions 9 to dismiss by the UNC Defendants, those are still being 10 briefed. They would be on the ordinary briefing schedule under 11 the local rules, but unless or until there is a stay or a 12 dismissal, the UNC Defendants would be participating fully in 13 all these deadlines for discovery.

14 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor, on the stay motion, 15 it's fully briefed, and I think it's scheduled to be heard at 16 the same time as the Carcano PI motion on August 1.

17 THE COURT: Would that attempt to stay the discovery, 18 or is it just staying some other piece?

19 MR. FRANCISCO: Your Honor, it would be an attempt to 20 stay the discovery. It's obviously become a lot more 21 complicated in light of everything that's gone forward. It is 22 unclear where that will go, but for now, it is fully briefed, 23 and it is noted to be heard on August 1.

24 THE COURT: Well, to the extent that there is 25 discovery ongoing, it certainly -- my sense is that it is most

1 efficient and makes sense for the UNC Defendants to be 2 participating in the discovery while it's ongoing so we don't 3 have to repeat discovery later if --

4 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: -- those Defendants were then proceeding
6 at some point. I don't think anyone would want the discovery 7 to be repeated.

8 MR. FRANCISCO: We would agree.

9 THE COURT: Otherwise, until there is some other 10 ruling to the contrary, you would be participating then in all 11 the discovery?

12 MR. FRANCISCO: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Anything else we need to take up today as 14 far as that goes?

15 MR. FRANCISCO: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. I think that takes me then to 17 the 845 case and the motion to intervene by the North 18 Carolinians for Privacy, but before I do that, I want to give 19 you a chance for these 236 and 425 cases with respect to 20 anything else other than the 845 case issues that we would need 21 to address today? Mr. Wilkens?

22 MR. WILKENS: Not for the Carcano Plaintiffs, Your 23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Stoughton?

25 MS. STOUGHTON: Not for the United States either.

1 THE COURT: And, Mr. Gardner, to the extent you are 2 otherwise involved, anything else before I move on to that?

3 MR. GARDNER: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Yes, sir, Mr. Bowers?

5 MR. BOWERS: No, Your Honor, I think we've covered 6 everything.

7 MR. DUNCAN: Nothing further, Your Honor.

8 MR. FRANCISCO: Nothing further, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. So let me just ask you before 10 I completely move to that case then. In the joint report in 11 the 236 and 425 cases, the parties stated that the schedule
12 presumes no intervention by the North Carolinians for Privacy 13 and that the schedule would have to be adjusted if they 14 intervene. Let me just ask you, based on that statement, what 15 you anticipate or how you anticipate it would need to be 16 adjusted if they were allowed to intervene in the 425 case?

17 MR. DUNCAN: Your Honor, if I may clarify one thing?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 MR. DUNCAN: We don't believe the joint report is 20 saying that we, the Defendants, think the discovery schedule 21 would need to be adjusted.

22 THE COURT: Okay. That's helpful. Let's see where 23 we are.

24 MR. DUNCAN: Let me just find the language. The 25 language we have here is "Plaintiffs believe" --

1 THE COURT: -- "believe that if the Court permits..., 2 the following schedule likely will need to be adjusted." All 3 right. Well then, while I have you, though, if I -- I am not 4 going to hear the motion to intervene. That's not before me, 5 but if the discovery were consolidated or later the 6 intervention were allowed, what would your position be with 7 respect to the North Carolinians for Privacy being included in 8 the discovery order in this case?

9 MR. DUNCAN: We have no objection to them being 10 included in the discovery order as it stands, and we don't know 11 of any reason why it would have to be adjusted, which is why we 12 insisted on the language that it's not us.

13 THE COURT: All right. If there is a designation of 14 number of interrogatories and requests for admission per side, 15 if the North Carolinians for Privacy were included as part of 16 your side, would you still be able to divide that same number 17 up among all of the --

18 MR. DUNCAN: I don't want to take a position for 19 them. I don't know any reason --

20 THE COURT: I am going to come around to them in a 21 minute, but right now, as far as your clients are concerned, 22 you wouldn't have any problem with keeping all the numbers as 23 is if they were rolled into discovery?

24 MR. DUNCAN: Speaking for the Defendant Intervenors, 25 no, we have no problem with that.

1 MR. BOWERS: Same here, Your Honor. We specifically 2 contemplated that when we were working on this. We would have 3 no objection to that.

4 THE COURT: No problem with that?

5 MR. BOWERS: No problem with that at all.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Francisco?

7 MR. FRANCISCO: Same position, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. So then I think I come over 9 here. Let me ask -- I think it's in the joint Rule 26(f) 10 report, but, Mr. Gardner, if you want to address that for the 11 Department of Justice, then that's fine.

12 MR. GARDNER: Yes, Your Honor. I am going to 13 cross-reference because both North Carolinians for Privacy's
14 and the Department of Justice's separate Rule 26(f)'s 15 acknowledge that the case ought to be resolved on cross-motion, 16 and I think that's largely because North Carolinians for 17 Privacy's case is qualitatively different than the other cases 18 that we just addressed.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Well, here is the thing. I will 20 let you be heard on all of that, and I am going to hear from 21 their attorney on all of that, but if I could sort of jump you 22 ahead --

23 MR. GARDNER: I am cutting to the chase right now, 24 Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: -- how it would have to be adjusted in 1 terms of the dates.

2 MR. GARDNER: So a few things. One, we think that 3 the dispositive motion deadline would need to be much earlier, 4 and that's because North Carolinians for Privacy have raised
5 primarily APA claims. We typically don't have trials in APA
6 cases, and, typically, we don't even have discovery in APA 7 cases.

8 So just as a threshold matter, allowing North 9 Carolinians for Privacy to be a participant in discovery in a 10 case that largely is a case under the Administrative Procedure 11 Act seems atypical at best, to be sure; but now, beyond that 12 scheduling issue about moving up the dispositive motion, I do 13 think it adds complexity to add yet another party to this 14 carefully crafted Rule 26(f) that the Carcano and the United 15 States Plaintiffs developed in terms of dividing up discovery 16 requests, expert witnesses, and the like. So that complexity I 17 do think --

18 THE COURT: Well, they're saying they can roll them 19 all in. So that's what I am trying to get at is would it take 20 you longer if they were included? You need more time?

21 MR. GARDNER: Well, to the extent that North 22 Carolinians for Privacy want to also identify additional 23 experts, additional fact witnesses potentially, serve 24 additional discovery requests, the -- let me take that because 25 the parties -- if they accept that schedule, there would not be

1 additional discovery requests, but it could potentially 2 increase the number of witnesses.

3 THE COURT: It would potentially address the number 4 of expert witnesses, but if it's proceeding as a separate case 5 and I let them have expert witnesses, there are going to be 6 expert witnesses there.

7 MR. GARDNER: There would be, but that would be a 8 separately handled case on a separate track, and I do think 9 that does make a difference because I think the parties have 10 obviously agreed, the United States and the Carcano Plaintiffs 11 and the Defendants here, to have this expedited schedule that 12 will presumably result in a trial in late October, early 13 November; but North Carolinians for Privacy, because the nature 14 of those claims are very different, including interjecting 15 those additional different issues, potentially additional 16 witnesses, I do foresee that it could create hiccups in this 17 really carefully crafted schedule.

18 THE COURT: All right. Let me let Mr. Dalton get 19 involved in this conversation a little bit, and then I'll come 20 back to you. Yes, sir.

21 MR. DALTON: If I may, Your Honor?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. DALTON: Yes, I feel like the United States'
24 position is somewhat inconsistent in between the two different 25 Rule 26(f) positions. In their Rule 26(f) response in the

1 North Carolinians for Privacy case, they say that no discovery
2 is necessary and just want to proceed on dispositive motions, 3 and, yet, their position on the joint report is that allowing 4 us to intervene with the exact same claims, to join in similar 5 claims, legal and factual claims, would again -- would somehow 6 delay the discovery process, add more witnesses.

7 THE COURT: That's what I've sort of drilled down 8 here with Mr. Gardner. It sounds like the concern really -- to 9 the extent you're sharing the discovery that's already agreed 10 to, the primary concern would be maybe with adding expert 11 witnesses.

12 Let me take this tack with you. Ordinarily, in an 13 APA case, you are going to have, if any discovery, pretty 14 narrow discovery. It looks like you are going to still have to 15 get the administrative record sort of at some point as part of 16 this so we know what that is, and then if your request is that 17 you might have some experts that you want to include, that is 18 relatively limited and may be able to be managed as part of the 19 larger discovery. What I would want to make sure of is that 20 letting you do that doesn't complicate, delay, or otherwise 21 cause unnecessary disputes in the discovery period.

22 MR. DALTON: Absolutely, Your Honor. To be clear, 23 the primary reason that we are seeking discovery is because the 24 United States has introduced facts that put in dispute some of 25 the legal questions that will be before the Court that are in

1 both cases. The United States in their preliminary injunction 2 motion has produced expert witnesses and other testimony, 3 declarations that put facts at issue that will impact our 4 client's legal claims; and because of that, we need the ability 5 to either take discovery ourselves in our separate case or to 6 join the discovery schedule in the other cases in order to 7 protect our client's interests and not have them be 8 detrimentally impacted by the experts that have been put 9 forward by the United States already.

10 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to hear from 11 Mr. Gardner, explore this a little more with him, and then I'll 12 come back to you. Yes, sir.

13 MR. GARDNER: I think, Your Honor, there may be a 14 misunderstanding amongst the parties. The Government's 15 position is that these issues are legal issues, and in the 16 preliminary injunction, we said quite clearly here, "The legal 17 conclusion that discrimination based on sex includes 18 discrimination on account of transgender status is bolstered by 19 an informed understanding of the real-life meaning of the term 20 'sex.'"

21 The Government in a defensive posture in an APA case
22 doesn't intend to put on evidence. We intend to, as a matter
23 of law, move to dismiss. So North Carolinians for Privacy's 24 concern that we are going to be introducing experts in defense 25 to an APA case is just a very different posture than what the

1 United States is doing in its affirmative case, and that 2 explains the difference, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Well, so here is what I am looking at,
4 though. In the 425 case, in the Legislative Intervenor's 5 counterclaims, it looks like Counterclaim Number 2 is that H.B.
6 2 does not violate Title IX, which seems to at least generally 7 match or overlap with the 845 claim that there is not a 8 violation of Title IX, and that the Berger-Moore counterclaim
9 in the 425 case, Roman Numeral IV, I think, is that the DOJ's 10 interpretation violates the APA, and that's the APA piece of 11 this, so that in the 845 case, it's not just an APA case, but 12 the two claims that are raised are tracked as counterclaims 13 with the Intervenors.

14 Here is where I am going. I don't intend to open up 15 some broader discovery for them, and if they're complicating or 16 delaying the discovery process or asking for discovery
17 themselves that's beyond what is appropriate, I would have a 18 problem with that. We would address it. On the other hand, 19 even if it's a separate case and they are not allowed to 20 intervene, it seems to make sense to me to consolidate them 21 just for discovery so that if there's an administrative record 22 issue about what the record is for the APA, that all gets 23 sorted out in the discovery period. If there is some expert 24 issue or limited issue, it overlaps and we can do it all as 25 part of a single discovery. So I'm also not setting hearings

1 at noon on every other Friday for the 845 case that we've got 2 to deal with as well.

3 MR. GARDNER: I completely understand that, Your 4 Honor, and the Government does have an interest in efficiency
5 and not duplication. I do think, though, the difference here 6 is if we took all these other cases away, and we were just 7 dealing with North Carolinians for Privacy, presumably we 8 wouldn't really even be talking about discovery. We would in 9 typical course move to dismiss, get that resolved if there are 10 any claims remaining, and there should be because they are 11 legal claims, and at that point figure out a path forward. It 12 doesn't seem, though --

13 THE COURT: Just so I can follow, though, so your 14 motion to dismiss in terms of standing issues, is that -- or 15 your motion to dismiss in terms of -- or are you actually more 16 like a motion for summary judgment on the actual APA claims?

17 MR. GARDNER: That's exactly right. I should say, 18 Your Honor -- that was a compound question, and I fell for it.

19 A couple of things. One, I actually don't even see 20 the need to certify an administrative record in this case given 21 the nature of what's being challenged here. They are 22 essentially challenging policy guidance on various APA
23 principles, including the fact that it didn't go through notice 24 and comment rulemaking. Those kind of APA challenges typically 25 don't even require an administrative record. We just decide,

1 as a matter of law, is this the type of the guidance that is 2 subject to the procedural requirements of the APA. So that's 3 sort of the first answer.

4 The second answer -- and I'm not sure I remember the 5 two-part question now, so I apologize.

6 THE COURT: Well, it was the ideal -- or you have 7 some preliminary motions or is this summary judgment on the APA
8 and the other non-APA claims?

9 MR. GARDNER: Thank you. We would envision a 10 dispositive motion that covers what I will call the substance 11 as well as any procedural issues.

12 THE COURT: My concern is why would it help to have 13 that on a separate track from similar overlapping issues being 14 raised as counterclaims in the 425 case?

15 MR. GARDNER: Sure, because I think a few things.
16 One, I recognize there's some level of overlap. The Government 17 is not saying these cases are completely unrelated, and, 18 certainly, in terms of the general subject matter, there is 19 overlap. One example I can give you is let's say the Carcano 20 Plaintiffs are successful in prevailing on their constitutional 21 claims and that H.B. 2 is struck down as being 22 unconstitutional. My sense is North Carolinians for Privacy's 23 lawsuit goes on, and it goes on because they are challenging 24 separate documents, those policy guidance documents, and I 25 think that example --

1 THE COURT: So that makes sense as a reason to keep 2 them separate and not let North Carolinians for Privacy
3 intervene but to put them on the same discovery order and track 4 so that if those issues do have to get resolved, they are all 5 at least resolved in an orderly way. My determination could be 6 a recommendation that there not be a discretionary 7 intervention, but that there be -- this case proceed separately 8 but be consolidated for discovery, and then the district judge 9 can consider the dispositive issues at the November time 10 period.

11 MR. GARDNER: I certainly understand that. I guess 12 where I'm pushing back a little bit is on the notion that North 13 Carolinians for Privacy need discovery in the first instance, 14 given that in the defensive posture, we are going to be moving 15 as a matter of law, and our argument is as a matter of law, 16 Title IX, Title VII, and the Violence Against Women Act are 17 consistent with the policy guidance that they are challenging.

18 So I think if there were a case, Your Honor -- and 19 let me be clear. If this is a case where we felt we were going 20 to be introducing experts or fact witnesses and the like, we 21 would be taking a different position here, Your Honor. We'd 22 say, look, for efficiency, it does make sense for them to 23 participate, but we don't deal with North Carolinians for 24 Privacy's lawsuit as implicating factual- or expert-type issues 25 that the affirmative lawsuits brought by the United States and

1 the Carcano Plaintiffs implicate, and that's sort of the bigger 2 point here.

3 THE COURT: One more question, and then I will come 4 back to you.

5 So -- actually, it's two parts again. I understand
6 that's your position with the APA. Even as to the APA, there 7 would be the issue where, even if the United States believed 8 that there wasn't any need for discovery, I would consider 9 whether there was some limited discovery if they could show me 10 some piece or part for that discovery, and, if so, then whether 11 it makes sense for that to be consolidated as well.

12 The second part is the non-APA claim and whether 13 there's some basis there, whatever discovery, even if you 14 believe it's limited, would be appropriate if those things 15 would be some potential discovery that they might be entitled 16 to, and, if so, then why we would have that on a separate 17 track?

18 MR. GARDNER: Sure. I think I can answer both of 19 those questions, and let me take them backwards. Even with 20 respect to Count Two and Count Three, Your Honor, we think, as 21 presented by North Carolinians for Privacy, those are legal 22 issues. Either Title IX and VAWA permit or do not permit 23 inclusion of transgender individuals to use the bathroom with 24 which they identify -- which is consistent with their gender 25 identity.

1 But with respect to discovery more generally, Your 2 Honor, it seems to me that one approach we could take is the 3 Government files its dispositive motion. If North Carolinians
4 for Privacy believe that in order to respond to our motion, 5 they need discovery, they can file a Rule 56(d) motion, and at 6 that conjuncture, it would be teed for the Court to decide 7 whether or not the Government's arguments are presenting legal 8 arguments or arguments that require some form of discovery to 9 respond to.

10 THE COURT: Well, I understand why, if it were a 11 standalone case, that might make sense to do, but I am not sure 12 whether it makes sense to do since we've got all these other 13 overlapping claims and issues proceeding on this expedited 14 discovery track statement at the same time.

15 I am going to go over here for a minute, and then 16 I'll come back to you. Yes, sir.

17 MR. DALTON: If I may, just, I think, a point of 18 clarification, North Carolinians for Privacy's case is not 19 different than the issues already presented. We present only 20 two additional claims under the APA that are not already 21 presented by the Intervenors, and those two issues would be the 22 free exercise and the RFRA claim, which, if this case were 23 resolved on the other issues, the Court wouldn't even need to 24 reach those, and we don't anticipate extensive or additional 25 discovery on those issues.

1 So that being the case, the other APA claims that are 2 brought by North Carolinians for Privacy are already at issue 3 in the United States' case. It would make sense -- to the 4 extent discovery is necessary, for example, that will require, 5 at least under one of our claims, a determination of the 6 meaning of what -- what does Title IX mean, what does sex mean, 7 and the United States has put factual evidence at issue in 8 their preliminary injunction motion as to the meaning of the 9 word "sex." And we, in order to protect our client's 10 interests, need the ability to respond to that, and that's why 11 we do need discovery, whether it's separately or in conjunction 12 with the other discovery that's taking place.

13 THE COURT: If it were in conjunction, then -- and 14 you were included in a consolidated discovery but still left as 15 a separate case for purposes of just trial and management, you 16 would be limited in terms of your interrogatories, requests for 17 admission in terms of the total number for the Defendants, and 18 you would be joining that; but even with that, I think I want 19 to make sure and understand exactly what or how much discovery 20 you're anticipating, and then it sounds like the main thing 21 that might be anything in addition to what otherwise would be 22 already happening would be the possibility of an expert witness 23 that you would designate or a rebuttal to an expert that the 24 United States has designated.

25 Do you anticipate -- or what do you anticipate? Do

USA et al v. NC et al-Scheduling conference 7/22/16

1 you anticipate just that, or can you tell me a little bit about 2 that?

3 MR. DALTON: Yes, Your Honor. We would anticipate 4 coordinating with the current Defendants to reduce any 5 duplicative discovery. As far as experts go, it would be 6 primarily rebuttal experts to rebut the ones that the United 7 States has already put forward and also any witnesses to rebut 8 other witnesses that they put forward within their motion for 9 preliminary injunction. No, we don't anticipate expanding the 10 scope of discovery whatsoever beyond the claims that are 11 already before this Court. As I said, they are very similar.
12 That's why we are moving to intervene is they are the same 13 questions of law and fact presented in our case and the United 14 States' case with only the very small difference, as we 15 included the free exercise and the RFRA claims. Beyond that, 16 there are the same issues of law, same issues of fact, and we 17 believe it would be most efficient to try them on the same 18 discovery schedule.

19 THE COURT: And I understand the rebuttal expert.
20 What other expert or non-- are there non-expert witnesses that 21 you are anticipating? Can you help me with that?

22 MR. DALTON: Well, Your Honor, the United States has 23 put forth over 500 pages of evidence attached to its 24 preliminary injunction motion. That includes both expert 25 witnesses, lay witnesses talking about the impacts that House

1 Bill 2 has on individuals, and because of the individuals that 2 we represent and the impacts it might have on them, it's 3 possible we could also put forth those types of declarations at 4 least or witnesses.

5 THE COURT: So it wouldn't necessarily be any 6 additional discovery that you are trying to get from the United 7 States other than the administrative record. You are talking 8 about the possibility of presenting a rebuttal expert and 9 presenting other witnesses' declarations on your own; is that 10 right?

11 MR. DALTON: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. And then if there is an issue 13 or question with respect to the admissibility of those, then 14 that's something that Judge Schroeder would have to consider.

15 MR. DALTON: Absolutely.

16 THE COURT: Let me let you respond to that.

17 MR. GARDNER: Thank you. Your Honor, I really 18 appreciate that because --

19 THE COURT: It helps; right?

20 MR. GARDNER: Well, that's precisely our concern is 21 that I am not as concerned about North Carolinians for 22 Privacy's initial discovery against us as much as I am 23 concerned about them now introducing new experts, new fact 24 witnesses, who the Government is now going to have to depose 25 within this very compressed period of time, and I am still

1 somewhat struck by their need to introduce witnesses to respond 2 to the United States' witnesses in a separate case when we are 3 not going to be raising or using those types of experts to 4 defend the United States' interests in North Carolinians for 5 Privacy. That's why --

6 THE COURT: So is that the distinction, whether they 7 are allowed to intervene, because that's still out there as a 8 possibility?

9 MR. GARDNER: Absolutely.

10 THE COURT: As I understand part of the reason for 11 not letting them intervene is because they've got their own 12 case; but if then in their own case they are not able to do 13 everything they could if they intervened, then that actually, 14 to me, leaves me to conclude maybe we should just let them 15 intervene, rather than a separate case with discovery.

16 Do you understand?

17 MR. GARDNER: I understand exactly what you're 18 saying, Your Honor. I think actually the reason why they don't 19 need to intervene is because their separate case is different, 20 because they don't need to develop a factual record because the 21 Government again is making legal arguments here.

22 I mean, again, if in North Carolinians for Privacy 23 the Government was going to be introducing expert testimony or 24 fact witnesses, then I would understand North Carolinians for 25 Privacy's need for discovery much more. The reason I don't,

1 though, again not to reiterate, is because these are legal 2 arguments that North Carolinians for Privacy raises, their need 3 for discovery to respond to the Government seems unnecessary; 4 and, again, if they do have a concern that they need discovery, 5 it seems that the appropriate vehicle for addressing that is in 6 response to our earlier dispositive motion.

7 Now, with respect to intervention, if intervention is 8 granted, the concern there is, again, we crafted a very 9 carefully, very tight schedule for getting through discovery, 10 and now I hear from North Carolinians for Privacy that, well, 11 now they may want to introduce experts and fact witnesses.

12 THE COURT: Well, it would be on the same schedule.

13 MR. GARDNER: Exactly, and that's the concern is that 14 this is a very tight schedule for getting a lot of stuff done 15 very quickly, and now we're talking about introducing yet more 16 witnesses. So that's the concern in terms of -- to respond to 17 Your Honor in terms of why we believe the schedule might have 18 to be adjusted, it's for these reasons.

19 THE COURT: All right. I am going to give you a 20 choice. I don't think you are going to like either one. So if 21 this were the choice -- and I am going to get a response from 22 everybody, but I think it's ultimately going to be -- my guess 23 is that the rest of the interested parties would agree to 24 either of these, but I will find out.

25 The choice is either I recommend intervention as a

1 discretionary determination and we roll all of this in and deal 2 with it on the same schedule and simplify it down to just the 3 two cases, or I recommend that they not be allowed to 4 intervene, they stay a separate case, so that there's not some 5 issue of concern limiting their ability to protect their 6 interests; and just for the Court's efficiency and simplicity, 7 we keep everything moving along the same track, I consolidate 8 them just for discovery purposes without limiting in either 9 event your ability to make your arguments as to what discovery 10 specifically is ultimately going to be allowed to be presented.

11 MR. GARDNER: My colleague can slap me in the back of 12 the head if I misstate things, but I would choose Option B. I 13 think Option B makes much more sense here, that they would 14 proceed on their discovery case on a separate track. To the 15 extent Your Honor believes it is appropriate for them to 16 participate just for purposes of discovery, so be it. Again, 17 we would --

18 THE COURT: I understand you are not agreeing to 19 that.

20 MR. GARDNER: But between those two choices, Option B
21 makes much more sense to the Government.

22 THE COURT: I am going to come over here. My guess 23 is that either of those options works for North Carolinians for 24 Privacy; is that right?

25 MR. DALTON: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: So if given the choice, not necessarily 2 again by agreement, but understanding that I am going to pick 3 one of those, if the Government is selecting Option B, then you
4 don't have any objection to Option B? And to clarify, Option B 5 being then you would not be intervening in any of the 6 existing -- the 236 or the 425 case, but you would be 7 proceeding as a separate case, consolidated for discovery so 8 you are on the same schedule, and then any issues with respect 9 to your claims or what you can present or how they'd be 10 presented would be taken up by Judge Schroeder in November.

11 MR. DALTON: No objection to that, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. Let me see if any of the 13 other Defendants has any objection to that.

14 MR. BOWERS: No objection, Your Honor.

15 MR. DUNCAN: No objection, Your Honor.

16 MR. FRANCISCO: No, Your Honor. UNC Defendants have 17 taken no position on intervention, so we are indifferent 18 between those two options.

19 THE COURT: Between either of those things, all 20 right. I don't think it affects the Carcano Plaintiffs at all, 21 except that under either scenario, they are participating in 22 discovery. Understanding where we are, is there anything that 23 you all would need to raise on that?

24 MR. WILKENS: Your Honor, I would just say, in terms 25 of -- well, to the extent that it's Option B and issues can

1 be -- legal issues can be then resolved in the separate case
2 and that that might alleviate some of the crush of discovery 3 that we have in the other cases, that would be preferable from 4 our point of view. It may simplify discovery if these legal 5 dispositive issues can be dealt with early on in the separate 6 case, so we would have a preference for B in that sense.

7 THE COURT: All right. I guess you are asking for B 8 plus a separate dispositive schedule in the 845 case; is that 9 right?

10 MR. WILKENS: Well, maybe I misunderstood. I assumed 11 that if -- under Option B, if there is a separate case going 12 on, even though there is coordination for discovery, it 13 wouldn't preclude a motion as a matter of law being brought 14 early in the other separate case.

15 THE COURT: I think that nothing would preclude any 16 motion -- and Ms. Stoughton and I talked about this earlier -- 17 any motion from being filed earlier. If there is a request for 18 an earlier responsive period that would otherwise apply or a 19 particular motion that you would want a different response time
20 to run, I can consider that, and certainly you can always file 21 a motion earlier. I don't know that it will be reached 22 separately from the November determination.

23 MR. GARDNER: Understood, Your Honor. One point of 24 clarification, if in the Option B North Carolinians for Privacy 25 of their separate case -- I understood that both parties in

1 their 26(f) proposed an earlier dispositive briefing schedule
2 than that which the Carcano and the United States Plaintiffs 3 agreed to. They were different schedules, to be sure, but they 4 were earlier. I believe North Carolinians for Privacy wanted 5 cross-motions simultaneously. The United States' view would be 6 that it should be sort of an A, B, A, B schedule, but it does 7 seem that if North Carolinians for Privacy does remain its own 8 separate concern, that it might be helpful to reach an 9 agreement now on what the time should be for dispositive 10 motions.

11 THE COURT: So you would be consolidated for 12 discovery, which means all of the deadlines up through 13 October 7, which is the close of discovery, are going to apply?

14 MR. GARDNER: Correct.

15 THE COURT: But if you want to set an earlier 16 dispositive motion briefing schedule still with the October 7
17 close of discovery, then I can entertain that request.

18 Any objections, Mr. Dalton, to considering that?

19 MR. DALTON: I'm sure we can discuss it. I don't 20 particularly see a need to move up dispositive motions earlier 21 than the already agreed-to schedule in the United States' case.

22 THE COURT: Let me see. What's the proposal you 23 would make?

24 MR. GARDNER: So North Carolinians for Privacy, in 25 fact, proposed a date of September 30, 2016, for cross-motions.

1 In the United States' 26(f), we proposed a slightly different 2 schedule where the Plaintiff would move for summary judgment on 3 or before August 19. We would then file our opposition and 4 then cross-motion on September 9. Plaintiffs' opposition reply
5 would be due on September 30, and then the United States' reply
6 would be filed on or before October 14.

7 THE COURT: All right. Let me tell you where I am 8 going with this. I am not going to give -- I am going to risk 9 making some misstatement because we're talking about defendants
10 and plaintiffs, and I want to make sure the parties stay 11 straight because you all flip depending on which posture you 12 are in.

13 If we are in a separate case and the plaintiff in 14 that case is North Carolinians for Privacy, I am not going to 15 put an earlier deadline on North Carolinians for Privacy to 16 raise a motion, but I am not going to preclude you from raising 17 an earlier dispositive motion, and then we can talk about what 18 their response time would be. Does that make sense?

19 MR. GARDNER: That makes sense, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: So then North Carolinians for Privacy, if 21 they want to make it their own dispositive motion, they have 22 all the way up through the deadlines that otherwise apply, if 23 they haven't already been dismissed for some reason on a prior 24 motion by you. If you want to make an earlier motion, then we 25 can talk about that today, or you can make your motion and

1 request that they be given a response time consistent with the 2 local rules, rather than waiting to respond until later.

3 MR. GARDNER: Understood. Perhaps the best approach, 4 Your Honor, is for the parties to meet and confer and try to 5 work out a schedule that works for both parties, and,
6 hopefully, that can resolve that issue. If not, then obviously 7 we'll just file something with the Court stating what our 8 positions are.

9 THE COURT: Right. Let's do it this way. If all can 10 reach an agreement on that -- and you understand, Mr. Dalton, I 11 am not going to put an earlier deadline on you. You can use 12 the deadlines that exist if you're still -- your case is still 13 proceeding in the case. They are free to file an earlier 14 motion. Ordinarily, there would be the deadlines that apply in 15 the local rules. If either of you wants something different 16 than the deadlines that would apply in the local rules, then 17 you can file that as a request. So if you file your motion, 18 whatever it might be, and are requesting an earlier response 19 time or some different response time than what the ordinary 20 rules would be under the Court's local rules, then you would 21 need to make that as a separate request.

22 If you, Mr. Dalton, want more time than the local 23 rules would otherwise require that would still be no longer 24 than what otherwise would apply under the scheduling order that 25 I'm adopting in this case, then you can make that request; but

1 at the outside, at the very latest, any deadlines are going to 2 be what's set out in the scheduling order.

3 MR. DALTON: Understood.

4 THE COURT: Is that clear enough?

5 MR. GARDNER: With one final point of 6 clarification -- or request for clarification. In the event
7 Judge Schroeder does conclude that intervention is appropriate, 8 we'd still ask for an earlier dispositive motion deadline.

9 THE COURT: Well, I am letting this happen under the 10 assumption that I am either recommending that there not be 11 intervention, and really my preference would be -- the choice
12 that I am giving to Mr. Dalton is I'm going to let you 13 intervene -- I am going to let you be consolidated for 14 discovery purposes if you then withdraw your motion for 15 intervention so that your claims are included in the broader 16 case as part of the discovery, resolved however they might 17 otherwise be, but that you are not also proceeding with the 18 intervention request, again with the notion that we are trying 19 to simplify these things so that we don't have too many other 20 outside issues.

21 MR. DALTON: Absolutely, Your Honor. We would have 22 no objection to that so long as our dispositive motion deadline 23 was not before the conclusion of discovery.

24 THE COURT: All right. I think that's what we've 25 covered.

1 MR. GARDNER: I think that's right, Your Honor.
2 That's acceptable.

3 So as I understand it, North Carolinians for Privacy 4 will withdraw their intervention motion. They will be able to 5 participate in discovery. The United States can chose a 6 deadline, hopefully working with counsel for North Carolinians
7 for Privacy, for a dispositive motion, and North Carolinians
8 for Privacy will be able to file any cross-motion by no later 9 than the deadline for dispositive motions in the Carcano and 10 the United States affirmative cases?

11 THE COURT: That's right. So if you have some basis 12 you want to proceed earlier because you think that the case 13 would be resolved earlier that way, then you can do that; but, 14 otherwise, it will just be on the same schedule as the 15 dispositive motions that we're adopting here. There is no 16 obligation for North Carolinians for Privacy to go earlier than 17 that deadline.

18 MR. GARDNER: Understood.

19 THE COURT: Are you agreeing with all of that then, 20 Mr. Dalton; is that right?

21 MR. DALTON: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. For what my order today would 23 be then is that the 845 case is proceeding as a separate case, 24 that North Carolinians for Privacy has agreed to withdraw their 25 motion to intervene with the understanding, as part of the

1 agreement, that their discovery for the 845 case would be 2 consolidated with the 425 and 236 cases; is that accurate?

3 MR. DALTON: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Is that your understanding?

5 MR. GARDNER: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: So then we can let the clerk mark the 7 motion to intervene in the 425 case that's Document Number 8 58 -- so we can mark that one as withdrawn in light of the 9 discovery order and determinations that the Court has made here
10 today; is that accurate? I am not going to -- or require you 11 to say by agreement of the parties because I understand that 12 wasn't necessarily your first choice, but with the 13 determination that the Court gave you, that's where we are; is 14 that right?

15 MR. GARDNER: Correct, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Is that right, Mr. Dalton?

17 MR. DALTON: Yes, Your Honor. Just for the record, 18 it's not our first choice either.

19 THE COURT: I understand. Very rarely do people 20 leave with their first choice, but I think it's something that 21 everybody can live with. Is that right?

22 MR. DALTON: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Everybody can live with that just for 24 trying to move these through the piece here in terms of the 25 discovery and the scheduling so that you can get to the

1 underlying determinations that need to be made by Judge
2 Schroeder.

3 That shows then Number 58 in the 425 case being 4 withdrawn, the 845 case being a separate case, but the 5 discovery schedule covering the 845 case as well, which means 6 that for discovery purposes, I am going to caption all three 7 cases if there are discovery orders, and you all can proceed 8 with those as consolidated for discovery.

9 Anything for any of the Plaintiffs that we would need
10 to further clarify as to that? Mr. Wilkens, anything you need 11 to add on that?

12 MR. WILKENS: No, I don't believe so. I was thinking 13 through how the hearings -- the telephonic conferences would 14 go. If there are disputes that only exist between the folks in 15 the 425 case, that we wouldn't necessarily need to be on the 16 phone for that?

17 THE COURT: I will set those hearings and conduct 18 those hearings for any disputes that come up and need to be 19 heard. Let me give you my thought process. My first thought 20 is, you know, if you don't want to be on the call, then you 21 won't be heard, and so I am not going to require it. On the 22 other hand, they are all captioned together, so I can't promise 23 that we are not going to cover something that might affect 24 something in all three cases as a whole.

25 MR. WILKENS: Yes, Your Honor. We likely will be on

USA et al v. NC et al-Scheduling conference 7/22/16

1 the phone.

2 THE COURT: So I think that's probably where I will 3 leave it with that. If you choose not to -- and it may be for 4 that matter that North Carolinians for Privacy chooses not to 5 participate in some part of or piece of discovery or any other 6 one of you may choose not to do that, but I think that for my 7 purposes and for the discovery, they are all captioned
8 together, so I am not going to have pieces of them broken out 9 for hearings or for depositions or whatever else you might be 10 doing. It's all together, and so you can participate or not at 11 your choice, but you can't protest if something happens that 12 you weren't there and part of. Does that make sense?

13 MR. WILKENS: Yes, it does, Your Honor.

14 MR. BOWERS: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Let me look at my list and 16 see if there's anything else. I think that's everything that I 17 had. I am going to let you think through a moment, too, while 18 I look at the pending motions and see if you all have anything 19 else that you want to bring to the Court's attention while we 20 are all here today.

21 (Pause in the proceedings.)

22 I think we've covered everything, and I don't want to 23 attempt to restate it all at the risk of missing something or 24 misstating, but if there's any questions and anything else, I 25 am going to go through with each of you and see if there's 1 anything else we need to cover or any questions or anything 2 else we need to raise.

3 Mr. Wilkens, anything for the Carcano Plaintiffs?

4 MR. WILKENS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Ms. Stoughton, anything for the 6 Department of Justice Plaintiffs?

7 MS. STOUGHTON: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And, Mr. Gardner, anything for the 9 Department of Justice?

10 MR. GARDNER: Nothing further, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Bowers?

12 MR. BOWERS: Nothing further from my clients, Your 13 Honor.

14 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Duncan?

15 MR. DUNCAN: Nothing further, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Francisco?

17 MR. FRANCISCO: Nothing further, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Dalton?

19 MR. DALTON: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. That completes then the 21 pretrial conference today. I intend to enter a summary order 22 that covers what we did and adopts the 26(f) report with the 23 additions here. If my order is somehow different than what you 24 all understood or anticipate, I would ask you to discuss with 25 each other first and make sure you are all on the same page, to

1 the extent you can, and then you can file a request for 2 clarification, if you need to do that, if there is something 3 that we need to address further.

4 Otherwise, I think we are set for August 19 with a 5 telephone conference, and you can be in touch with Ms. Engle or 6 Ms. Garrett in order to get the information for calling in for 7 the telephone conference. If there is anything else before 8 then or if there are motions, the schedule that you all have 9 set for any discovery motions would apply, and then if we need 10 to set those for a separate hearing, we can do that, or I can 11 take them up at the telephone hearing, whatever seems most 12 appropriate at that point.

13 All right. Thanks all very much.
