CASE NO. 17-CV-05813-WHA

1 I, Viridiana Chabolla Mendoza, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a party in the above-captioned action. I make this declaration based on my
3 personal knowledge. If called as a witness, I could and would testify competently on the facts stated 4 herein.

5 Early Life

6 2. I was born in Irapuato, Guanajuato, Mexico on April 4, 1991, and was brought to the 7 United States when I was two years old. I do not remember living in Mexico at all. The United 8 States is my home.

9 3. My family has told me that violence and economic necessity drove my family to move
10 to the United States. The town where we were from had become increasingly dangerous. My 11 grandfather was a guard at a local municipal jail in Penjamo. He was taken hostage during an escape 12 attempt and was shot and stabbed; my uncle, who was a teenager at the time, was also taken hostage.

13 4. I grew up in a working-class neighborhood in East Los Angeles, California with my 14 mother, stepfather, and two younger sisters. My sisters were born in the United States and are U.S.
15 citizens. One sister is 24 years old and lives with my mother in East Los Angeles. My other sister is 16 18 years old and is currently in her first year of college. I have a very close relationship with each of 17 them and try to see them as frequently as I can.

18 5. I attended historically low-performing and under-resourced public schools, but I 19 worked hard and earned excellent grades.

20 6. For as long as I can remember, I have known I was undocumented. Around age nine, 21 I started to hear about the DREAM Act and I was aware that this concerned me because I was 22 undocumented. I also had several undocumented relatives who were about a decade older than I was,
23 and I witnessed how being undocumented created barriers in their attempts to pursue their 24 educational dreams. I saw how it affected their ability to get financial aid, to study abroad, or attend 25 a typical four-year college degree program.

26 7. The neighborhood I grew up in was filled with immigrant families, many of whom 27 were like mine—a mix of undocumented and U.S.-born citizens who were the children of 28 undocumented immigrants. Even as a child, I remember being nervous when I saw the police in my

1 neighborhood. I worried that it meant that someone was going to be arrested or deported for lack of 2 proper documentation. Luckily, no one in my immediate family ever had any negative encounters
3 with immigration enforcement.

4 8. As a child and teenager, I remember vivid emotions like fear and embarrassment due
5 to my status as an undocumented immigrant. I felt there was a stigma connected with not being a
6 U.S. citizen. I tried to hide or cover up the fact that I was undocumented from my friends. I
7 remember one instance when I was invited to travel with one of my friends and her family out of the 8 country. I knew that I could not do this and, rather than tell my friend the truth, I simply told her that 9 my mother did not want me to go.

10 9. The inability to travel internationally also hampered my ability to get engaged in 11 social and community-building activities. For example, in elementary school, I was part of a youth
12 club sponsored by the Rotary Club (“Rotary”). Rotary advertised to us that it provided opportunities 13 for high school youth to travel internationally as part of enrichment and public service trips.
14 Although I would have loved to go on one of these trips, I knew that I would not be able to 15 participate. My undocumented status prevented me from flying and would prevent me from re-
16 entering the United States—my home—if I were to leave.

17 Applying to College

18 10. I graduated from Garfield High School in May 2009. At graduation, I was at the top
19 5% of my class and graduated 11th in my class out of approximately 1000 students, with a 4.0+ GPA.
20 Despite this accomplishment, the whole college application process was traumatizing. Not being 21 documented affected every aspect of my college application process and decision-making process.

22 11. During my senior year, I went to my high school’s college counselor and told her that 23 I was undocumented and was unsure what to do about college. Because I was undocumented, I was 24 not eligible for federal financial aid. I had done some research on my own about AB-540, a
25 California law which allows undocumented immigrants to pay in-state tuition in California state
26 schools. Tuition was still, however, very expensive. I had seen a few young people go through the 27 Cal State system and some of them took eight years to complete their degree, because they could only 28 afford to take one class at a time, while working full time.

1 12. The college counselor encouraged me to apply to college regardless, but she did not
2 know what options I had. The only advice I got was simply to apply to the University of California
3 schools and Cal State. She also referred me to a small for-profit school, which I think she did only 4 because she was not sure how else to counsel someone in my situation.

5 13. I briefly looked into attending university in Mexico, but I cried every time I thought
6 about it. Because their education system is different from ours, I was not even certain I met the 7 requirements to attend university there. Additionally, although my conversational Spanish is quite 8 good, my Spanish grammar is not and I have never taken rigorous educational classes in Spanish. I
9 would be at a huge disadvantage to have to study in Spanish as opposed to in English. In addition,
10 when I asked my family if they thought I should apply to schools in Mexico, they vociferously
11 objected—noting that I have no real family there and no place to stay.

12 14. I ultimately applied to California State University at Los Angeles, University of South
13 California (“USC”), Occidental College, Pomona College and Wellesley College in Massachusetts. I
14 did not apply to any University of California schools because I could not afford to pay in-state
15 tuition. (The California Dream Act, which allows undocumented students enrolled in eligible 16 California colleges and universities to apply for state financial aid, had not been passed at this time.)
17 Even still, I did not know how I would be able to pay for tuition at these schools.

18 15. The USC application required me to identify my legal status, but it only had categories
19 for legal permanent resident, visa, and U.S. citizen, so I had to apply as an international student. This 20 category automatically put me in a different category for financial aid, and I was told I had to come 21 with my own money or scholarship.

22 16. While Occidental College rejected my application, I was very fortunate that Pomona
23 College accepted my application and offered me a full scholarship, including room and board. Once
24 I arrived at Pomona College, I learned that almost every other undocumented student there had also 25 been rejected by Occidental College, likely because they had limited funding for scholarships.

26
27
28

My College Experience

1
2 17. I entered Pomona College in the fall of 2009, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts
3 Degree in Sociology and Chicana/o-Latina/o Studies in May 2013.

4 18. Although my scholarship covered my tuition and room and board, I still had additional 5 expenses. I was able to pay out of pocket for these expenses during my first year, largely because I
6 had received several financial awards when I graduated high school. Before my sophomore year, I
7 approached the Pomona College financial aid office to inquire about my options for other funding. I
8 had to explain that I was not eligible for federal or state financial aid because I was undocumented.
9 Thankfully, between my sophomore, junior, and senior years, I was able to secure loans through 10 Pomona totaling approximately $9,000. I am still making monthly payments to Pomona to pay off 11 this debt.

12 19. While at Pomona, I received numerous honors and awards: Young People For (YP4)
13 Fellow (2011), McNair Scholar (2012), Chicana/o-Latina/o Studies Department Service Award
14 (2013), Pomona College Senior Service Award (2013), National Association of Chicana and Chicano
15 Studies (NACCS) Conference Thesis Presentation (2013).

16 20. I was also heavily involved in campus life. I participated in many activities, including 17 serving as Empowered Latin@s in Action Co-President and Chicana/o Latina/o Student Affairs
18 Mentor.

19 21. While maintaining a full course load at Pomona College, I served as a K-12
20 Educational Outreach and Pomona Academy for Youth Success (PAYS) Coordinator at the Draper
21 Center for Community Partnerships during my junior and senior years. The Draper Center is part of 22 Pomona College and is essentially their volunteer center. PAYS is one of their signature programs; it
23 brings local high school students to Pomona College for programs over the summer and through the 24 school year. In my role, I coordinated college information sessions for parents, SAT preparation 25 classes, academic tutoring, and enrichment activities for over 90 students and their families, nearly all
26 of whom came from disadvantaged economic circumstances. I also assisted with admissions
27 outreach and recruitment of applicants for the program. As co-coordinator for the Center's K-12
28 Campus Visits Program, I was responsible for bringing approximately 1,000 kindergarten through

1 twelfth-grade students from underrepresented backgrounds to campus for workshops, panels, and 2 informational tours.

3 22. During the summer of 2011, I was a Summer Teacher's Assistant at PAYS. I assisted 4 sixteen high school juniors over a four-week residential summer program with college-level math and 5 social science assignments, tutoring and other academic matters. I also created and taught an elective
6 course on the U.S. Civil Rights Movement.

7 23. During the summer of 2012, before my final year of college, I also enrolled in a pre-
8 graduate program called McNair which was part of the federal TRIO program and fell under the same
9 umbrella as Upward Bound. At the time, I thought I would pursue a PhD after college, and so I took 10 short term graduate classes over a span of four weeks. These classes were essentially crash courses 11 on research, as well as a tutorial on the application process for a doctoral program.

12 24. Since I did not receive DACA until my senior year of college, I did not have work
13 authorization for my first three years of college. I could not do work-study or be employed while 14 going to school. Instead, my positions with the school were fellowship positions, which were not 15 employment based positions. In February 2011, when I first started to look for on-campus job
16 opportunities, I was informed by Pomona College's Student Employment & Loan Coordinator,
17 Meredith Hanson, that, "any student that does not have the documents available to complete a Form 18 I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification cannot be employed." Attached as Exhibit A is a true and 19 correct copy of an email dated February 10, 2011 that I received from Meredith Hanson.

20 DACA Applications and Approvals

21 25. I clearly remember the day that President Obama announced the DACA program: June 22 15, 2012, during the summer before my senior year of college. I heard the announcement at an event
23 in downtown Los Angeles sponsored by DreamSummer, an organization that provides undocumented
24 students with internship opportunities. I watched the President Obama's announcement of the DACA
25 program with a friend of mine who was also undocumented. By the end of the announcement we 26 were both in tears. We knew right away how significant DACA would be for us. Now, five years
27 later, I can say that we were not wrong. It has indeed had an incredibly significant impact on my life.

28

1 26. I remember that some people I knew decided not to apply for DACA. I remember one
2 acquaintance in particular decided against applying because she did not want to provide the 3 government with all of her information, as she was afraid they would use it against her for 4 enforcement purposes in the future. She and I discussed these fears and the potential ramifications at 5 great length.

6 27. As I began to educate myself more about DACA, I remember hearing announcements
7 and discussion about DACA from people like Senators Barbara Boxer and Diane Feinstein, as well as 8 some of the local representatives from East Los Angeles, like Los Angeles Councilman Jose Huizar.
9 I also remember the City of Los Angeles being extremely active in encouraging young people, like 10 my friend and me, to apply for DACA. Among other things, I remember that the city held several 11 large clinics to assist people with the applications.

12 28. After seeing all of these endorsements, I remember thinking to myself, “this must be 13 safe to do.” And so, even though I knew people voiced their reservations about giving the 14 government identifying information about themselves and their families, I ultimately felt like I had to 15 trust that the government would use our information solely for the DACA application and not for 16 anything else, as it represented publicly. Because of this trust, I decided that it was worth it to apply
17 for the DACA program.

18 29. I went to a clinic sponsored by the Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights for help 19 putting together my application. People were lined up outside the door and down the street, so I was 20 not able to get help with my application. I remember that people kept asking the lawyers there about 21 whether it was safe for them to disclose personal information to the government.

22 30. It took me awhile to assemble all of the documentation required for the application. I 23 painstakingly analyzed all of the requirements and was scared that any little thing could derail the 24 process. I was excited to apply and was confident that my DACA application would be approved if I
25 applied. I satisfied all of the qualifications and requirements of the program, including the 26 background check.

27 31. At the time that I was weighing my decision to apply, I believed that if the government
28 were to make any changes to DACA, it would be to transition it to a permanent status that did not

1 require renewals. I never imagined that DACA would be yanked away without any other solution
2 already in place, especially when doing so would leave DACA recipients vulnerable to the risk of 3 deportation. Aside from the cruel social consequences that would result from doing so, I also 4 reasoned that the government would be unlikely to take an action that would surely have disastrous
5 economic consequences for the country.

6 32. I probably would not have applied to DACA if I knew it would be rescinded later or if 7 there were no renewal period. I tend to think long term and, thus, if renewal was not an option, I
8 would have been much more suspicious of the program and the reasons for gathering information
9 from DACA recipients.

10 33. On October 2, 2012, with the help of the Asian Pacific American Legal Center, I
11 submitted my application for DACA status and work authorization. Attached hereto at Exhibit B is a 12 true and correct copy of the DACA Application (Form I-821D) and Application for Work
13 Employment Authorization (Form I-765 and I-765WS Worksheet) that I submitted to USCIS on 14 October 2, 2012.

15 34. Coming up with the $465 fee required for the initial application was difficult. I ended 16 up having to use money from a loan that was meant for my college books.

17 35. In connection with my DACA application, I went to a USCIS application support
18 center on November 9, 2012 to have my biometrics taken. Attached as Exhibit C is a true and correct
19 copy of my ASC Appointment Notice dated October 19, 2012.

20 36. I received approval of my DACA application on December 7, 2012. Attached as 21 Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of the Form I-797 DACA Application Approval Notice that I
22 received from USCIS on December 7, 2012.

23 37. I also received employment authorization at this time. Attached as Exhibit E is a true
24 and correct copy of the Form I-797 Application for Employment Authorization Approval Notice that 25 I received from USCIS on December 7, 2012.

26 38. In connection with being approved for DACA status, I was able to apply for a Social 27 Security card, which I received in December 2012.

28 39. I applied for renewal of my DACA status and work authorization on August 11, 2014.

1 40. I received approval of my first DACA renewal application on November 2, 2014, and 2 also received a renewed employment authorization card around that time. Attached as Exhibit F is a
3 true and correct copy of the Form I-797 DACA Application Approval Notice that I received from 4 USCIS on November 2, 2014. I received my work authorization renewal around this same time.

5 41. I applied for renewal of my DACA status and work authorization a second time on 6 June 15, 2016.

7 42. I received approval of my second DACA renewal application on October 6, 2016. My 8 DACA status will expire on October 5, 2018. Attached as Exhibit G is a true and correct copy of the 9 Form I-797 DACA Application Approval Notice that I received from USCIS on October 6, 2016. I
10 received my second work authorization renewal around this same time.

11 43. For both the times that I applied to renew my DACA status, I felt assured about my 12 status. I received letters from the government before my permit would expire to let me know that my 13 renewal date was coming up and that I should renew by a certain date to avoid losing my work
14 authorization. Attached as Exhibit H is a true and correct copy of the Form I-797C, Notice of Action
15 that I received from USCIS on May 4, 2016 (stating “[i]f you have not already done so, USCIS 16 encourages you to submit your renewal request as soon as possible). I remember thinking that it was 17 very nice of the government to send reminders and that this was very important. The message I
18 received from the government was not just that could apply but rather that I should reapply because 19 having DACA is helping me have a life in this country.

20 44. The renewal process was much more streamlined than the original application process
21 because I did not have to submit additional documentation. It led me to believe that I would continue 22 to be eligible for renewal so long as I continued to be an positive member of the community.

23 45. Each DACA renewal costs $465, which is not an insubstantial amount for me. In 24 anticipation of both of my renewal applications, I carefully budgeted for many months so that I would 25 have enough money to pay for renewal application fee.

26 Professional, Personal, and Other Benefits Obtained Because of DACA

27 46. There has never been a doubt in my mind that the United States is my home and this is 28 where I want to stay and build my life. DACA is the foundation upon which I have built this vision.

1 Importantly, DACA is enabling me to fulfil my dream of serving disadvantaged and underrepresented
2 communities by obtaining justice through the legal system.

3 47. Being a DACA recipient immediately opened up employment and educational 4 opportunities for me, particularly with regard to my education. Upon receiving my DACA status,
5 one of the first things I did was go to the Human Resources Department at Pomona College and 6 request a new position so that I could be paid as an hourly employee. I saved the first paycheck I
7 received after taking that new position. Seeing this paycheck still makes me so happy and proud
8 because it is a direct and concrete reflection of the hours I spent working. I was excited and grateful 9 to start paying taxes.

10 48. Having work authorization gave me access to more diverse and better paying work
11 opportunities. For example, I was able to participate in a Border Tour that the Chicano Latino 12 Student Association (“CLSA”) at the Claremont Colleges organizes, which entails traveling to San 13 Diego and going with Border Patrol to visit the border near Tijuana. Prior to DACA, CLSA strongly 14 advised undocumented students not to go on these tours, because we could be at risk of encountering 15 immigration officials at the border who could detain us because we lacked the proper documentation.
16 A major component of being a sociology and Chicana/o-Latina/o Studies major is studying abroad
17 and I was unable to do that because I could not travel abroad. This border trip, however, helped to 18 make up for some of that inability. This tour greatly contributed to my main areas of academic 19 interest.

20 49. After graduating from Pomona in 2013, I began working as a community organizer at 21 Public Counsel in Los Angeles, California, the nation’s largest pro bono law firm. I would not have 22 been able to secure this job if I had not received my work authorization through DACA. Public 23 Counsel required me to fill out a Form I-9. I worked at Public Counsel from May 2013 to June 2017.
24 At Public Counsel, I identified, contacted, interviewed, and maintained relationships with students
25 who were plaintiffs or fact witnesses in landmark litigation successfully filed to redress educational 26 inequities and complex trauma in the K-12 public education system. I also worked closely with 27 students, families, teachers, staff, and community organizations to help promote educational justice
28 campaigns relating to this litigation. I worked in a similar capacity on successful litigation on behalf

1 of homeless residents of Los Angeles, including homeless veterans, women and youth, that resulted
2 in the delivery of housing and necessary medical and psychological services to individuals then
3 residing on Skid Row. My work at Public Counsel also included providing litigation support to a 4 group of five attorneys by organizing meetings, conducting interviews, drafting declarations, and 5 coordinating media opportunities.

6 50. Having a social security number was essential for me to be able to obtain a driver's 7 license and obtain a loan to buy a car. It also enabled me to obtain credit cards, so I could start to 8 build up my credit.

9 51. On a personal level, because DACA status has given me a sense of having a normal
10 life, it has directly contributed to my ability to be in an intimate relationship. Before DACA, I had a 11 difficult time knowing when and if I should even raise my undocumented status with boyfriends, not 12 only because I felt some lingering embarrassment and shame from being undocumented, but also 13 because it introduced an uncertainty about the future viability of the relationship that was often the 14 death knell of a relationship. I felt unsure about whether someone would want to risk falling in love
15 with someone who couldn't take part in normal day-to-day activities without fear, for example,
16 driving, working, and traveling. I also feared trusting someone with my immigration status and not 17 knowing how they would react. When I was a teenager, I had an ex-boyfriend threaten me with 18 revealing my immigration status after we broke up.

19 52. This all changed once I had DACA status. I met my husband, who is a U.S. citizen, in 20 the summer of 2013 and we got married in March 2017. We have planned a life for ourselves
21 together in the United States.

22 53. I have also been able to travel since obtaining DACA status. In December 2016, I
23 applied for advance parole in order to travel to El Salvador with a group sponsored by Cal State
24 Northridge to learn about immigration, the economic history of El Salvador and what drives
25 migration. I received permission to travel solely to El Salvador for thirty days. To ensure there would 26 be no issues, I traveled for ten days, from January 2, 2017 through January 12, 2017, and took only 27 direct flights to avoid landing in another country given the permit extended solely to El Salvador.
28 Especially because I was unable to study abroad in college, this trip was so meaningful for me

1 because I had the opportunity to learn firsthand from local experts and experience the culture. The 2 experience was also bittersweet because I met individuals who had been removed from the United 3 States and I remember thinking that I was so lucky to have DACA status.

4 My Decision to Attend Law School

5 54. I decided at an early age that I wanted to become a lawyer. I was inspired to pursue a 6 career in law by my grandfather, who suggested that becoming an attorney would give me “the power
7 to fight injustice with words.” Even at a young age, I witnessed and personally experienced many 8 injustices that my community faced in several areas of life, including those related to immigration, 9 gender discrimination and gender violence, and lack of access to quality education.

10 55. When I was growing up, a frequent topic of conversation was the workplace. My 11 uncles spoke about not being permitted to take breaks and receiving paychecks that short-changed
12 their pay, and being unable to complain about this for fear of reprisals. A family friend told us that 13 she was fired for being pregnant and could do nothing about it due to her immigration status. I was 14 always struck by the unfairness of how they were treated and felt like what was going on was illegal.

15 56. As a teenager, I also got to experience firsthand the power the law has to effect
16 positive change. I attended Garfield High School, which was part of the lawsuit Williams v.
17 California. It was because of Williams that I saw conditions improve at Garfield. We had cleaner
18 bathrooms because of Williams. We had enough seats to sit on because of Williams. I began to think
19 that I could use the law to fix things and that the law would give me the skills to advocate for myself
20 and others like me. When I joined an academic decathlon at Garfield, I went to other schools in the 21 Los Angeles area for practice tests and I remember thinking that the facilities at these other schools, 22 such as Bravo Medical Magnet, were so much better than where I attended. I saw that schools on the 23 West Side offered private music lessons and Garfield did not. I saw the disparity and unfairness
24 between these schools and mine. This reinforced the idea that being a lawyer is not just filing 25 lawsuits, but also having the skills to become a better advocate for myself and others in everyday life.

26 57. I was further inspired to become a lawyer after meeting a Latino judge from East Los 27 Angeles in connection with participating in a mock trial event through my elementary school. His 28

1 eloquence, impressive academic credentials, and commitment to his family and community left a
2 deep impression on me.

3 58. Additionally, through my activities in college and my work at Public Counsel, I
4 developed firm aspirations to serve individuals and communities marginalized within society who do
5 not have adequate access to legal services and to help them learn about and exercise their basic rights
6 and obtain legal redress when necessary.

7 59. Furthermore, while I was working at Public Counsel, I was selected to be a Munger, 8 Tolles and Olson Law Fellow, which enabled me to participate in a ten-month program aimed at 9 preparing aspiring diverse students for admission to and success in law school.

10 60. My belief that the DACA program was secure was central to my decision to apply for 11 law school—a three-year degree program—and to enroll at U.C. Irvine School of Law in 2015.
12 Although California permits undocumented immigrants to take the California bar exam, I would not 13 have applied to law school without DACA and the expectation of renewal. Without work
14 authorization through DACA, I would not have had the confidence that I would be able to secure a 15 job at the end of law school. I otherwise would have used the time I had as a DACA recipient to earn 16 and save as much money as I could, while I was still eligible to work at a job that paid me well and 17 offered me benefits.

18 61. I confirmed my decision to attend U.C. Irvine School of Law in 2016, but I decided to 19 defer my attendance for a year to continue working at Public Counsel. I began my first year of law 20 school in the fall of 2017.

21 62. I was awarded the Public Service Scholarship by Irvine School of Law, which covers 22 the cost of tuition and fees for three years.

23 63. I am still not eligible for federal financial aid. But because I have a social security
24 number through DACA, I was able to secure a private loan through Discover for $17,000 at 7.24%
25 interest to pay for my living expenses and books for my first year of law school.

26 64. Private educational loans do not have the same benefits as federal financial aid. For 27 example, I am not eligible to defer interest on my loans. I was only willing to take on this debt
28 through Discover because I believed that my DACA status and work authorization would enable me

1 to work during the summers between law school and after graduation and repay this loan. I would
2 need to take out loans (in a similar amount as my first year Discover loan) to cover my living
3 expenses for my second and third years of law school.

4 Impact of Losing DACA Status

5 65. Since the government announced its decision to rescind DACA in September 2017, I
6 have been extremely anxious about the future and what the rescission of DACA will mean for me and 7 my family. I would be devastated if my DACA status were rescinded. My whole life would be 8 upended. I am deeply worried that the information I gave the government will be used against me 9 and my family for enforcement purposes.

10 66. Ever since the government announced that DACA recipients might lose their status, I 11 have been suffering from anxiety attacks and health issues.

12 67. I have also become paranoid about finances and feel an overwhelming pressure to 13 rethink all of my spending decisions. If my DACA status were rescinded, I would not be able to 14 work and would lose the ability to support myself financially and to pay back my car loan and the 15 other debt I am incurring for law school. Accordingly, I feel the need to save as much as I can as a 16 protective measure.

17 68. I am struggling to decide whether to continue making personal and financial 18 investments in attending law school, since the rescission will limit, if not eliminate, my ability to 19 work as an attorney.

20 69. If my DACA status were to be rescinded and had to return to Mexico, it would be a 21 huge hardship on me, both financially and on a personal level. The possibility of being sent to live in 22 Mexico when all I have ever known is the United States and U.S. culture is terrifying to me.

23 70. I have no close contacts or close family in Mexico. And, although my biological 24 father still lives in Mexico, I have not had any significant contact with him since I was born and I
25 have not spoken to him at all since I was a child. My family is all in the United States. My maternal 26 grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins all live in the United States. They are my support system.

27 71. Although I feel culturally Mexican, that same Mexican identity is rooted in the United 28 States. My experience is that of a culturally Mexican person from Los Angeles, California. I am

1 equally as culturally American. When I have met international students from Mexico in the past, it
2 quickly becomes strikingly clear just how different our views and experiences are.

3 72. Working in Mexico would also be a great hardship for me. I have worked hard to be a
4 good citizen and to learn about the legal system in the United States. I do not know anything about 5 what it is like to practice law in Mexico and feel that I would be unable to fulfill my dream of 6 becoming a lawyer if I had to live there. I fear that if I had to move to Mexico, I would have no
7 future there, and I know that all my hard work—since I was a child—would have been wasted. In 8 addition to the language barrier, I have studied law here in the United States and believe trying to find 9 a law school in Mexico would be incredibly difficult, not to mention transitioning my education to 10 Spanish and to a civil law system.

11 73. I also fear for my personal safety if I had to live in Mexico. I fear that if I were to 12 have to leave to Mexico, I will be perceived as an outsider and that a simple thing like the way I
13 speak will put me at risk for being robbed or otherwise targeted. Specifically, the city that I am from 14 has recently seen several homicides and robberies and I would be afraid for my personal safety,
15 particularly if I am seen as a tourist or outsider without ties to the town.

16 74. If my DACA status is rescinded, my law school studies would also suffer. I would be 17 unable to take advantage of opportunities available to law students. For example, I would be unable 18 to take advantage of working for a law professor as a research assistant because I would have no
19 work authorization and those are paid positions.

20 75. If my DACA status is rescinded my entire life as I know it will be upended. That 21 prospect terrifies me.

22 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the 23 foregoing is true and correct.

24 Executed on October 30, 2017, in Irvine, California.

RECEIPT NUMBER WAC-13-900-59221		CASE TYPE I821 /I-821D
RECEIPT DATE October 16, 2012	PRIORITY DATE	APPLICANT [REDACTED]
NOTICE DATE December 7, 2012	PAGE 1 of 1	CHABOLLA MENDOZA, VIRIDIANA S.
VIRIDIANA SARAHI CHABOLLA MENDOZA [REDACTED]		Notice Type: Approval Notice Valid from 12/07/2012 to 12/06/2014.

This courtesy notice is to advise you of action taken on this case. The official notice has been mailed to the authorized representative. Any relevant documentation included in the notice was also mailed as part of the official notice.

Notice of Deferred Action:

This notice is to inform you regarding U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services's (USCIS) decision on your Form I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals.

USCIS, in the exercise of its prosecutorial discretion, has decided to defer action in your case. Deferred action is an exercise of prosecutorial discretion by USCIS not to pursue the removal of an individual from the United States for a specific period. Deferred action does not confer or alter any immigration status.

Unless terminated, this decision to defer removal action will remain in effect for 2 years from the date of this notice.

This form does not constitute employment authorization, nor may it be used in place of an Employment Authorization Document. If granted, you will receive your Employment Authorization Document separately by mail. Subsequent criminal activity after your case has been deferred is likely to result in termination of your deferred action. This notice does not provide permission to travel outside of the United States.

You are required to notify USCIS if you change your address. You may use the Alien's Change of Address Card, Form AR-11, to report a new address. That form may be found at www.uscis.gov. There is no fee for this change of address form.

NOTICE: USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) reserve the right to verify the information submitted in this request and/or supporting documentation to ensure conformity with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other authorities. Methods used for verifying information may include, but are not limited to, the review of public information and records, contact by correspondence, the internet, or telephone, and site inspections of businesses and residences. Information obtained during the course of the verification will be used to determine whether termination of deferred action and/or removal proceedings are appropriate if, for example, the requestor committed fraud or misrepresentation in his or her request for consideration of deferred action for childhood arrivals, or engaged in subsequent criminal activity following the submission of his or her request. Individuals for whom removal action is deferred under Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals may, in the sole discretion of USCIS and DHS, be provided an opportunity to address derogatory information before deferred action is terminated and/or removal proceedings are initiated.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

Notice of Deferred Action:

This notice is to inform you regarding U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services's (USCIS) decision on your Form I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals.

USCIS, in the exercise of its prosecutorial discretion, has decided to defer action in your case. Deferred action is an exercise of prosecutorial discretion by USCIS not to pursue the removal of an individual from the United States for a specific period. Deferred action does not confer or alter any immigration status.

Unless terminated, this decision to defer removal action will remain in effect for 2 years from the date of this notice.

This form does not constitute employment authorization, nor may it be used in place of an Employment Authorization Document. The 90-day period for reviewing Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, filed together with Form I-821D begins as of the date of this approval notice. If Form I-765 is granted, you will receive your Employment Authorization Document separately by mail. Subsequent criminal activity after your case has been deferred is likely to result in termination of your deferred action. This notice does not provide permission to travel outside of the United States.

You are required to notify USCIS if you change your address. You may use the Alien's Change of Address Card, Form AR-11, to report a new address. That form may be found at www.usc.is.gov. There is no fee for this change of address form.

NOTICE: USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) reserve the right to verify the information submitted in this request and/or supporting documentation to ensure conformity with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other authorities. Methods used for verifying information may include, but are not limited to, the review of public information and records, contact by correspondence, the internet, or telephone, and site inspections of businesses and residences. Information obtained during the course of the verification will be used to determine whether termination of deferred action and/or removal proceedings are appropriate if, for example, the requestor committed fraud or misrepresentation in his or her request for consideration of deferred action for childhood arrivals, or engaged in subsequent criminal activity following the submission of his or her request. Individuals for whom removal action is deferred under Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals may, in the sole discretion of USCIS and DHS, be provided an opportunity to address derogatory information before deferred action is terminated and/or removal proceedings are initiated.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
