If you are applying for employment authorization under the (c)(14), Deferred Action, or (c)(33), Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, categories, you must complete this worksheet so that USCIS can determine whether you have an economic need to work. In the spaces provided, please indicate your current annual income, your current annual expenses, and the total current value of your assets. It is not necessary to submit supporting documentation, though it will be accepted and reviewed if you choose to submit it. You do not need to include other household members' financial information to establish your own economic necessity.

Part 3. Explanation

If you would like to provide an explanation regarding your current financial information or your economic need for employment authorization, please use the space below.

I graduated from law school on December 2014, and since then have had a couple of temporary jobs as a law clerk. I am currently preparing to take the February 2016 California Bar Exam. Thus, I am not currently employed but I will be applying for jobs immediately after taking the bar.

For the last few years, my fiance has been my primary source of income. I own a vehicle currently listed for sale. My only other valuable asset is my condo for which I paid $48,000. I owe a personal loan of $10,000 used to purchase the condo. I also owe over $12,000 in homeowner association fees. In addition, my credit cards total over $9,000 and I will finance a bar review course in the amount of about $3,000.

Therefore, I need employment authorization to work to pay off the debt currently totaling about $34,000, and to pay for living expenses.

IF YOU HAVE ALREADY SUBMITTED YOUR REQUEST TO RENEW DEFERRED ACTION UNDER DACA, PLEASE DISREGARD THIS NOTICE.

Our records indicate that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) granted DACA in your case and that your current period of deferred action will expire in less than 180 days. If you wish to avoid a lapse in your period of deferred action and employment authorization, you must file a DACA renewal request with USCIS between 150 days and 120 days before the expiration date located on your current Form I-797 DACA approval notice and Employment Authorization Document (EAD). Form I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, was recently updated to allow for renewal filings and is available online at <http://www.uscis.gov/i-821d>. This form must be completed, properly signed and accompanied by a Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765WS, I-765 Worksheet.

Please be aware that if your current period of deferred action expires before you receive a renewal of DACA, you will accrue unlawful presence and will not be authorized to work. If you have not already done so, USCIS encourages you to submit your renewal request as soon as possible.

Deferred action is a discretionary determination to defer removal action of an individual as an act of prosecutorial discretion and each case will be considered on an individual, case-by-case basis. USCIS will notify you of its decision in writing.

For additional information on DACA, including documentation requirements for renewal or to download the required forms, please visit www.uscis.gov/childhoodarrivals. Notice of Deferred Action:

This notice is to inform you regarding U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services's (USCIS) decision on your Form I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals.

USCIS, in the exercise of its prosecutorial discretion, has decided to defer action in your case. Deferred action is an exercise of prosecutorial discretion by USCIS not to pursue the removal of an individual from the United States for a specific period. Deferred action does not confer or alter any immigration status.

Unless terminated, this decision to defer removal action will remain in effect for 2 years from the date of this notice.

This form does not constitute employment authorization, nor may it be used in place of an Employment Authorization Document. The 90-day period for reviewing Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, filed together with Form I-821D begins as of the date of this approval notice. If Form I-765 is granted, you will receive your Employment Authorization Document separately by mail. Subsequent criminal activity after your case has been deferred is likely to result in termination of your deferred action. This notice does not provide permission to travel outside of the United States.

You are required to notify USCIS if you change your address. You may use the Alien's Change of Address Card, Form AR-11, to report a new address. That form may be found at www.uscis.gov. There is no fee for this change of address form.
