CASE NO. 17-CV-05813-WHA

1
2 I, Dulce Garcia, declare as follows:

3 1. I am a party in the above-captioned action. I make this declaration based on my personal
4 knowledge. If called as a witness, I could and would testify competently on the facts stated herein.

5 My Early Life

6 2. I was born in Mexico and was brought to the United States by my parents when I was 7 four years old. Since then, I have never left the United States. It is my home.

8 3. I grew up in Logan Heights, a low-income, predominately Latino community in San 9 Diego, California. Throughout my childhood, my family was quite poor and, from time to time, was 10 forced to deal with homelessness. For a time, we shared a home with multiple families in order to save
11 money on rent. I remember at one point in time my siblings and I were sleeping under a table in a home, 12 because that was the part of the home my family had rented out.

13 4. We also lacked access to healthcare. I never stepped into a dentist's office, for example,
14 until I was an adult. And I remember one time, as a young child, my father hurt his arm at work (he was 15 a welder). He shattered his arm and wrist in several places. We didn't have health insurance, so he tried 16 to just bear the pain. Plus, the thought of going to the hospital was frightening for my family. We were 17 nervous that the doctors would ask about our immigration status or ask him to file a report about where 18 he was working. But, after about a week, we realized it was getting infected and he was forced to go 19 see a doctor. The doctor told us if we'd waited any longer, he would have had to have it amputated.
20 That was terrifying – but it was also terrifying to leave the walls of our home and expose ourselves to 21 the outside world – we were always scared of what could happen to us.

22 5. I certainly didn't have the typical San Diego experience as a child. I didn't do any of the 23 things that I heard my friends and classmates talk about. For many years growing up, I didn't go to the 24 beach or the park, the movies, and I certainly didn't get to go to Disneyland like my friends did. We felt 25 scared every time we stepped out of the house.

26 6. I don't remember when I first learned that I was an undocumented immigrant. I know
27 that even when I first learned this about myself, I didn't fully understand the implications of that on my 28 life. I do remember that from a very young age, my family and I feared the local police and immigration

1 authorities. We led a very sheltered life and were afraid to leave the security of our home. However, I
2 can remember seeing federal agents raid homes in my neighborhood and arrest one or more of the 3 individuals living in a house. Often times, multiple families would be living in one home.

4 7. When I was seven years old, my grandmother passed away. I remember not 5 understanding why my family couldn't return to Mexico to attend her funeral. I didn't understand that 6 our lack of documentation made that impossible.

7 8. I am one of four children. I have three brothers, the youngest of which is a United States
8 citizen. One of my brothers, like me, is a DACA recipient. I am incredibly close to my immediate 9 family. I also have an uncle and three cousins who are U.S. citizens, living in Colorado, who I have 10 seen a few times over the course of my life. After thirty years of living here in the United States, we 11 have lost touch completely with any extended family in Mexico. My parents and siblings are really the 12 only close family I know.

13 9. The first tangible experience I had with my undocumented status impacting my daily life
14 was when I was in high school and I wanted to apply for a driver's license. I had taken a course in high
15 school with all my friends to prepare us for taking the exam. After taking the class, an exam was to be 16 administered and all passing students would receive a driving permit. My father had warned me that I
17 would not be able to apply for a driver's license because I didn't have a social security number or any of 18 the proper documentation. I didn't understand this – or believe him. Unfortunately, he was correct.
19 After taking the class, my teacher asked us all to provide her with our social security numbers. When I
20 was unable to provide one, I was not able to take get a drivers permit. I remember feeling angry, 21 embarrassed, confused, and incredibly frustrated by the situation.

22 10. My next experience dealing with the ramifications of my undocumented status, which 23 was even more devastating, came when I was preparing to apply for college. I was excited at the 24 prospect of going to college. I thought the most daunting part of the process would be deciding which 25 university to attend. One day, I made an appointment with my high school counselor to discuss my 26 choices of potential colleges, having already been accepted to quite a few that sounded interesting to me.
27 At that meeting, my counselor told me that not only was I not going to be able to attend any of the 28

1 colleges I had been accepted to attend, and that I wouldn't even be able to enroll in the local community
2 college. I remember he delivered the news very bluntly, at one point calling me "an illegal."

3 11. When I went home from school that day I asked my mother if what my counselor had 4 told me was true. My mother confirmed that my counselor was correct. I remember how sad my 5 mother was, and how she went out of her way to tell me how proud of me she was for how hard I
6 worked in school but that my family would not be able to afford to send me to school.

7 12. I was devastated when I thought that college might be out of reach for me. I had pushed
8 myself throughout high school to excel academically and had always been driven by the idea of a 9 college education and a chance to go to law school and become a lawyer.

10 13. Before learning about my undocumented status, I can remember feeling like I was going
11 to conquer the world. After learning about my status, I remember being confronted for the first time 12 with the harsh reality that some of my dreams might not come true.

13 Getting an Education: College and Law School

14 14. I graduated high school in 2001. I had applied to and gotten accepted at my dream
15 school: the University of California, Davis. However, without a social security number, I couldn't 16 apply for student loans and my parents certainly could not afford to put me through school.

17 15. Instead, I enrolled at a local community college and stayed in San Diego.

18 16. Eventually, after graduating from community college, I was able to transfer to the 19 University of California, San Diego ("UCSD"). I managed to secure honors every quarter I attended
20 UCSD, despite working full time as a legal assistant at the same time. I also often had to find other part 21 time jobs to supplement my income and pay for tuition and books. I graduated college in 2009. I was,
22 and remain to this day, incredibly proud to be a college graduate.

23 17. For me, the next step was law school. I have wanted to be a lawyer for as long as I can 24 remember. From a very young age, I can remember witnessing injustice, intolerance, and aggression
25 against members of my community. For example, I can remember seeing overzealous police officers
26 pull over individuals simply because of the color of their skin. I knew this wasn't right and I wanted to 27 be able to do something about it.
28

1 my DACA status, I would not be deportable. That also lifted a huge weight off of my shoulders. I knew
2 that as long as I followed the very explicit rules laid out in the DACA program, I would be able to 3 maintain and renew my DACA status.

4 24. One of the critical factors was that it was renewable. I would never have stepped forward
5 out of the shadows, borrowed money, submitted to a background check, and provided all of my sensitive
6 information to the government without a guarantee that I could renew my status every two years.

7 25. On January 24, 2014, I submitted my application for DACA status and work
8 authorization. Attached herein as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of my initial DACA Application
9 (Form I-821D) that I submitted to USCIS on January 24, 2014. Attached herein as Exhibit B is a true
10 and correct copy of my Application for Employment Authorization (Form I-765) that I submitted to 11 USCIS on January 24, 2014. Attached herein as Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of my Application
12 for Employment Authorization Worksheet (Form I-765WS) that I submitted to USCIS on January 24,
13 2014. Attached as Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of the Form I-797C Notice of Action that I 14 received from USCIS on January 29, 2014, acknowledging receipt of my 2014 DACA Application.
15 Attached as Exhibit E is a true and correct copy of the Form I-797C Notice of Action that I received
16 from USCIS on January 29, 2014, acknowledging receipt of my Application for Employment
17 Authorization.

18 26. Coming up with the fee required for the initial application was difficult. It was very 19 difficult to come up with this money. I was already running low on money at this point, since I was in 20 the midst of law school and unable to find a job without valid authorization. All of my money was 21 going towards tuition, books and other school expenses. Ultimately, I had to borrow the money to pay
22 for the application fee. When I applied for DACA status I submitted to all of the government's 23 requirements, including paying the required fee, providing my personal information to the government, 24 and submitting to a government background check.

25 27. The application process was extremely burdensome. As an undocumented immigrant,
26 who had lived her life in the shadows, it was difficult to pull together enough documentation to meet all
27 the requirements of the program. It took exhaustive efforts on my part to gather all the necessary
28

1 information, but, of course, I was willing to do it if it meant that I could be living here lawfully and be
2 allowed to work.

3 28. In connection with my DACA application, I went to a USCIS application support center
4 on February 26, 2014 to have my biometrics taken so that the government could perform a background
5 check on me. Attached as Exhibit F is a true and correct copy of my ASC Appointment Notice dated 6 February 7, 2014. The experience of appearing for and submitting to this background check was both
7 surreal and terrifying. After living in the shadows for so long, voluntarily coming forward and stepping
8 in to the light in this manner – especially when I didn't really know what to expect – was unnerving to 9 say the least. I remember feeling almost as though I was a criminal being put through processing – even 10 though I knew that I hadn't committed any crimes.

11 29. I received approval of my DACA application on April 16, 2014. Attached as Exhibit G is 12 a true and correct copy of the Form I-797 DACA Application Approval Notice that I received from 13 USCIS on April 16, 2014.

14 30. I also received employment authorization at this time. Attached as Exhibit H is a true
15 and correct copy of the mailing that I received from USCIS on April 18, 2014 with my employment 16 authorization card.

17 31. I applied for renewal of my DACA status and work authorization on December 8, 2015.
18 Attached as Exhibit I is a true and correct copy of the Form I-821D DACA Application that I submitted
19 to USCIS on December 8, 2015. Attached as Exhibit J is a true and correct copy of the Form I-765
20 Application for Employment Authorization that I submitted to USCIS on December 8, 2015. Attached
21 as Exhibit K is a true and correct copy of the Form I-765WS (Application for Employment 22 Authorization Worksheet) that I submitted to USCIS on December 8, 2015. I remember that before my 23 DACA status was set to expire, I received a notice from USCIS alerting me to the fact that my status 24 was set to expire, and encouraging me to apply to renew my status 120-150 days before expiration, in 25 order to avoid any lapse. I experienced this as an encouragement on the part of the government to 26 continue to rely on the program. Attached as Exhibit L is a true and correct copy of the Form I-797C
27 Notice of Action reminding me to renew my DACA Application that I received from USCIS on 28 November 1, 2015.

1 believed that I would finally be able to achieve all the things I had always dreamed of, including
2 becoming a lawyer, setting up a thriving law practice, and serving my community. I once again believed 3 in that American Dream that my parents had taught me to aspire to.

4 39. For me, the American Dream means being able to get a good education, to own a car, to 5 buy a house, to pursue the career of your dreams, and to fall in love and start a family. It means that 6 anyone and everyone, if they work hard, play by the rules, contribute to society, and generally look out
7 for their friends, family and community at large, can succeed. I have always lived my life that way and I
8 am devastated to think that might not be enough.

9 Peace of Mind and Freedom

10 40. Having DACA status has also provided me with a more peaceful state of mind. I have 11 finally come to trust that I can travel beyond the four corners of my home without the constant fear of 12 being picked up by the police or immigration authorities.

13 41. Before having DACA status, I used to have to take a Greyhound bus ride whenever I
14 traveled between San Diego and law school (in Cleveland, Ohio), which took anywhere between 54 and 15 62 hours.

16 42. Just last week, my fiancé and I flew to Washington, D.C. together. It felt incredible to 17 hand over our California driver's licenses and board the plane, just like every other American waiting in 18 line with us.

19 Home Ownership

20 43. Even before DACA, my fiancé and I had taken one step towards achieving the American 21 Dream – we bought our first home. The process of buying the home, however, was fraught with 22 difficulties and roadblocks as a result of our undocumented status. We spent well-over one year trying 23 unsuccessfully to apply for a home loan. While our applications always looked good, including our 24 credit history and employment history, without a social security number we were never able to secure a 25 loan. As such, we had to wait until we had saved up enough cash to purchase a home without a loan.
26 This was incredibly difficult to do, and we also had to borrow about $10,000 from my fiancé's mother.

27 44. In May 2009, we were able to pull together enough to buy a condo in San Diego, 28 California. We have been paying property taxes on the condo ever since.

1           45.     Becoming a homeowner was a pivotal moment in my life. I felt like I was an American.
2 I felt like I was achieving the American Dream that my parents had set out for me and that I myself had 3 imagined.

4           Driving and Buying a Car

5           46.     As soon as I was granted DACA status, I applied for a social security number. Using my 6 social security number, I was able to open a credit card. This allowed me to start building up a credit
7 history, which I knew would be crucial both for my personal and professional future.

8           47.     After receiving DACA, I immediately applied for a social security number. As soon as I
9 received my social security number, I applied for a driver's license. I got my driver's license on May 1, 10 2014. It is hard to put in words how much that license meant – and means – to me. For one thing, it
11 meant that I could drive around – to visit family and friends, to go to work, and to see clients – without 12 fear of being pulled over and arrested. And it meant that I was like every other American.

13           48.     Driving and owning an “American muscle car” has always featured prominently in my 14 vision of what it meant to live the American Dream. My fiancé Luis and I had purchased a 1965 Ford
15 Mustang that we spent a long time restoring. We love that car. The thought of being able to drive
16 around in that car, without feeling like I was breaking the law or like I had to be scared, was truly a 17 dream come true. Again, it felt like I was an American.

18           My Dream Career

19           49.     I was admitted to the California Bar in May 2016.

20           50.     I opened up my own law practice immediately thereafter, in San Diego, California in 21 June 2016. As soon as I knew that I wanted to be a lawyer, I knew that I wanted to open my own 22 practice. That has always been my dream. I wanted to be able to help my community and to have the 23 freedom to decide what types of cases and clients I took on. I knew that there were many people in my 24 community who needed access to competent legal representation and I wanted to be able to help them in 25 a meaningful way. For me, being a lawyer was always about providing access to justice for those who 26 needed it most.

1           51.    Today, I have over 50 clients, two offices, and I employ 2 people (until the filing of this
2 lawsuit I employed 3 people but one employee has since resigned). I pay taxes and consider myself to 3 be a valuable contributor to the American economy.

4           52.    Many of my most rewarding cases as a lawyer have been on behalf of low-income and,
5 sometimes, undocumented individuals. Being able to provide legal representation to these people – and 6 being able to prevail in a David vs. Goliath type of case, is why I went to law school and why it is so
7 important to me that I am able to continue practicing.

8           53.    One case I remember in particular involved the representation of an undocumented 9 woman who fell prey to an unscrupulous notario. The woman had paid the notario a fee of $2000 to 10 prepare a DAPA application, at a point in time when DAPA was not even available. Ultimately, I was 11 able to recover all of the woman’s money. Moreover, I formed a close bond with the woman who now 12 turns to me for advice whenever she is concerned that she might be falling prey to another scam.
13 Because she knows my history as an undocumented immigrant, I believe that she is more likely to feel 14 comfortable coming to me and is more likely to trust my advice.

15           54.    In May 2017, I opened a second office in Chula Vista, California. After the 2016
16 presidential election, President Trump made a number of public statements promising that the Dreamers
17 would be safe and that he would deal with DACA “with heart.” These sorts of statements led me to 18 believe that – despite the negative, anti-immigrant rhetoric he engaged in during the campaign, he 19 actually had no intention of rescinding DACA, and that he and his administration would live up to the 20 government’s promises to Dreamers like myself. When I signed the lease on my second office, I was 21 convinced that – while the new administration might increase deportations of undocumented 22 immigrants, Dreamers like myself would be safe. As such, I signed a new five-year lease on my new 23 office.

24           55.    My status as a DACA recipient gave me the confidence to do all this – to open and 25 expand my own law practice, to hire employees, and to represent dozens of clients in immigration 26 proceedings, civil litigation, and criminal defense.

27
28

1           56.    And it is my status or identity as a Latina Dreamer that has allowed me to relate to the 2   underserved, undocumented individuals who I represent. This allows me to represent them more 3   effectively, I believe, than many other lawyers would be able to.

4           My Fiancé's Career

5           57.    My fiancé Luis Tinoco also has DACA status. Like me, he has had to overcome
6   incredible hardships in his life to get where he is today. And, like me, DACA has opened up so many 7   doors for him.

8           58.    Among other things, he has become a very successful small business owner. He owns a 9   mechanics shop, where he employs 3 full-time U.S. citizen employees as independent contractors.

10          59.    He also spends a considerable amount of time and energy giving back to the community.
11   He has contracted with several of the local schools to create an internship program, whereby the schools
12   send young children (often from low-income, immigrant communities) to intern at his business. The 13   purpose of the program is to keep these children off the street, to teach them a valuable trade, and to 14   inspire them to stay in school and find a career they are passionate about. I am very proud of him.

15          Marriage and Children

16          60.    Finally, and most importantly, I had always dreamed that one day I would fall in love, get 17   married and start a family here in this country. And, until the announcement of the DACA rescission, 18   that dream was also becoming a reality.

19          61.    My fiancé, Luis, and I have actually known each other since we were just small children
20   in elementary school. I remember that Luis always did exceptionally well in school, ultimately 21   graduating with a 4.0 or close to that. He wanted to join the military and go to college. However, 22   because he was also undocumented, that dream was foreclosed for him.

23          62.    It was the year after we graduated high school that Luis and I really connected and,
24   ultimately, fell in love. Most of our friends had left town to go to college. He and I were left behind. I
25   remember how surprised I was that he hadn't gone off to college, given what a strong student he had 26   been. We immediately bonded over what it meant to be undocumented.

27          63.    Luis proposed to me during my second year in law school, right before the DACA
28   program was announced. He came to my law school and proposed to me in the law library, which is

1 where I was spending most of my time those days. Since then we have built a life together. We bought
2 a car together, a home together, and began to plan for our wedding and our future. We were very 3 excited at the prospect getting married. Of course, the announcement terminating DACA has put all of 4 that on hold.

5 64. Part of that future has, for me, always included children. Specifically, I have always 6 dreamed of fostering and eventually adopting a child. Growing up I saw so many children in my 7 community in need of a good home. It was always a dream of mine to be a person to provide one of 8 those children with a safe, secure, happy place to grow up. Luis and I had done all the research
9 necessary to become foster parents and had started putting the pieces in place. I even attended an 10 orientation session on what was entailed with the process. DACA allowed us believe that we could, in 11 fact, become foster parents – and eventually adoptive parents. We were very excited at the prospect of 12 becoming parents. But, again, the announcement terminating DACA has put all of that on hold.

13 Devastating Impact of the DACA Recission

14 65. Today, in the wake of the administration's September 5, 2017 announcement terminating 15 the DACA program, all that I have worked for my entire life is at risk. My entire life feels uncertain and 16 I can already feel the American Dream that I worked so hard to achieve slipping away. I am terrified.

17 66. The administration's announcement of the rescission of the DACA program has left me
18 emotionally and physically drained. I have already had physical manifestations of the anxiety and stress 19 related to the termination, including finding my first gray hair just the other day.

20 67. I am very scared about what will happen to my house if DACA is rescinded. Nearly all
21 of our assets are tied up in that house. If we are deported, all of my assets would be tied up in this 22 country and I would not be able to access it. I have already started considering the very real possibility
23 that we may need to sell our condo – and sell it quickly – if either one of us is served with removal
24 papers. Of course, we might not be able to sell it at all and, even if we could, we might not be able to 25 afford to hold out for the best deal. I think it is very likely that we would end up losing at least some, if 26 not all of the money that we put into the home if that were to happen.

27 68. If DACA is terminated I think it is likely that my practice – that I am so proud of – will 28 collapse. At the very least, I will have to shut down a significant portion of it. For one thing, I would be could span many months or years, when my status in this country was tenuous. Even thinking about losing my practice has completely overwhelmed and devastated me.

69. As I mentioned earlier, I have also put my plans to get married on hold. While we were having fun planning and saving for a wedding, those plans have had to take a back seat to our new focus on finding a way to ensure that our documented status here in the United States is preserved.

70. Similarly, while DACA had enabled me to finally dream about becoming a mother, that dream is also being put on hold. My fiancé and I just do not think that it would be fair to bring a child into our lives if we can't guarantee that child a stable, safe home.

71. For now I am still trying to live my life, do my job, and support my family. However, I am terrified that the life I have built for myself here in this country that I call home is about to be entirely uprooted. I am counting on this lawsuit to ensure that does not happen to me and to thousands of other Dreamers.

72. This lawsuit is especially meaningful to me as a lawyer, in addition of course to how much it means to me to do this on behalf of Dreamers around the country. As a lawyer, I am trusting in this country's judicial system to do the right thing. As I have become increasingly engaged in fighting for the rights of fellow Dreamers in the recent weeks and months, I have become increasingly disheartened at the politicized nature of so many of the discussions. However, I firmly believe that we can rely on this nation's judicial system to protect my rights and the rights of my fellow Americans, my fellow Dreamers.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on October 30, 2017, in San Diego, California.

4. The total current value of my assets is: $

Part 3. Explanation

If you would like to provide an explanation regarding your current financial information or your economic need for employment authorization, please use the space below.

I am in my last semester of law school, so I do not work. For the last few years, my fiancée has been the primary source of income. I sold my car and some personal items to pay for some school expenses.

My only valuable asset remaining is my condo for which I paid $48,000. Although I own my condo, I still owe a personal loan in the amount of $10,000 obtained to purchase the condo. Also, I owe over $10,000 in homeowner association fees, and about $2,400 in property taxes. Additionally, I have over $12,000 in credit card debt. Moreover, I still owe about $7,000 for my final semester of law school. Thus, I need employment authorization to work to pay off my debts. I further need employment authorization because I intend to participate in a paid internship in the summer after law school graduation.

I-797, Notice of Action

RECEIPT NUMBER LIN-14-902-75585		CASE TYPE I821D CONSIDERATION OF DEFERRED ACTION FOR CHILDHOOD ARRIVALS
RECEIPT DATE January 28, 2014	PRIORITY DATE	APPLICANT [REDACTED]
NOTICE DATE April 16, 2014	PAGE 1 of 1	GARCIA CARDOZO, DULCE M.
DULCE MIRIAM GARCIA CARDOZO [REDACTED]		Notice Type: Approval Notice Valid from 04/15/2014 to 04/14/2016

Notice of Deferred Action:

This notice is to inform you regarding U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services's (USCIS) decision on your Form I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals.

USCIS, in the exercise of its prosecutorial discretion, has decided to defer action in your case. Deferred action is an exercise of prosecutorial discretion by USCIS not to pursue the removal of an individual from the United States for a specific period. Deferred action does not confer or alter any immigration status.

Unless terminated, this decision to defer removal action will remain in effect for 2 years from the date of this notice.

This form does not constitute employment authorization, nor may it be used in place of an Employment Authorization Document. The 90-day period for reviewing Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, filed together with Form I-821D begins as of the date of this approval notice. If Form I-765 is granted, you will receive your Employment Authorization Document separately by mail. Subsequent criminal activity after your case has been deferred is likely to result in termination of your deferred action. This notice does not provide permission to travel outside of the United States.

You are required to notify USCIS if you change your address. You may use the Alien's Change of Address Card, Form AR-11, to report a new address. That form may be found at www.uscis.gov. There is no fee for this change of address form.

NOTICE: USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) reserve the right to verify the information submitted in this request and/or supporting documentation to ensure conformity with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other authorities. Methods used for verifying information may include, but are not limited to, the review of public information and records, contact by correspondence, the internet, or telephone, and site inspections of businesses and residences. Information obtained during the course of the verification will be used to determine whether termination of deferred action and/or removal proceedings are appropriate if, for example, the requestor committed fraud or misrepresentation in his or her request for consideration of deferred action for childhood arrivals, or engaged in subsequent criminal activity following the submission of his or her request. Individuals for whom removal action is deferred under Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals may, in the sole discretion of USCIS and DHS, be provided an opportunity to address derogatory information before deferred action is terminated and/or removal proceedings are initiated.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

Additional Information About Your Card

USCIS issues several kinds of cards for different purposes. Please read how to use your card. Always carry your card in the United States and show it when you re-enter the United States. Please keep this information for your future reference.

Permanent Resident Card

Your card has an expiration date.

- If you are a conditional resident, you should apply to remove the conditions 90 days before your card expires.
- If you are a permanent resident, the expiration date does not affect your status, but you should use form I-90 to apply for a new card 90 days before this card expires.

As a resident you should be aware of other immigration services:

- If your card is lost, stolen, or becomes damaged, or your name or other information shown on your card changes, use Form I-90 to apply for a new card.
- If you are going to travel and believe you may be gone a year or more, you should apply for a reentry permit before you leave - see Form I-131 for information.
- You can sponsor the immigration of certain relatives - see Form I-130 for information.
- Permanent residents can become American citizens. Usually, you have to be a permanent resident for 5 years, but in some circumstances you can apply earlier - see Form N-400 for information.

Employment Authorization Card and Advance Parole Card

You are authorized to work consistent with any conditions shown on the card until it expires.

- If you apply for a job, you may show your card to the employer to show you are authorized to work while the card is valid.
- If you are already employed and this card extends your employment authorization, you may show this new card to your employer to show that your work authorization has been extended.

Your EAD card is also evidence of your status. Please see the enclosed important advisory.

Replacement Citizen Card

Use your card as evidence of your U.S. Citizenship.

(This replacement card is only issued to certain American Indians and persons from the Northern Mariana Islands who were previously issued this kind of card.) You do not need to carry your card while in the United States.

Student/Exchange Visitor Card

Use your card to show that you are a valid F, J, or M nonimmigrant student, exchange visitor, or dependent. This card does not grant employment authorization. To apply for employment authorization, use Form I-765.
