ORDER

Upon review and consideration of the United States of America’s Unopposed Motion for Leave to File its Opposition to Defendants’ Motion for a Protective Order Ex Parte and Under Seal, the Court GRANTS the United States’ Motion. The United States’ Opposition brief may be filed ex parte, and the United States will serve the brief and exhibits through non-ECF means on Plaintiff-Intervenor and Defendants. The United States’ filing will then be sealed, as will exhibits thereto, until such time as this Court rules on Defendants’ Motion for a Protective Order. The outcome of Defendants’ Motion for a Protective Order will determine whether the United States’ brief and exhibits should
