RE: Zarda v. Altitude Express, Inc. & Ray Maynard, 10 Civ 4334 (JFB)

Dear Judge Bianco:

I represent plaintiff in this action and write to request an extra week to respond and make a summary judgment motion. I have my adversary's consent for another week and ask on his behalf for additional time. My papers are due March 27 and would ask for them to be due April 3.

The reason for this request is (1) I had to argue an appeal this week which has an extensive record and took longer than expected; (2) I have another summary judgment motion to respond to in the Southern District involving six plaintiffs; (3) I am preparing for a criminal trial in Staten Island; (4) I had a motion for leave to appeal in a case originating in the First Department; and (5) I have a number of depositions this month, including two in outside counties. For these reasons, I am (or at least feel) overwhelmed and would be grateful for the extension.

Sincerely,

Gregory Antollino
