RE: Zarda v. Altitude Express, Inc. & Ray Maynard, 10 Civ 4334 (JFB)

Dear Judge Bianco:

I represent plaintiff in this action and write to request an extra week to respond and make a summary judgment motion. My papers are due April 3 and would ask for them to be due April 10.

The reason for this request is (1) I have another summary judgment motion to respond to in the Southern District involving six plaintiffs and gathering them together is like herding cats; (2) Magistrate Judge Maas had given me an extension in that case, but not as long as I felt wanted; (3) I am preparing for a criminal trial in Staten Island; and finally, unexpectedly, (4) [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] For these reasons, I am overwhelmed and would be grateful for the extension. I will be faxing this version of the letter but for my brother's privacy, with Chamber's permission, redacting the ecf version. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Gregory Antollino
