RE: Zarda v. Altitude Express, Inc. & Ray Maynard, 10 Civ 4334 (JFB)

Dear Judge Bianco:

I represent the plaintiff in this action and respond to Mr. Zabell's letter about a trial on June 29. Since I had tried to get a trial date on before my witness Ira Helfand had to decide whether to attend on conference on June 6, and could not, I presume he made those arrangements, although I am not certain. Therefore, I have no problem with not having the trial the week of July 6th. Since there have been no firm plans in this case, Judge Wexler's order should be given precedence. At this point, to accommodate my witness, I would ask for the week of the 23rd – I believe you said, although the 23rd is not a Monday – to accommodate everyone: my witness, Mr., Zabell, and Judge Wexler.

Happy Tax Day!

Sincerely,

/s/

Gregory Antollino
