RE: 18-1104 Mark Horton v. Midwest Geriatric Management

Dear Counsel:

This letter will confirm that we have received no objection to your motion for leave to appear as an amicus curiae in this appeal. Therefore, pursuant to the attached order your motions have been granted and your briefs will be filed. Counsel may download or fill out an Appearance Form on the "Forms" page on our website at www.ca8.uscourts.gov, which I ask that you complete and return to this office in order to formally file your appearance in this case.

Please note that Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 29(g) provides that an amicus may only present oral argument by leave of court. If your motion for leave to file an amicus brief did not contain such a request and you wish to participate in oral argument, you will need to file an additional motion in the event you are granted amicus status. Please note that if permission to present oral argument is eventually granted, the court's usual practice is that the time granted to the amicus will be deducted from the time allotted to the party the amicus supports. You may wish to discuss this with the other attorneys in the case before you submit your motion
