ORDER

Upon consideration of the United States’ Motion for a Protective Order Regarding Defendants’ Post-Judgment Subpoenas Duces Tecum and Request for Production of Documents, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), the Court hereby grants the Motion and orders the following:

1. Should Dr. Jillian Weiss, Dr. Tudor (through her counsel, Ezra Young) and/or the Transgender Legal Defense and Education Fund (“Producing Parties”) identify any materials or information responsive to the subpoenas and Request for Production dated August 3, 2018 that reference the United States or counsel for the United States in any way, the Producing Parties shall initially produce those materials and that information solely to the United States along with a proposed privilege log.¹

2. The United States will have seven business days to review the materials and information and the proposed privilege log to determine whether it wishes to propose any revisions to that log on the basis of the common interest rule.
3. Following the United States' review, the Producing Parties shall be required to revise their privilege logs as requested by the United States and may produce the non-privileged materials and logs to Defendants.
4. Should Defendants wish to challenge the assertions of privilege, the United States shall be provided the opportunity to defend the privilege alongside the Producing Parties.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 25th day of September 2018.

ROBIN J. CAUTHRON
United States District Judge

¹ The Producing Parties, for practicality's sake, may elect to produce all responsive materials initially to the United States for review rather than segregating those that refer to the United States or its counsel.
