06/05/2018	85	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  The court is in receipt of defendants' motion for leave to file a late response in opposition to plaintiffs' motion for leave to file second amended complaint. (Dkt. # 84 .) While defendants' filing skirts the "excusable neglect" standard under Rule 6(b)(1), the lack of prejudice to plaintiffs in granting defendants' motion -- especially when viewed in light of the timing of plaintiffs' own motion for leave to amend their complaint -- weighs in favor of defendants' requested four-day extension. See Commodity Futures Trading Comm'n v. Lake Shore Asset Mgmt. Ltd., 646 F.3d 401, 405 (7th Cir. 2011) ("The stronger the excuse and the graver the adverse consequences of rejecting it relative to the adverse consequences to the opposing party if the excuse is allowed, the more the balance leans toward granting."). The court also notes that this is an unusual mistake for the government's counsel to make. Were that to change, the court is unlikely to be as lenient. Moreover, the court will extend the deadline for plaintiffs' reply in support of their motion for leave to amend to ameliorate any prejudice to plaintiffs. Accordingly, defendants' motion for leave to file a late response (dkt. # 84) is GRANTED. Plaintiffs' reply in support of their motion for leave to amend is now due June 15, 2018. Signed by District Judge William M. Conley on 6/5/18. (jat) (Entered: 06/05/2018)

09/18/2018	207 Case: 3:17-cv-00264-wmc Document #: 248-3 Filed: 11/09/18 Page 27 of 30	ORDER granting in part and denying in part defendants' 80 Motion for Summary Judgment and 141 Supplemental Motion for Summary Judgment. The motions are granted as to defendants' argument that the individual defendants are entitled to qualified immunity against plaintiffs' Equal Protection claim asserted against those defendants in their individual capacity. The motions are denied in all other respects; granting plaintiffs' 95 Motion for Partial Summary Judgment; denying defendants' 124 Motion to Strike Plaintiffs' Supplemental Expert Reports; denying defendants' 138 Motion to Strike Plaintiffs' Second Supplemental Expert Witness Reports; and denying as moot plaintiffs' 157 Motion for Leave to File Supplemental Motion for Summary Judgment. Signed by District Judge William M. Conley on 9/18/2018. (jls) (Entered: 09/18/2018)
09/20/2018	208	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  At the end of its opinion and order on the parties' respective motions for summary judgment, the court alluded to the availability of punitive damages under Title VII. In doing so, the court failed to note, as it had previously, that plaintiffs withdrew a claim to punitive damages under Title VII in response to an earlier motion to dismiss. (See Pls.' Br. (dkt. # 39) 23 n.11 ("Plaintiffs also agree that the punitive damages claims under Title VII against the State Defendants (Defs.' Br. at 22) may be dismissed."); 5/11/18 Op. & Order (dkt. # 67) 4 (acknowledging plaintiffs' withdrawal of claim).) Accordingly, no question of punitive damages will be submitted to the jury. The court thought it might be helpful to clarify this in advance of the final pretrial conference next Tuesday. Signed by District Judge William M. Conley on 9/20/2018. (jls) (Entered: 09/20/2018)
