DEFENDANTS' TRIAL EXHIBIT LIST

Pursuant to this Court's Notice of October 3, 2018 in Harrison v. Shanahan, see Dkt. 63, Defendants, through its undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully submits its list of potential exhibits for the trial in the above captioned matter.

Defendants reserve an objection to the presentation of evidence and testimony in these cases that is outside of the administrative record. The Department of Defense's, Department of the Army's, and Department of the Air Force's administrative processes that resulted in final agency action are supported by administrative records. In making the determination whether those policies are "contrary to constitutional right," 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(B), the Court "shall review the whole record," id. § 706. The Court's review is therefore limited to "the full administrative record that was before the Secretary at the time he made his decision." Citizens to Preserve Overton Park, Inc. v. Volpe, 401 U.S. 402, 420 (1971).

Further, as recently emphasized by the D.C. Circuit in a challenge to another military personnel policy, the Court must give great deference to the judgment of military officials. Doe 2 v. Shanahan, 755 F. App'x 19, 24–25 (D.C. Cir. 2019) (per curiam). Such deference means that neither the Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' witnesses, nor the Court may undertake an independent evaluation of the evidence. Rostker v. Goldberg, 453 U.S. 57, 81 (1981) ("In relying on this testimony . . . the District Court palpably exceeded its authority when it ignored Congress' considered response to this line of reasoning."); id. at 82-83 ("The District Court was quite wrong in undertaking an independent evaluation of this evidence."); Goldman v. Weinberger, 475 U.S. 501, 508 (1986) ("[W]hether or not expert witnesses may feel that religious exceptions to [the challenged military regulation] are desirable is quite beside the point."); see also Winter v. Nat. Res. Def. Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 25 (2008) ("We accept these officers' assertions [that a certain practice] is of the utmost importance to the Navy and the Nation."); Doe 2, 917 F.3d 694 at 737 (Williams, J., concurring) (noting the court's role in evaluating military policy is so circumscribed that extra-record evidence and discovery is "quite beside the point” (quoting Goldman v. Weinberger, 475 U.S. 503, 509 (1986))). Rather, as the Supreme Court emphasized in Trump v. Hawaii, 138 S. Ct. 2392, 2420 (2018), the Court’s review of the Department of Defense, Department of the Army, and Department of the Air Force policies must focus on the stated justifications for the policies.

Moreover, the Administrative Procedure Act “confines judicial review of executive branch decisions to the administrative record of proceedings before the pertinent agency. As such, there can be no genuine issue of material fact in an APA action. . . .” Shipbuilders Council of Am. v. U.S. Dep’t of Homeland Sec., 770 F.Supp.2d 793, 802 (E.D.Va.2011) (citations omitted). With respect to such claims, “the function of the district court is to determine whether or not as a matter of law the evidence in the administrative record permitted the agency to make the decision it did.” Id. (internal quotation marks omitted).

Subject to the foregoing objection, Defendants set forth their exhibit list below. Defendant reserves the right to elect not to seek the introduction of any of these exhibits at trial, and to re-arrange the numbering sequence prior to trial. Pursuant to this Court’s Order of September 26, 2018, this list does not include exhibits that Defendant might seek to introduce as impeachment and/or rebuttal evidence. Moreover, Defendant reserves the right to use demonstrative exhibits during the testimony of certain of its witnesses in order to assist the trier-of-fact.

Defendant also reserves the right to use any exhibits listed on Plaintiff’s Exhibit List.
