UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

KRISTIN M. PERRY, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 09-cv-02292-WHO

ORDER REGARDING FORM OF RELEASE

If the Ninth Circuit does not stay my July 9, 2020 Order, this Order explains how and when the Court will release the trial recordings to the public.

As background, the trial in this case began on January 11, 2010. Trial proceedings were held on January 11-15, 19-22, 25-27, and June 16, 2010. Video recordings were made on all of these days, in roughly one-hour increments. However, due to a technical problem with the recording equipment, approximately two hours of video recordings from the afternoon of June 16, 2010, were corrupted at the time of recording. Audio recordings of those two hours will be provided in lieu of the two corrupted video recordings.

All of the identified recordings from the trial will be available in streaming format on the Northern District of California's YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/user/USDCCAND>. In addition, the original source files (MP4 and MPG format, compressed into individual ZIP files) will be available for free download on the Northern District's website: cand.uscourts.gov. Information and instructions on downloading and viewing video files will be also be posted on cand.uscourts.gov.

Due to the number and size of the original source files, and the time required to convert, upload, and test the files, the recordings may not be accessible on August 12, 2020. The Court

United States District Court

1 will work expeditiously to get the recordings up and accessible on those sites as soon as
2 practicable.
