Failure to comply with this order may result in sanctions.

A mediation is to be completed in the above-referenced matter prior to February 16, 2021, on a date agreed to by the parties. Upon completion of the mediation, the court is to be advised of the results.

Attorneys primarily responsible for handling the trial, parties and/or insurer representatives with full settlement authority¹ are ordered to be present in person, and will only be excused for good cause shown. Every person who is excused from attending in person must be available to participate by telephone unless otherwise ordered. Lack of discovery or settlement authority is no excuse for failure to appear and participate. At the mediation, primary trial counsel, along with parties and/or their insurer representatives, should be prepared to negotiate on this case in a mutual, good faith effort to reach a fair and reasonable settlement. If a settlement is not reached, settlement discussions will be inadmissible in court.

If any reason exists why you and your client should not participate in this scheduled conference, you must advise the court in writing no later than ten days from the date of this order.

Notices have been sent to all counsel of record. Counsel are responsible for notifying and ensuring the presence of parties and/or insurer representatives as described above.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
