UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

RYAN KARNOSKI, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DONALD J. TRUMP, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:17-cv-1297-MJP

DEFENDANTS' NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE RE ECF NO. 600

1 Defendants respectfully give notice to the Court of their compliance with the Court's
2 September 10, 2020 order to submit a privilege log that identifies the document, date, DoD
3 number, and PrivWithhold number for each document submitted for in camera review on August
4 28, 2020 and September 4, 2020. Dkt. 600. In accordance with the Court's order, a PDF of the 5 privilege log is attached to this notice as an Exhibit 1, and an Excel spreadsheet of the log will
6 be emailed today to Chambers, with counsel for Plaintiffs and Washington included on the email.
7 A courtesy copy of the log will also be delivered to the Court within one business day.

8 As Defendants have explained, their in camera submissions on August 28, 2020 and 9 September 4, 2020 did not include privilege logs because those submissions were accompanied 10 by declarations from the relevant agencies formally asserting the deliberative process privilege, 11 which superseded Defendants' prior privilege logs as to those documents. Dkts. 573, 597. These 12 agency declarations specifically addressed each document submitted to the Court and explained
13 why those documents were privileged. Dkts. 574, 598. And the documents were provided in 14 the order they were described in the declarations to facilitate the Court's review.¹

15
16 Dated: September 14, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

18 SCOTT STEWART
Deputy Assistant Attorney General

26 ¹ Defendants recently discovered that one of the documents included in the declaration of Lt.
27 Col. Jacqueline M. Stingl and submitted to the Court for in camera review, Army_10039588, 28 was inadvertently included in that submission. See Stingl Decl. ¶ 6. As noted in the attached privilege log, Defendants intend to produce Army_10039588 to Plaintiffs in un-redacted form and to file a corrected declaration on the docket.

DOCID	Priv Withhold Begin Bates	Priv Withhold End Bates	Date	Privilege Claimed	Document Description and Privilege Basis
DoD00002760	PrivWithhold00009185	PrivWithhold00009185	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	An email from Juliet Beyler, a senior member of the Transgender Military Service Working Group convened by Secretary Mattis on June 30, 2017, to Stephanie Miller, the Chair of that working group, providing recommendations regarding future work of the working group in light of the President's statements on Twitter. This document is pre-decisional. It was created long before the DoD Transgender Service Policy was finalized by DoD. This document is also deliberative. It reflects suggestions among DoD officials as to how to proceed given the President's Twitter statements. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton, August 28, 2020, ¶5.
DoD00002762	PrivWithhold00009186	PrivWithhold00009187	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	This document reflects deliberations among Stephanie Miller, others in the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, and Paul Haverstick, a DoD spokesperson, regarding a further statement from DoD in light of the President's tweets. This document contains an email chain between senior members of the Department regarding whether and when to provide new guidance to DoD in light of the President's statements on twitter. The email chain contains proposed questions and answers that were not adopted and never finalized, and were exchanged long before the DoD Transgender Service Policy was itself finalized. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton, August 28, 2020, ¶6.
DoD00002765	PrivWithhold00009188	PrivWithhold00009189	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	This document reflects deliberations among Stephanie Miller, others in the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, and Paul Haverstick, a DoD spokesperson, regarding a further statement from DoD in light of the President's tweets. This document contains an email chain between senior members of the Department regarding whether and when to provide new guidance to DoD in light of the President's statements on twitter. DoD00005911	PrivWithhold00009190	PrivWithhold00009190	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	Draft versions of that briefing card that were sent out to senior DoD staff members for review and comment. The documents all have a large "DRAFT" watermark appearing diagonally from left to right. This document is pre-decisional. It preceded DoD's decisions about how to respond to the President's tweets, as well as the Secretary of Defense's ultimate decision on the DoD Transgender Service Policy. And they are deliberative because they were not the final version of the talking points circulated once all relevant stakeholders had an opportunity to review and edit. They also capture the deliberative process undertaken by DoD as it developed and refined its response to the President's tweets. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton, August 28, 2020, ¶7.

DoD00026991	PrivWithhold00009202	PrivWithhold00009204	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP; Attorney Client Privilege - ACP; Presidential Communications Privilege - PCP	Communications regarding proposed talking points to be sent to the White House about DoD's forthcoming actions in light of the President's statements on Twitter. The document in particular contains proposed questions and answers sent by Paul S. Koffsky, a senior DoD attorney performing the duties of the DoD General Counsel, to senior members of the staff of the Secretary of Defense for review and comment. In response, a senior staff member offered a reaction to the proposed questions and answers. This conversation is pre-decisional. It preceded the White House's decisions about how to explain DoD's forthcoming actions, as well as the Secretary of Defense's ultimate decision on the DoD Transgender Service Policy. The conversation is also deliberative. It shows the mental impressions and thoughts of senior DoD officials as the Department worked to respond to the President's tweets. The initial email in the chain reflects a discussion with an attorney in the Office of the White House Counsel, and has been separately redacted of information subject to the Presidential Communications Privilege and attorney-client privilege. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton,
DoD00083396	PrivWithhold00009216	PrivWithhold00009216	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	Document reflects a high-level email conversation that includes Secretary of Defense Mattis concerning recommended next steps after the President's statements on Twitter. This document is pre-decisional. It precedes DoD's decision about how to respond to the statements, as well as the Department's February 22, 2018 final recommendation to the President on military service by transgender personnel. This document is also deliberative. It contains recommendations from senior policy makers on how to proceed with policy on military service by transgender individuals and individuals with gender dysphoria. Document reflects a high-level email conversation that includes Secretary of Defense Mattis concerning recommended next steps after the President's statements on Twitter. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton, August 28, 2020, ¶9.
DoD00083400	PrivWithhold00009217	PrivWithhold00009217	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	Document reflects a high-level email conversation that includes Secretary of Defense Mattis concerning recommended next steps after the President's statements on Twitter. This document is pre-decisional. It precedes DoD's decision about how to respond to the statements, as well as the Department's February 22, 2018 final recommendation to the President on military service by transgender personnel. This document is also deliberative. It contains recommendations from senior policy makers on how to proceed with policy on military service by transgender individuals and individuals with gender dysphoria. See Declaration of Robert E. DoD00083390	PrivWithhold00009214	PrivWithhold00009215	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	Document reflects a high-level email conversation that includes Secretary of Defense Mattis concerning recommended next steps after the President's statements on Twitter and also includes a draft statement for review and comment by the senior staff members. This document is pre-decisional and deliberative because it captures the active decision-making process of senior DoD officials as they collaborated across email to provide comments and thoughts on draft documents. Another category concerns draft Defense Health Agency ("DHA") talking points and media responses. Within DoD, talking points are developed by staff for senior leaders to arm these leaders with correct facts and policy positions so that DoD is speaking with one voice to its components, the Services, other parts of the U.S. Government, and the public. Talking points in draft form have not been approved by DoD leadership and therefore are not deemed appropriate for release. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton,

DoD00124749	PrivWithhold00009284	PrivWithhold00009286	7/26/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	Draft Defense Health Agency ("DHA") talking points and media responses. Draft talking points and proposed questions and answers to address media inquiries and inquiries from the Military Services in light of the President's statements on Twitter. The talking points and proposed questions and answers were sent to Raquel C. Bono, the Director of the DHA, by a senior member of her staff for her review and comment. This document is pre-decisional and deliberative. It reflects the review, comment, and reflection by senior DoD officials concerning policy and possible public statements before statements were issued by DoD. Additionally, talking points in draft form have not been approved by DoD leadership and therefore are not deemed appropriate for release. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton, August 28, 2020, ¶10.
DoD00006295	PrivWithhold00009191	PrivWithhold00009192	7/27/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	This document is an email chain among senior staff members of the Defense Health Agency deliberating on possible responses to several media inquiries they had received following the President's statements on Twitter. This document is pre-decisional and deliberative. It reflects the review, comment, and reflection by senior DoD officials concerning policy and possible public statements before statements were issued by DoD. Additionally, talking points in draft form have not been approved by DoD leadership and therefore are not deemed appropriate for release. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton, August 28, 2020, ¶10.
DoD00006370	PrivWithhold00009193	PrivWithhold00009195	7/27/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	Draft Defense Health Agency ("DHA") talking points and media responses. an email chain among senior staff members of DHA deliberating on possible responses to several media inquiries they had received following the President's statements on Twitter. DoD00033282	PrivWithhold00009206	PrivWithhold00009207	7/27/2017 0:00	Deliberative Process Privilege - DPP	Document that contains deliberations on a draft statement from the Secretary of Defense in light of the President's tweet. An email chain entitled "DRAFT Statement on TG" consisting of deliberations among senior officials within DoD. The emails contain a draft statement seeking review and comment from senior staff members from the Office of the Secretary of Defense. This document is pre-decisional because it was developed prior to the final public statement released by DoD, as well as the Department's ultimate policy decisions on the issue. This document also demonstrates the typical back-and-forth that takes place among senior officials in the development and refinement of a public statement by DoD before the statement is made public. It therefore reflects DoD's deliberative process. See Declaration of Robert E. Easton, August 28, 2020, ¶11.

This document contains proposed talking points for the Army's Deputy Judge Advocate General (DJAG) concerning the policy on military service by transgender persons and persons diagnosed with or having a history of gender dysphoria. This document was prepared in preparation for the DJAG's participation in an American Bar Association conference. This document is pre-decisional because its recommendations were generated prior to, and in preparation for, the DJAG's participation in the ABA conference. This document is deliberative because its recommendations reflect the deliberative process undertaken by the Army in preparing the DJAG to discuss the policy in a public setting. (See Declaration of COL Emanuel, September 4, 2020, ¶ 8).
