

Subject: Re: Today's hearing in Miller
Date: Friday, February 19, 2010 10:03 AM
From: Debbie Thurman <debbie@debbiethurman.com>
To: Staver, Mathew (Law School) mstaver@liberty.edu
Conversation: Today's hearing in Miller

Amen!! Thank you.

FYI. Do not distribute this email, but it is for your information.

Mathew D. Staver

This message (and any attached files) is intended for the person to whom it is addressed and may contain confidential information. If you are not the intended recipient, please notify us immediately by replying to this message and deleting it from your computer, because any distribution of this message by you is strictly prohibited. Email cannot be guaranteed secure or error-free. We do not accept responsibility for errors or omissions herein that result from email transmission. Any views or opinions expressed in this email are solely those of the author.

From: Mcalister, Mary E.
Sent: Wednesday, February 17, 2010 1:20 PM
To: Crampton, Steve; Lindevaldsen, Rena M.
Cc: Staver, Mathew (Law School); Staver, Anita L.; Gentry, Bonnie M.
Subject: Today's hearing in Miller

Steve and Rena: You might have already spoken to Mat, but in case you didn't , I'll share my notes with you regarding the Bedford county J&DR court hearing today.

Bonnie: Please save this email as attorney notes to the file.

First of all, I sense that Rebecca Glenburg was surprised that Rena was not there with Mat. She kept looking at me with a puzzled look on her face, like "who is that sitting with Mat at the counsel table and where is Rena?" That in itself was worth the price of admission.

However, it got better.

Mat started off with questioning whether the court could proceed with the show cause portion of the hearing because Lisa had not been served. The judge said that he could not proceed on an OSC without proof that Lisa had been served. Rebecca brought up the fact that LC had filed an appeal of the court's order registering the VT order and had listed Lisa's address in care of LC. However, the judge pointed out that while service on counsel might be appropriate in an existing civil matter it would not work to establish service in a criminal OSC. Rebecca tried to argue that Lisa should not be able to avoid the court proceedings by deliberately evading service. However, the court asked her for legal authority showing that he could exercise in personam jurisdiction over Lisa without service, and Rebecca could not offer any.

EXHIBIT 4
----------------------------

Rebecca asked for a capias to issue but the court declined due to not being able to locate Lisa.

Rebecca then asked for a warrant ordering immediately transferring custody to Janet. The court said that Janet already has custody per the VT order. Rebecca asked for an order for physical custody, and again the court said that exists in the VT order. She asked for an order permitting law enforcement assistance to find Isabella. The judge said there is an order in place permitting law enforcement assistance in finding Lisa, and in finding Lisa they would find Isabella. Nonetheless, she asked for a separate order permitting law enforce to help locate Isabella, and the court agreed after Mat said he did not have any objection, albeit it would duplicative of what exists.

The judge then said that Rebecca would be permitted to call witnesses on the issue of trying to locate Lisa and Isabella.

Rebecca sought to call Janet, who was on the phone. Mat questioned whether there was anyone present with Janet who could attest to her identity and swear her in. Rebecca said no, that she had been told by the clerk's office that the clerk would do that on this end. Mat objected and the court agreed that she could only testify if she could get a notary on her end to attest to her identity. Then he asked why Janet needed to testify. Rebecca said she needed to testify about the fact that Lisa did not comply with the order to transfer custody. The court said that was pretty much a given and Mat agreed that we would stipulate that the transfer did not take place. With that, the court did not see any need to call Janet.

Rebecca called Todd Campo, the superintendent for LCA. She asked him whether Isabella was a student, for how long and whether he had any records of her transcripts being transferred or knowledge of whether she was in school or where. He did not. She then asked about Lisa's employment and why she did not return. He testified that her contract was not renewed. She then tried to start questioning him regarding why it was not renewed, but Mat and the attorney for LCA objected on relevance grounds. The objection was sustained and she withdrew the question. She then asked him if he knew where Lisa is or whether she had asked for references to be sent to another employer. He said no to both.

The guardian ad litem for Isabella asked a few questions about Isabella's attendance record, and Campo could only offer generalizations.

Rebecca then called Debbie Thurman. She responded to questions about when she met Lisa (October 2008) and her role with the "Only One Mommy" Facebook page (co-administrator). Rebecca then showed Debbie a printout of the December 4th posting of a note from Lisa and asked about it. Debbie said that she posted the note, but did not receive it from Lisa directly. She said that Sylvia Haydash emailed the note to her. She had not heard from Sylvia before. She said she contacted Sylvia shortly after that to touch base, but did not have any information on where Sylvia got the note. Rebecca asked her about the status of the Facebook page. Debbie said that it had been taken down because she and the other co-administrator found it to be too overwhelming to keep up. Rebecca asked who the co-administrator was and Debbie said Rena. Rebecca then tried to elicit from Debbie that the timing of the site being taken down coincided with the date of the custody hearing in August 09, but Debbie could not remember the precise date and said that it was not related to that hearing. Rebecca then asked Debbie when she last saw Lisa (at church in early September) and her last communication (an email dated 9/19 sent from Lisa's aol address). She said that Lisa was visiting her brother at the time and when asked where the brother lived said that she believed Winchester. She responded that she did not know where Lisa was or anyone who might know. She said that Lisa did not talk about moving, leaving Va. Or going into hiding (DUH. Stupid question).

Rebecca called Linda Wall, but Linda did not respond to the bailiff's page. Apparently, there were issues regarding service on Linda, but Rebecca said that she thought that Linda would be there anyway.

That ended the hearing. The court set a further hearing for May 19th at 2:30 with an understanding that if Lisa is found it will be moved up. If she is not, he suggested that it might be done via phone.

All in all, a good day. The ACLU left empty handed – always a good thing.

Mary E. McAlister

Senior Litigation Counsel

Licensed in California , Florida and Virginia

Liberty Counsel

PO Box 11108

Lynchburg, VA 24506

(434) 592-7000 - Phone

(434) 592-7700 - Fax

www.LC.org <<http://www.lc.org/>>

Offices in Florida, Virginia and the District of Columbia

Subscribe to our informative Liberty Alert email update at <http://www.lc.org/index.cfm?PID=14103>

Support the ministry of Liberty Counsel at <https://donatelinq.net/donate/donate.asp?mid=LibertyC4u>

This message (and any attached files) is intended for the person to whom it is addressed and may contain confidential information. If you are not the intended recipient, please notify us immediately by replying to this message and deleting it from your computer, because any distribution of this message by you is strictly prohibited. Email cannot be guaranteed secure or error-free. We do not accept responsibility for errors or omissions herein that result from email transmission. Any views or opinions expressed in this email are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of Liberty Counsel.

Media Advisory

Event: Prayer Service in support of Lisa and Isabella Miller

Date: Sunday, October 19, 2008 from 4-5 p.m.

Location: School of Law, Liberty University (Campus North), Lynchburg

Contacts:

Rena M. Lindevaldsen, Special Counsel

(phone)

E-mail: onlyonemommy@yahoo.com

Linda Wall, Assistant

(434) 332-1272

E-mail: wall4america@netzero.net

For Immediate Release

Virginia Is Ground Zero in Landmark Parental Rights Case

LYNCHBURG, Va. -- A groundbreaking, years-long case that gay rights activists are banking on to set a legal precedent in child custody disputes between homosexual partners formerly joined in civil unions is moving toward its conclusion in a hearing set for Oct. 27.

Hanging in the balance is the future of a six-year-old girl living with her biological mother here. The child could be forced to live far away from the only home she knows with an unrelated woman deemed her second “mother” by a Vermont court.

Lisa Miller, a Virginia resident, is the actual mother of Isabella, a child she conceived through artificial insemination via an anonymous donor in the Commonwealth while in a brief, Vermont-sanctioned civil union with a lesbian partner who now resides in Vermont, Janet Jenkins. Unhappy in that relationship and choosing to forgo the lesbian lifestyle, Miller relocated to Central Virginia with her then-17-month-old daughter to start a new life, and filed in Vermont to dissolve the union.

A court in Vermont granted visitation rights to Jenkins as Isabella’s other “mother,” despite the fact that Jenkins had never legally adopted the child and no law existed in Vermont to cover such a contingency. Miller allowed Jenkins one or two unsupervised visits with Isabella, but became concerned for her child’s welfare because of Jenkins’ openly lesbian lifestyle and troubling reports she received from Isabella, who by that time was 5.

Miller refused to allow further visits, and was held in contempt by the Vermont court, which has the authority to award full custody of Isabella to Jenkins, whom she barely knows. In fact, until recently, Jenkins had openly sought full custody.

“Janet Jenkins is a legal and an actual stranger to Isabella. The idea that a court can unilaterally change the law and defy logic to declare Janet a second mother to Isabella is absolutely shocking. It’s a raw abuse of judicial authority,” said Rena Lindevaldsen, an attorney for Lisa Miller.

In June, the Virginia Supreme Court heard an appeal from Miller’s legal team to overturn a 2004 Virginia Appeals Court decision that directed a Virginia circuit court to register the previous custody and visitation order from the Vermont court, even though the circuit court had previously awarded sole parental custody of Isabella to Miller. The Virginia Court of Appeals held that the federal Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (PKPA) required the courts of the Commonwealth of Virginia to give “full faith and credit” to the Vermont order.

Miller’s attorneys have argued, to no avail, that the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), the Marriage Affirmation Act and the Virginia Constitution’s Marriage Amendment take precedence over PKPA. Virginia Supreme Court Chief Justice Leroy R. Hassell Sr. has even stated that the Virginia Court of Appeals erred in its ruling.

Various church and community supporters are planning to gather for a special prayer service for Lisa and Isabella Miller at the Liberty University Law School on Sunday, Oct. 19, from 4-5 p.m. Friends have organized a Facebook group called “Only One Mommy: The Story of Lisa and Isabella Miller.”

Lisa and her legal team will be in a Vermont family court on Oct. 27 for a hearing to determine custody of Isabella. If the court decides in favor of removing Isabella from her biological mother and awarding sole custody to Janet Jenkins -- an unrelated essential stranger to the child -- it will be first time such a decision is handed down by any court in the United States.

For more information, visit the Liberty Counsel Web site, www.lc.org.

Drew Taggart

1 of 1 results for "01/01/10"

Close

Drew Taggart

You and Drew aren't connected on Facebook

12/30/09, 11:19 AM

Debbie,

Please delete the comments being posted on the wall by the gay rights crowd. The page has been targeted and those comments need to be removed.

Thanks,

Drew

I've addressed it, Drew. Thanks for standing up for the truth.

You're welcome. Thanks for running the page... also over the next few months I plan to spend a good bit of time on your page basically 'agitating' and defending Lisa. I've been following the case for years...

Take Care,

Drew

Thanks, Drew. Just keep it as civil as possible. We don't want to give the other side any ammo for libel claims (particularly with regard to statements about Janet Jenkins). This is going to get a whole lot uglier, trust me.

Absolutely. All posts are stated as an opinion and no insults- that looks childish and reflects poorly on the issue at hand.

BTW- are you the on who checks the onlyonemommy@yahoo.com address?

No, that's Rena, who created the group.

Thanks. Debbie we'll need to play 'defense' for Lisa in the days to come. My angle on most of my posts is going to be what you said in your op/Ed this morning: Civil Disobedience and continually painting Lisa as a noble character which is easy... because she is.

That and whenever someone starts attacking her as a criminal then I'm going to attack the very premise of the case and the ideology driving this situation, if that is OK with you.

Go for it. I could use the help.

12/30/09, 5:42 PM

Debbie, could you ban this Cyn Twin person. They keep trolling every single link on the page...

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=1611655170>

Thanks,

Drew

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

12/30/09, 7:32 PM

Debbie,

How about banning our man 'Bulgezilla?' He seems to enjoy posting the same thing over and over again...

<http://www.facebook.com/Bulgezilla>

Thanks!

Drew

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

12/31/09 9:45 PM

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=1534196978>

Trolling, attacking, etc.

Thanks.

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

12/31/09, 6:39 AM

Drew, I am not going to ban someone unless they give me good reason. That means they have to be using vulgar or hateful language or ad hominem attacks. I always give a warning first. I don't like some comments any more than you do, but this is what it means to honor free speech.

12/31/09, 9:51 AM

Debbie,

Ok, fair enough and I respect your position. But the basic nature of most of the people who would call themselves supporters of Lisa, Christians and Conservatives of various stripes, hate conflict. Once you get a few of these gay rights types who are here only to attack and disrupt, the nice folks will quit posting.

I know this because I've been dealing with these people for years, both groups.

My other motivation is that Lisa, I am guessing, has completely gone underground. To make that work she had to leave almost every single contact she ever had behind. That hurts and is very hard on someone. If she stops by here to read up on the case, notes from old friends, well wishers, etc. I really hate the idea she has to read some of the garbage these 'trolls' post.

Anyway, I'm your 'guard dog.' I've been debating these issues for years so whatever help I can be in painting Lisa sympathetically or defending her position I will.

Thanks,

Drew

Thanks. Should Lisa be in a position to drop in here, she can handle this stuff. It's old hat for her. And her friends will not go away because of some obnoxious gay hecklers. They will leave first. I've been around the mill pond, too.

Sounds great. Happy New Year!

Debbie,

FYI- sent this to Laura Marie... I don't know her but what she wrote made me 'uncomfortable.' If she is a friend you may want to have a wrod with her...

Drew

"Hi Laura,

This morning you posted the following:

"I am happy Lisa is with those she can trust 100% and she and Isabella are very safe and happy TOGETHER and no more Judas can appear in sheep's skins to Lisa and her friends just looking for info to try to snag her child for a gay rights metal! Lisa is with many that can be trusted and love the Lord and will protect her and Isabella.....Praise Be To God!!!"

I hope Lisa is safe and far away from this mess, but you talk like you know something. If you do know something, you can't talk about it. Ever. And this is exactly the sort of the thing the authorities are going to be looking for in the days to come. You may want to delete it and post something else... just a thought.

Thanks,

Drew"

12/31/09, 7:49 PM

Debbie,

I know you'll want this buffoon ejected:

<http://www.facebook.com/spenceralm?ref=mf>

Drew

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

1/1/10, 9:30 AM

Debbie,

Great article, mentions Lisa. Best quote is this:

"The surrogacy contract is based on principles that are directly contrary to the objectives of our laws. It guarantees the separation of a child from its mother; it looks to adoption regardless of suitability; it totally ignores the child; it takes the child from the mother regardless of her wishes and maternal fitness."

At least New Jersey considers that the biological mom supercedes any other issue.

<http://www.nytimes.com/2009/12/31/us/31surrogate.html>

Good Stuff,

Drew

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

Yes, an excellent article, Drew. Thanks for sharing it. I am passing it on to Lisa's attorney.

By the way, I do appreciate your strong stance in support of Lisa and traditional marriage in your comments on the FB group. It does not appear that I can disable comments as I would like to to give us all a breather. So I need to rely on you to give me a hand with getting that message across and to set an example for others. Thanks!

Debbie,

(Excuse the typos, etc.- I'm very busy but this is important)

Well the 'civilized folk' will have no problem with that. Most of the time the pattern around here has been someone nice posts something like 'We love you Lisa' and then three gay rights trolls stop by to post all the 'normal' talking points. Throw in a few insults and 'F' bombs and that is their typical post.

When anyone of those people post intelligently, I'm happy to quote article, report, research, etc. and disarm them... usually after that they go 'ad hominem' and have a 'melt down.' Sometimes they go away, sometimes they don't- usually they just go into full troll mode.

Over the next week, especially Monday-Wednesday when this hits the airwaves, you're going to be covered in idiots attacking Lisa, this cause, Christians in general, etc. You will also have a bunch of 'well wishers' stopping in wanting news and conversation.

Unsolicited Advice- If someone shows up simply with the intent to disrupt, attack and generally 'troll' BAN THEM- don't let your page be hijacked by people who are only here to derail the page itself. Its Your page, you decide who gets to post.

Also, if any of Lisa's friends 'think' they know anything about where she is they need to 'curb their enthusiasm' and keep their mouths shut for their benefit. No one needs to be floating around theories about where she may be, etc. If you could delete those posts that would be a good idea.

Finally, I'll be 'hanging around' for about the next two weeks- obsessing over this whole thing and scouring the internet to counter the gay rights crowd. This page is one front, I'm a busy boy on about 20 pages, newspaper comment sections, DIGG etc.. I want our opponents to know trying to take a girl from her REAL mother will back fire on them, and Judge Cohen, badly.

Take Care,

Drew

Depending upon how the folks commenting react, I will reserve the right (if FB will let me) to shut off comments. I do not have the time to sit here 24/7 and monitor this group.

Been there, done that- understand completely. I gets old babysitting a webpage... Surgical 'ejections' would greatly reduce the stress of your task 😊

Drew

I tell you what: If you are planning to hang around a lot and read the comments at the group, how about I "deputize" you to alert me to the bad-uns. Then I can delete and ban without having to monitor it all. I will be checking in as I can.

Will do. I'll send a note with the screen name/ ID number.

Thanks.

Debbie,

I don't suspect we'll have much going on for the next few days... Next Monday or Tuesday, whenever Cohen strokes out a bench warrant for Lisa and it makes big news, things will get very busy.

I will drop the offender's screen name and their post and I'll apologize in advance, some of those are going to be ugly, no doubt.

Happy New Year,

Drew

Thanks. Yes, I suspect it will taper off for a bit. Maybe all our gay friends are still hung over today. 😊 For that matter, some of the Christian ones may be.

Ha! I bet they are... 😊

1/1/10, 3:59 PM

Deb,

I have contacted the Washington Post, Houston Chronicle, Atlanta Journal and Drudge Report encouraging them to tell the WHOLE story about why Lisa is hiding.

No idea if it will have any impact, but there you go...

Drew

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=1258580715>

Deb, another gay rights troll telling everyone here to 'act like Christians.' Punt her and you'll be much happier... 😊

She posted the following:

unbelievable

I have spent my entire life being taught the "One Great Commandment" Love One Another As I Have Loved You! It is amazing to come to a site like this and read amazing Hate spew from your mouths! I lost my 6 yr old twin daughters 4 yrs ago to a woman who did something v...ery similar to me. She used people like you to achieve her end means! You are all being used by a woman scorned for whatever her pathetic reasons are! And all of you have sucked right into it calling it "Religion". May God forgive someday not only all of you but this woman who hides behind " the name of Christ"!!

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

Drew, I am signing off for tonight. Rena and I have managed to disable the comments on the wall and thought we had done it for the discussion page. I guess not. I'll take a look at who needs to get the boot in the morning. Thanks!

Thanks!

Have a good night!

1/2/10, 10:56 AM

Debbie,

Please BAN the following:

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=546538072>

Thanks,

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

Debbie,

I'm going to switch/ create a new fictitious FB account, 'Derek James' so I can be a bit more anonymous.

Thanks,

Drew

1/2/10, 12:24 PM

Deb,

On second thought, keep this happy little troll around... she's angry, irrational, not particularly bright... I love her. 😊

She makes for good sport and someone who can easily be painted as the 'angry, dim-witted, Christian hating lesbian' who doesn't have a clue what she's talking about...

Drew

1/2/10, 4:20 PM

I thought we banned this troll?

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=1258580715>

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

1/2/10, 5:52 PM

She seems to be gone now. Not a member.

Hahaha. Talented. Leave BEFORE we can ban her. Then just check in again when she wants to cause trouble...

Did you notice you and I got called out today by name?

<http://lezgetreal.com/?p=24404>

And we'll keep up the good fight... 😊

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

1/3/10, 12:07 PM

Good move on 'turning down the noise' and deleting things.

Anyway, I have to return to work tomorrow but I will keep scouring the internet. Google News comes in handy for anything posted regarding Lisa and I'll keep posting everywhere to make the point.

Take Care,

Drew

1/3/10, 1:22 PM

Debbie,

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=581876433>

Thanks!

Drew

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=1057374237>

Thanks!

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

I sent a duplicate request to Rena...

If you could delete/ ban the following trolls from Lisa's FB page, that would be great. I don't think Debbie is around today...

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=581876433> Evan Hurst

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=546538072> Marlene Bomer

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=501555243> Guy Williams

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=1534196978> Paul something...

<http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=1057374237> Nancy Collins

Thanks,

Drew

Attachment Unavailable

This attachment may have been removed or the person who shared it may not have...

1/3/10, 4:32 PM

Only Guy Williams is a group member. I can't block non-members, and I have asked Rena to reset to a closed group. Can you give me his offensive post? I have just deleted several entire threads. Maybe I caught him.

I am probably going to bow out of administrating the group. I need to get my life back, and I can't see how we are helping much at this point in time. Same old same old tit for tat. What's the point? It will be up to Rena as to what to do with the group. She's the creator.

I'd like to see it go to a closed group where all members have to be approved and only members can post anything.

I am sure FB allows for that sort of thing. And I honestly think we can do a LOT of good. I intentionally stayed out of the issue until now because I knew a year ago Lisa wasn't going to prevail... not because she doesn't have a case but because the family court system in my opinion is woefully corrupt.

Thanks.

From: zeusdesfor@aol.com
Subject: Re: contract
Date: May 18, 2009 at 12:45 PM
To: debbie@debbiethurman.com

my meeting with Mrs. Taber is this Friday at 11:00 a.m.

-----Original Message-----

From: Debbie Thurman <debbie@debbiethurman.com>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 12:33 pm
Subject: Re: contract

I am not aware of any other airtime opportunities that don't cost big bucks. I will let Jerry know about the feedback. I have not seen it on real TV yet.

o.k. thanks. Today, I am so tired I don't dare think of my own :)

if you see Jerry Jr. let him know that people are seeing the commercial and they think it is very well done!

Any word on if we have air time anywhere else?

I would hate to see your efforts not take fruit elsewhere. I think the public needs to know about what is going on.

-----Original Message-----

From: Debbie Thurman <debbie@debbiethurman.com>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 10:35 am
Subject: Re: contract

She received the one you just sent because that is what she is responding to here, right? I would just let the others go. Sometimes e-mails show as sent but do not arrive at their destinations or the recipient overlooks them. Impossible to say what happened here. Just say you're sorry she did not receive them, reference the dates you sent them and let it go.

You never know about the contract. Maybe she just wants to wield some kind of sick power here. I pity the woman.

Best,

Debbie

please.... It is still showing in my sent box as sent. she just didn't read it. should I send it again?

I emailed Mrs. Pulsan to ask for an appt.

I don't think I am going to get a contract b/ c she choose Friday as a time for the appt.

-----Original Message-----

From: Miller, Lisa A. <lamiller6@liberty.edu>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com <zeusdesfor@aol.com>
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 8:48 am
Subject: FW: contract

From: Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Sent: Monday, May 18, 2009 8:24 AM
To: Miller, Lisa A.
Subject: RE: contract

Lisa,
For some reason, I never received an email requesting another meeting. The only emails that I received were ones either forwarded from parents or wrote to tell me or ask me about a student. Please see Lecia to set up an appointment that is convenient for you on Friday.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Taber

---

From: Miller, Lisa A.
Sent: Saturday, May 16, 2009 10:24 PM
To: Campo, Todd R. (LCA Superintendent); Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Subject: contract
May 16, 2009

Dear Mrs. Taber and Dr. Campo,
bsp;

I have addressed this email to both of you since you both are aware of the situation of my contract being held for an indeterminable amount of time.

A little over three weeks ago I emailed you Mrs. Taber (and cc'd you, Dr. Campo) to ask for another meeting to discuss my progress and/or lack of progress in the area of "building relationships"- the area you mentioned as my weakness and the reason you are holding my contract. I have not heard from you regarding that email.

There are now only two more weeks left of school with only one full week remaining. As a result, I feel I must ask if you plan to give me the contract you are holding for next year. I enjoy working at LCA and have bonded with the teachers, students and parents as well as with folks from Heritage High School who just recently complimented me on a "job well done" in "implementing accommodations".

In the last two weeks I have been asked by numerous people as to what my intentions are for next year. I have answered most of them with "whatever the Lord wills". Recently, however, I have parents and students excited about the prospect of consistency in the program and they are assuming that I am returning next year. I say nothing in response except to focus on their strengths as parents and students.

It bothers me to be withholding the truth from them, for I feel as if I am lying. At this point though, I do not feel as if the Lord has closed the door to working here. So, to be in the Lord's will I have waited in discretion. Most importantly, however, I have built relationships with these people. I need to let them know if I am not returning. I think it would be devastating to them to find that I had not let them know that I am not being asked to return. I feel as if it would hurt my Christian testimony as well. In addition, my own child, Isabella, asked me just Friday if we were returning to LCA. I was at a loss as to what to share with her since her own life is always up in the air with the ongoing court proceedings, etc. She needs stability and I want to be sure I tell her the final truth before I tell her anything.

Mrs. Taber, I am humbly asking you to please meet with me by Friday, May 22, so that you can let me know if you are going to renew my contract. I plan to be at school every day next week, except Thursday May 21st when I will be at the Appellate court, and I will make every effort to accommodate your availability.

Thank you!

Joyfully Serving Christ,
Lisa Miller

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com  <http://www.whereitsat.com/?ncid=emlwenew00000001> .

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com  <http://www.whereitsat.com/?ncid=emlwenew00000001> .

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com.

From: Debbie Thurman debbie@debbiethurman.com
Subject: Re: contract
Date: May 18, 2009 at 1:33 PM
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com

I am not aware of any other airtime opportunities that don't cost big bucks. I will let Jerry know about the feedback. I have not seen it on real TV yet.

o.k. thanks. Today, I am so tired I don't dare think of my own :)

if you see Jerry Jr. let him know that people are seeing the commercial and they think it is very well done!

Any word on if we have air time anywhere else?

I would hate to see your efforts not take fruit elsewhere. I think the public needs to know about what is going on.

-----Original Message-----

From: Debbie Thurman <debbie@debbiethurman.com>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 10:35 am
Subject: Re: contract

She received the one you just sent because that is what she is responding to here, right? I would just let the others go. Sometimes e-mails show as sent but do not arrive at their destinations or the recipient overlooks them. Impossible to say what happened here. Just say you're sorry she did not receive them, reference the dates you sent them and let it go.

You never know about the contract. Maybe she just wants to wield some kind of sick power here. I pity the woman.

Best,

Debbie

please.... It is still showing in my sent box as sent. she just didn't read it. should I send it again?

I emailed Mrs. Pulsan to ask for an appt.

I don't think I am going to get a contract b/ c she choose Friday as a time for the appt.

-----Original Message-----

From: Miller, Lisa A. <lamiller6@liberty.edu>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com <zeusdesfor@aol.com>
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 8:48 am
Subject: FW: contract

From: Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Sent: Monday, May 18, 2009 8:24 AM
To: Miller, Lisa A.
Subject: RE: contract

Lisa,

For some reason, I never received an email requesting another meeting. The only emails that I received were ones=2 0you either forwarded from parents or wrote to tell me or ask me about a student. Please see Lecia to set up an appointment that is convenient for you on Friday.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Taber

---

From: Miller, Lisa A.
Sent: Saturday, May 16, 2009 10:24 PM
To: Campo, Todd R. (LCA Superintendent); Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Subject: contract
May 16, 2009

Dear Mrs. Taber and Dr. Campo,
bsp;

I have addressed this email to both of you since you both are aware of the situation of my contract being held for an indeterminable amount of time.

A little over three weeks ago I emailed you Mrs. Taber (and cc'd you, Dr. Campo) to ask for another meeting to discuss my progress and/or lack of progress in the area of "building relationships"- the area you mentioned as my weakness and the reason you are holding my contract. I have not heard from you regarding that email.

There are now only two more weeks left of school with only one week remaining. As a result, I feel I must ask if you plan to give me the contract you are holding for next year. I enjoy working at LCA and have bonded with the teachers, students and parents as well as with folks from Heritage High School who just recently complimented me on a "job well done" in "implementing accommodations".

In the last two weeks I have been asked by numerous people as to what my intentions are for next year. I have answered most of them with "whatever the Lord wills". Recently, however, I have parents and students excited about the prospect of consistency in the program and they are assuming that I am returning next year. I say nothing in response except to focus on their strengths as parents and students.

It bothers me to be withholding the truth from them, for I feel as if I am lying. At this point though, I do not feel as if the Lord has closed the door to working here. So, to be in the Lord's will I have waited in discretion. Most importantly, however, I have built relationships with these people. I need to let them know if I am not returning. I think it would be devastating to them to find that I had not let them know that I am not being asked to return. I feel as if it would hurt my Christian testimony as well. In addition, my own child, Isabella, asked me just Friday if we were returning to LCA. I was at a loss as to what to share with her since her own life is always up in the air with the ongoing court proceedings, etc. She needs stability and I want to be sure I tell her the final truth before I tell her anything.

Mrs. Taber, I am humbly asking you to please meet with me by Friday, May 22, so that you can let me know if you are going to renew my contract. I plan to be at school every day next week, except Thursday May 21st when I will be at the Appellate court, and I will make every effort to accommodate your availability.

Thank you!

Joyfully Serving Christ,
Lisa Miller

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com <http://www.whereitsat.com/?ncid=emlwenew0000001> .

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com <http://www.whereitsat.com/?ncid=emlwenew0000001> .

From: zeusdesfor@aol.com
Subject: Re: contract
Date: May 18, 2009 at 11:06 AM
To: debbie@debbiethurman.com

o.k. thanks. Today, I am so tired I don't dare think of my own :)

if you see Jerry Jr. let him know that people are seeing the commercial and they think it is very well done!

Any word on if we have air time anywhere else?

I would hate to see your efforts not take fruit elsewhere. I think the public needs to know about what is going on.

-----Original Message-----

From: Debbie Thurman <debbie@debbiethurman.com>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 10:35 am
Subject: Re: contract

She received the one you just sent because that is what she is responding to here, right? I would just let the others go. Sometimes e-mails show as sent but do not arrive at their destinations or the recipient overlooks them. Impossible to say what happened here. Just say you're sorry she did not receive them, reference the dates you sent them and let it go.

You never know about the contract. Maybe she just wants to wield some kind of sick power here. I pity the woman.

Best,

Debbie

please.... It is still showing in my sent box as sent. she just didn't read it. should I send it again?

I emailed Mrs. Pulsan to ask for an appt.

I don't think I am going to get a contract b/ c she choose Friday as a time for the appt.

-----Original Message-----

From: Miller, Lisa A. <lamiller6@liberty.edu>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com <zeusdesfor@aol.com>
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 8:48 am
Subject: FW: contract

From: Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Sent: Monday, May 18, 2009 8:24 AM
To: Miller, Lisa A.
Subject: RE: contract

Lisa,

For some reason, I never received an email requesting another meeting. The only emails that I received were ones you either forwarded from parents or wrote to tell me or ask me about a student. Please see Lecia to set up an appointment that is convenient for you on Friday.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Taber

---

From: Miller, Lisa A.
Sent: Saturday, May 16, 2009 10:24 PM
To: Campo, Todd R. (LCA Superintendent); Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Subject: contract
May 16, 2009

Dear Mrs. Taber and Dr. Campo,
bsp;

I have addressed this email to both of you since you both are aware of the situation of my contract being held for an indeterminable amount of time.

A little over three weeks ago I emailed you Mrs. Taber (and cc'd you, Dr. Campo) to ask for another meeting to discuss my progress and/or lack of progress in the area of "building relationships"- the area you mentioned as my weakness and the reason you are holding my contract. I have not heard from you regarding that email.

There are now only two more weeks left of school with only one full week remaining.

As a result, I feel I must ask if you plan to give me the contract you are holding for next year. I enjoy working at LCA and have bonded with the teachers, students and parents as well as with folks from Heritage High School who just recently complimented me on a "job well done" in "implementing accommodations".

In the last two weeks I have been asked by numerous people as to what my intentions are for next year. I have answered most of them with "whatever the Lord wills". Recently, however, I have parents and students excited about the prospect of consistency in the program and they are assuming that I am returning next year.

I say nothing in response except to focus on their strengths as parents and students.

It bothers me to be withholding the truth from them, for I feel as if I am lying. At this point though, I do not feel as if the Lord has closed the door to working here. So, to be in the Lord's will I have waited in discretion. Most importantly, however, I have built relationships with these people. I need to let them know if I am not returning. I think it would be devastating to them to find that I had not let them know that I am not being asked to return. I feel as if it would hurt my Christian testimony as well. In addition, my own child, Isabella, asked me just Friday if we were returning to LCA. I was at a loss as to what to share with her since her own were returning to LCA. I was at a loss as to what to share with her since her own life is always up in the air with the ongoing court proceedings, etc. She needs stability and I want to be sure I tell her the final truth before I tell her anything.

Mrs. Taber, I am humbly asking you to please meet with me by Friday, May 22, so that you can let me know if you are going to renew my contract. I plan to be at school every day next week, except Thursday May 21st when I will be at the Appellate court, and I will make every effort to accommodate your availability.

Thank you!

Joyfully Serving Christ,
Lisa Miller

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com <<http://www.wheritsat.com/?ncid=emlwnew0000001>> .

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com.

From: Debbie Thurman debbie@debbiethurman.com
Subject: Re: contract
Date: May 18, 2009 at 11:35 AM
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com

She received the one you just sent because that is what she is responding to here, right? I would just let the others go. Sometimes e-mails show as sent but do not arrive at their destinations or the recipient overlooks them. Impossible to say what happened here. Just say you're sorry she did not receive them, reference the dates you sent them and let it go.

You never know about the contract. Maybe she just wants to wield some kind of sick power here. I pity the woman.

Best,

Debbie

please.... It is still showing in my sent box as sent. she just didn't read it. should I send it again?

I emailed Mrs. Pulsan to ask for an appt.

I don't think I am going to get a contract b/c she choose Friday as a time for the appt.

-----Original Message-----

From: Miller, Lisa A. <lamiller6@liberty.edu>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com <zeusdesfor@aol.com>
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 8:48 am
Subject: FW: contract

From: Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Sent: Monday, May 18, 2009 8:24 AM
To: Miller, Lisa A.
Subject: RE: contract

Lisa,

For some reason, I never received an email requesting another meeting. The only emails that I received were ones=2 0you either forwarded from parents or wrote to tell me or ask me about a student. Please see Lecia to set up an appointment that is convenient for you on Friday.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Taber

---

From: Miller, Lisa A.
Sent: Saturday, May 16, 2009 10:24 PM
To: Campo, Todd R. (LCA Superintendent); Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Subject: contract
May 16, 2009

Dear Mrs. Taber and Dr. Campo,
bsp;

I have addressed this email to both of you since you both are aware of the situation of my contract being held for an indeterminable amount of time.

A little over three weeks ago I emailed you Mrs. Taber (and cc'd you, Dr. Campo) to ask for another meeting to discuss my progress and/or lack of progress in the area of "building relationships"- the area you mentioned as my weakness and the reason you are holding my contract. I have not heard from you regarding that email.

There are now only two more weeks left of school with only one full week remaining.

As a result, I feel I must ask if you plan to give me the contract you are holding for next year. I enjoy working at LCA and have bonded with the teachers, students and parents as well as with folks from Heritage High School who just recently complimented me on a "job well done" in "implementing accommodations".

In the last two weeks I have been asked by numerous people as to what my intentions are for next year. I have answered most of them with "whatever the Lord wills". Recently, however, I have parents and students excited about the prospect of consistency in the program and they are assuming that I am returning next year.

I say nothing in response except to focus on their strengths as parents and students.

It bothers me to be withholding the truth from them, for I feel as if I am lying. At this point though, I do not feel as if the Lord has closed the door to working here. So, to be in the Lord's will I have waited in discretion. Most importantly, however, I have built relationships with these people. I need to let them know if I am not returning. I think it would be devastating to them to find that I had not let them know that I am not being asked to return. I feel as if it would hurt my Christian testimony as well. In addition, my own child, Isabella, asked me just Friday if we were returning to LCA. I was at a loss as to what to share with her since her own life is always up in the air with the ongoing court proceedings, etc. She needs stability and I want to be sure I tell her the final truth before I tell her anything.

Mrs. Taber, I am humbly asking you to please meet with me by Friday, May 22, so that you can let me know if you are going to renew my contract. I plan to be at school every day next week, except Thursday May 21st when I will be at the Appellate court, and I will make every effort to accommodate your availability.

Thank you!

Joyfully Serving Christ,
Lisa Miller

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com <<http://www.whereitsat.com/?ncid=emlwenew00000001>> .

From: zeusdesfor@aol.com
Subject: Fwd: contract
Date: May 18, 2009 at 9:04 AM
To: debbie@debbiethurman.com

please.... It is still showing in my sent box as sent. she just didn't read it. should I send it again?

I emailed Mrs. Pulsan to ask for an appt.

I don't think I am going to get a contract b/c she choose Friday as a time for the appt.

-----Original Message-----

From: Miller, Lisa A. <lamiller6@liberty.edu>
To: zeusdesfor@aol.com <zeusdesfor@aol.com>
Sent: Mon, 18 May 2009 8:48 am
Subject: FW: contract

---

From: Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Sent: Monday, May 18, 2009 8:24 AM
To: Miller, Lisa A.
Subject: RE: contract

Lisa,
For some reason, I never received an email requesting another meeting. The only emails that I received were ones you either forwarded from parents or wrote to tell me or ask me about a student. Please see Lecia to set up an appointment that is convenient for you on Friday.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Taber

---

From: Miller, Lisa A.
Sent: Saturday, May 16, 2009 10:24 PM
To: Campo, Todd R. (LCA Superintendent); Taber, Winnie P. (LCA)
Subject: contract

May 16, 2009

Dear Mrs. Taber and Dr. Campo,
&nbsp;

I have addressed this email to both of you since you both are aware of the situation of my contract being held for an indeterminable amount of time.

A little over three weeks ago I emailed you Mrs. Taber (and cc'd you, Dr. Campo) to ask for another meeting to discuss my progress and/or lack of progress in the area of "building relationships" - the area you mentioned as my weakness and the reason you are holding my contract. I have not heard from you regarding that email.

There are now only two more weeks left of school with only one full week remaining. As a result, I feel I must ask if you plan to give me the contract you are holding for next year. I enjoy working at LCA and have bonded with the teachers, students and parents as well as with folks from Heritage High School who just recently complimented me on a "job well done" in "implementing accommodations".

In the last two weeks I have been asked by numerous people as to what my intentions are for next year. I have answered most of them with "whatever the Lord wills". Recently, however, I have parents and students excited about the prospect of consistency in the program and they are assuming that I am returning next year. I say nothing in response except to focus on their strengths as parents and students.

It bothers me to be withholding the truth from them, for I feel as if I am lying. At this point though, I do not feel as if the Lord has closed the door to working here. So, to be in the Lord's will I have waited in discretion. Most importantly, however, I have built relationships with these people. I need to let them know if I am not returning. I think it would be devastating to them to find that I had not let them know that I am not being asked to return. I feel as if it would hurt my Christian testimony as well. In addition, my own child, Isabella, asked me just Friday if we were returning to LCA. I was at a loss as to what to share with her since her own life is always up in the air with the ongoing court proceedings, etc. She needs stability and I want to be sure I tell her the final truth before I tell her etc. She needs stability and I want to be sure I tell her the final truth before I tell her anything.

Mrs. Taber, I am humbly asking you to please meet with me by Friday, May 22, so that you can let me know if you are going to renew my contract. I plan to be at school every day next week, except Thursday May 21st when I will be at the Appellate court, and I will make every effort to accommodate your availability.

Thank you!

Joyfully Serving Christ,
Lisa Miller

---

We found the real 'Hotel California' and the 'Seinfeld' diner. What will you find? Explore WhereItsAt.com.

