1. On June 30, 2016, this Court entered final judgment in favor of Plaintiffs. On December 30, 2016, this court entered an order on Defendant's Motion to Alter or Amend the Judgment.

2. Plaintiffs are entitled to an award of their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as the prevailing parties in this case.

3. The Court's entry of July 21, 2016 allows the plaintiffs to file for their attorney fees and costs until a) 30 days after the time to file a Notice of Appeal has run, if no notice has been filed; b) if an appeal is filed, 95 days after the Seventh Circuit issues its decision in this case or the case is otherwise resolved in the Seventh Circuit, or c) 35 days after any proceedings in the United States Supreme Court are resolved, whichever is later.

5. That the parties previously agreed to an extension to March 4, 2021 to seek said fees.

6. That the attorneys from Mann Law, P.C. are currently in discussions with the Defendants regarding said fees and seek additional time to file any request for fees with the Court.

7. Counsel has consulted with Kelly Earls, Deputy Attorney General, and has been advised that there is no objection to this motion.

8. Plaintiffs' attorneys from Mann Law, P.C., therefore, request that the time to file for fees and costs be extended until sixty (60) days from the current deadline of March 4, 2021, until May 3, 2021 in which to file for the attorney fees and costs.

9. This motion is not made for any dilatory purpose, nor should it have any such effect.

WHEREFORE, Mann Law, P.C. requests that the time for filing for reasonable attorneys' fees be extended, as noted above, and for all other proper relief.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Richard A. Mann
