Judge Joseph F. Bianco
U.S. District Judge
100 Federal Plaza
Central Islip, NY 11722

Dear Judge Bianco,

As you know, I represent plaintiff in this matter. For the pre-motion and/or other matters conference scheduled on May 14, I have been scheduled to be referee in Bronx Supreme, Deutsche Bank National v. Beras, 0381724/2009 (attached). I am scheduled to appear at 2. You can imagine how exciting this gig will be, but nevertheless I am trying to have it adjourned because I think it might be fruitful for me to appear in person as we move into the next phase. However, things in Bronx Supreme are close to totally out of my control than I would like and I don't know if I can do anything to escape my fiduciary duty to the integrity of the foreclosure process in the Bronx case.

I don't think I need to be in Central Islip. I don't want to adjourn the request, but would of I can exit the Bronx matter and appear in person, I will. However, in accordance with your earlier order, because of this, I might appear by phone.

Sincerely,

Greg S. Antollino
