NOTICE TO PRO SE PLAINTIFF OF CONSEQUENCES OF FAILING TO RESPOND TO DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

The defendant, Dr. Kathleen Hawk Sawyer, in her official capacity as the Director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, by her attorneys, Steven D. Weinhoeft, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Illinois, and Laura J. Jones, Assistant United States Attorney, submits this “Notice to pro se Plaintiff of Consequences of Failing to Respond to Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment,” as it pertains to the its recently filed “Motion of Defendant Dr. Kathleen Hawk Sawyer in Her Official Capacity to Dismiss, and Alternatively, to Enter Summary Judgment.”

A pro se litigant is entitled to a plainly-worded notice of the consequences of failing to respond to a motion for summary judgment. Timms v. Frank, 953 F.2d 281, 285 (7th Cir. 1992); see Lewis v. Faulkner, 689 F.2d 100, 102 (7th Cir. 1982). “[T]his notice should include both the text of Rule 56(e) and a short and plain statement in ordinary English that any factual assertion in the movant’s affidavits will be taken as true by the district court unless the non-movant contradicts the movant with counter-affidavits or other documentary evidence.” Timms, 953 F.2d at 285; accord Lewis, 689 F.2d at 102.

Therefore, defendant hereby gives notice to the pro se plaintiff that the Court may take as true any facts alleged in the defendant's motion which are supported by affidavits and documentary evidence, unless the plaintiff contradicts those facts with counter-affidavits or other documentary evidence. A plaintiff may not rest upon the mere allegations in the pleadings, but rather must respond to the defendant's motion, by affidavits or otherwise, setting forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If the plaintiff fails to contradict the facts alleged by the defendant, or does not respond to the motion, the Court may grant judgment in favor of the defendant and grant the relief requested.

Rule 56 provides, in relevant part:

(a) Motion for Summary Judgment or Partial Summary Judgment. A party may move for summary judgment, identifying each claim or defense—or the part of each claim or defense—on which summary judgment is sought. The court shall grant summary judgment if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. The court should state on the record the reasons for granting or denying the motion.

(c) Procedures.

(1) Supporting Factual Positions. A party asserting that a fact cannot be or is genuinely disputed must support the assertion by:

(A) citing to particular parts of materials in the record, including depositions, documents, electronically stored information, affidavits or declarations, stipulations (including those made for purposes of the motion only), admissions, interrogatory answers, or other materials; or

(B) showing that the materials cited do not establish the absence or presence of a genuine dispute, or that an adverse party cannot produce admissible evidence to support the fact.

(2) Objection That a Fact Is Not Supported by Admissible Evidence. A party may object that the material cited to support or dispute a fact cannot be presented in a form that would be admissible in evidence.

(3) Materials Not Cited. The court need consider only the cited materials, but it may consider other materials in the record.

(4) Affidavits or Declarations. An affidavit or declaration used to support or oppose a motion must be made on personal knowledge, set out facts that would be admissible in evidence, and show that the affiant or declarant is competent to testify on the matters stated.

(d) When Facts Are Unavailable to the Nonmovant. If a nonmovant shows by affidavit or declaration that, for specified reasons, it cannot present facts essential to justify its opposition, the court may:

- (1) defer considering the motion or deny it;
- (2) allow time to obtain affidavits or declarations or to take discovery; or
- (3) issue any other appropriate order.

(e) Failing to Properly Support or Address a Fact. If a party fails to properly support an assertion of fact or fails to properly address another party's assertion of fact as required by Rule 56(c), the court may:

- (1) give an opportunity to properly support or address the fact;
- (2) consider the fact undisputed for purposes of the motion;
- (3) grant summary judgment if the motion and supporting materials – including the facts considered undisputed – show that the movant is entitled to it; or
- (4) issue any other appropriate order.

(f) Judgment Independent of the Motion. After giving notice and a reasonable time to respond, the court may:

- (1) grant summary judgment for a nonmovant;
- (2) grant the motion on grounds not raised by a party; or
- (3) consider summary judgment on its own after identifying the parties for material facts that may not be genuinely in dispute.

(g) Failing to Grant All the Requested Relief. If the court does not grant all the relief requested by the motion, it may enter an order stating any material fact—including an item of damages or other relief—that is not genuinely in dispute and treating the fact as established in the case.

(h) Affidavit or Declaration Submitted in Bad Faith. If satisfied that an affidavit or declaration under this rule is submitted in bad faith or solely for delay, the court—after notice and a reasonable time to respond—may order the submitting party to pay the other party the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, it incurred as a result. An offending party or attorney may also be held in contempt or subjected to other appropriate sanctions.
