MINUTE TEXT: On September 7, 2021, the Court held a telephone conference with the parties regarding defendants intent to issue subpoenas for plaintiffs job applications and performance evaluations to his subsequent employers, Neiman Marcus and Georgia Regional Hospital. The Court finds that those records are relevant to the subject matter of this action and thus discoverable. Accordingly, the Court DENIES plaintiffs oral motion for protective order regarding the records sought by these subpoenas. Furthermore, in light of the personal nature of those records, the Court directs the parties to file a proposed consent protective order.
