 mrs.chelseynelson I can't wait to finish editing this engagement session from tonight! It was the perfect representation of why I do engagement sessions with all my couples: we get to meet, have fun, talk about things that matter, and make some magic at golden hour

 mrs.chelseynelson On my heart today: The pursuit to put our hope and trust in Jesus is not done in vain. In a world full of uncertainty, may we all look to the One who holds the world in His hand.

"Good and upright is the Lord; therefore he instructs sinners in the way. He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way. All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies." Psalm 25:8-10 mrs.chelseynelson One of the hardest parts of a wedding day is saying goodbye to the bride and groom at the end of the night! Strangers turn into clients, and then clients turn into friends.

You're likely to see me tearing up in the corner of a room sharing a tissue box with the mother of the bride at some point. I can't help it!

All of the happiness and connection definitely gets me feeling high on life, but my second favorite part is actually post production - all of the editing in my home office with Hugo sitting in my lap! 🐶

+ One of my goals as a photographer is to convey a feeling - sometimes that's coziness (cozy is a feeling for me), romance, euphoric happiness, silent wonder - there's always something beautiful to show off in God's creation!

+ It's just a matter of time before my vocabulary shifts over to Home Alone quotes. #90skid

+ I love planning fun/cozy things to do leading up to the holidays! Homemade pumpkin spice lattes and pumpkin bread are on this weekend's mrs.chelseynelson I've been dedicating a lot of time lately to lifting the layers of what I believe about marriage to understand how it influences the way I see the world, and with that, how it translates to my philosophy of photography.

Reflecting on these truths gives me that thump in your heart, tear in your eye, deep conviction that, love me or leave me, this is what I'm all about.

I believe God's vision for marriage is beautiful, and one of his sweetest gifts to us in this life to be treasured and held in honor.

I believe it's incredible to be able to mrs.chelseynelson Ah, the details. I always gravitate to them. So much time and thought are built into each detail of a wedding, it's important to document it. 💕

I'm recapping my styled shoot at @21hotels in Louisville on the blog today (link in profile)! I hope you enjoy the golden glamour. While gold spoons and intricately made wedding dresses make weddings look beautiful, my favorite aspects really surround what I like to call the substance behind the pretty. Your wedding is likely the only time in your life you'll have such a group of loving friends and family all in one place, celebrating you. It's pure magic when that sentiment is reflected in how a couple plans the day that marks the start of their new family. #styledshoot #ontheblog #thebusinessyouwant #chelseynelsonweddings

Every bride deserves that moment when they can't help but smile from ear to ear at the fact that they just married their best friend. ❤️

 mrs.chelseynelson I've found that photography helps point me to cherishing God's creativity. Sunsets, celebrating marriages, mothers holding their children for the first time - all beautiful gifts from God. I'm sharing some musings on the blog this week on chelseynelson.com. What helps you notice God's creativity? #photography #marriage
