1 Plaintiffs D.T., Jane Doe, and Helen Roe, by and through their respective counsel,
2 hereby state as follows:

3 1. Shortly following Plaintiffs' most recent update on November 20, 2020 (Doc.
4 29), Susan Doe received a notice that because of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic Jane's
5 current school will also return to distance learning starting on Tuesday, December 1, 2020,
6 and lasting until at least the beginning of winter break on December 18, 2020.

7 2. The school did not state whether it will still require all students to return to in-
8 person school on January 4, 2021, as it previously announced. The school district's board is 9 scheduled to meet on the evening of Monday, November 23, 2020, and may provide 10 additional information following that meeting.

11 3. Additionally, the new school where Jane seeks to enroll informed Susan that 12 she must submit Jane's enrollment paperwork, including her birth certificate, by December
13 16, 2020, to ensure that the school has sufficient time to process it for Jane to start on January
14 4, 2021. The new school has not announced at this time whether that enrollment submission
15 date will change with the increasing impact COVID-19 is having on school operations.

16 4. Plaintiffs' counsel and Susan Doe will continue to monitor the status of Jane's
17 schools and will promptly file a notice to inform the Court of any further changes.

18 Respectfully submitted,

19 Dated: November 23, 2020
