Attorneys for Plaintiffs-Appellees / Cross-Appellants

Appellees/Cross-Appellants Chelsey Nelson Photography LLC and Chelsey Nelson (“Nelson”) file this motion to supplement the record on appeal with evidence confirming that Nelson’s claims for injunctive and declaratory relief are not moot. This motion is filed pursuant to Sixth Circuit Rule 27 and in response to Appellants/Cross-Appellees’ (“Louisville”) contentions that these claims are moot and that Nelson lacks standing to assert them. Metro.Remand.Mot., ECF No. 60–1. Louisville does not consent to this motion. During the course of conferral, Nelson’s counsel agreed to provide Louisville with an extension of time through Tuesday, September 19, 2023, within which to reply to this motion, making Louisville’s response to this motion due on the same day as Louisville’s reply to its motion to remand.

The United States Supreme Court has said that “[i]t is the duty of counsel to bring to the federal tribunal’s attention ... facts that may raise a question of mootness.” Arizonans for Off. Eng. v. Arizona, 520 U.S. 43, 68 n.23 (1997). That Court has also encouraged appellate parties to “take pains to supplement the record in any manner necessary to enable [courts] to address with as much precision as possible any question of standing that may be raised.” Pennell v. City of San Jose, 485 U.S. 1, 8 (1988).

To that end, appellate courts have inherent equitable authority to supplement the record on appeal with facts relevant to their subject-matter jurisdiction. Exercising that authority, this Court and others allow supplemental evidence to be presented on appeal addressing the question of mootness. Davis v. Colerain Twp., 51 F.4th 164, 176 (6th Cir. 2022) (considering new rule change raised for first time on appeal); Frisch's Rest., Inc. v. Shoney's Inc., 759 F.2d 1261, 1270–71 (6th Cir. 1985) (granting motion to supplement record on appeal and considering new contractual agreement); Vital Pharms., Inc. v. Alfieri, 23 F.4th 1282, 1288–91 (11th Cir. 2022) (granting motion to supplement record on appeal with new evidence of employment status); Petrella v. Brownback, 787 F.3d 1242, 1256 n.4 (10th Cir. 2015) (granting motion to supplement record on appeal with new events and new policy).

In American Society of Journalists and Authors, Inc. v. Bonta, for example, the Ninth Circuit granted the plaintiffs' motion to supplement the record on appeal "with declarations showing that" an amendment to a law "did not moot th[eir] appeal." 15 F.4th 954, 960 n.5 (9th Cir. 2021). The plaintiffs were two organizations representing freelance writers, photographers, and others. Id. at 957. In granting their motion to supplement, that court allowed the plaintiffs to offer six different declarations from its individual members explaining—for the first time—how the amended law affected them. See Decls. of Randy Dotinga, Jobeth McDaniel, Miriam Raftery, Justin Stewart, Susan Valot, and Brian Feulner in Supp. of Mot. to Suppl. the Record, Am. Soc'y of Journalists & Authors, Inc. v. Bonta, 15 F.4th 954 (9th Cir. 2021) (No. 20-55734), ECF Nos. 9–2, 9–3, 9–4, 9–5, 9–6, 9–7.

Consistent with this practice, Nelson requests that the record on appeal be supplemented to include facts confirming the ongoing harm she faces as a result of Louisville's law. Louisville's only argument on mootness and standing turns on Nelson's move out-of-state. Metro.Mot.3–4, 6–7. Supplemental evidence refutes this argument.

As the supplemental evidence explains, Nelson's studio is still based in Louisville, and she has no present intention of reincorporating elsewhere. Decl. of Chelsey Nelson in Supp. of Mot. to Suppl. Record on Appeal (Nelson Supp. Decl.), ¶¶ 2–5, 18–19. Consistent with the record below, Nelson continues to solicit business in Louisville. Id. at ¶¶ 16–23. Her website and social media sites target Louisville and will continue to do so. Id. at ¶¶ 9–16. And Nelson still receives requests for services from people in Louisville. Id. at ¶ 24.

Nelson contracted with a digital marketing specialist who lives in Louisville to develop a strategy to attract clients there. Id. at ¶ 21; Ex. B. She did so to “attract Louisville-based leads that [Nelson] can convert into wedding celebration or boutique editing services clients.” Ex. B. This arrangement makes sense because Nelson spent almost seven years developing her business in Louisville and she desires to maintain relationships there. Nelson Supp. Decl., ¶ 8. Nelson likewise intends to return to photograph Louisville weddings. Id. at ¶ 20.

Nelson's studio remains active. Just last month, she photographed a wedding in Mississippi. Id. at ¶¶ 26–27. This month, she photographed another wedding in Florida. Id. at ¶¶ 28–29. And Nelson remains under contract to provide boutique editing services for a wedding photographer client through the end of this year. Id. at ¶ 30. With that contract, Nelson will have edited about 40 weddings for that client alone. Id.

As this evidence confirms, Nelson still needs prospective relief to stop Louisville from enforcing its law against her studio because she continues to operate her studio in Louisville, advertise there, and solicit business from Louisville residents. Even if this Court remanded for the district court to conduct limited discovery and to determine whether injunctive and declaratory relief is appropriate, it should first decide Nelson’s claim for damages, including the merits. But a remand is unnecessary. The supplemental evidence comes under oath with supporting documentation. Louisville has been clear about how it interprets its law. More fact-finding won’t change the material facts, which are not disputed.

If this Court believes that additional facts beyond the existing record are necessary to resolve Nelson’s entitlement to injunctive and declaratory relief, Nelson respectfully requests that this Court supplement the record to include the facts contained in the attached declaration and supporting documents.

4. As indicated in the Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement filed with the district court, Chelsey Nelson Photography LLC is organized under Kentucky law. Articles of Organization, R.92–5, PageID#2906; Operating Agreement, R.92–5, PageID#2907–2913.

7. In April 2023, I moved to Florida because my husband started a new job there.

8. But for almost seven years, I built my photography business in Louisville, developed personal and professional contacts there, targeted and directed my services into the Louisville market, and developed a profound and meaningful personal connection to Louisville.

9. For example, as indicated on the About Me section of my studio's website, which was filed with the district court and is available at <https://www.chelseynelson.com/about>, I describe myself as “a Louisville, Kentucky photographer and private photo editor.” About Me, R.92–5, PageID#2914.

10. As indicated on the Contact section of my studio’s website, which was filed with the district court and is available at <https://www.chelseynelson.com/about>, I describe myself as “a Louisville, Kentucky photographer and private photo editor.” Contact, R.92–5, PageID#2917.

13. As indicated on my wedding celebration services section of my studio’s website, which was filed with the district court and is available at <https://www.chelseynelson.com/weddings>, I describe myself as “a Louisville, Kentucky photographer and private photo editor” and reference “Louisville, Kentucky” at the bottom of the page. Weddings, R.92–5, PageID#2925–2928.

14. As indicated on my boutique editing services section of my studio’s website, which was filed with the district court and is available at <https://www.chelseynelson.com/weddings>, I describe myself as “a

15. As indicated by several Instagram posts filed with the district court, I use hashtags including #louisvilleweddingphotographer, #louisvillebride, #mykentuckybride. Instagram, R.92–6, PageID#2997, 2999, 3002, 3004.

16. On an Instagram post I recently posted to my studio’s Instagram page (available at <https://www.instagram.com/p/CvIfJ0-OcA6/?hl=en>) I used hashtags including #louisvillebride, #louisvilleweddingphotographer, and #mykentuckybride.

17. Based on my relationships in Louisville, the majority of the wedding celebration services I have provided have taken place in Louisville, as indicated in my supplemental interrogatory responses. A true and correct redacted copy of the relevant portion of those responses is attached as Exhibit A.

18. I have no present intention of formally reincorporating Chelsey Nelson Photography LLC in another state, but I will register to do business in Florida consistent with Florida law.

19. I also intend to maintain Chelsey Nelson Photography LLC’s mailing address in Louisville.

20. I will return to Louisville to provide wedding celebration services when hired.

21. To that end, I contracted with a digital marketing specialist who lives in Louisville to develop a strategy to attract clients in Louisville. A true and correct redacted copy of that agreement is attached as Exhibit B.

22. I also intend to continue to advertise in, solicit business in, and direct marketing to Louisville by, among other things, continuing to reference Louisville, Kentucky on Chelsey Nelson Photography LLC's website, my blogs posted on that website, and my social media posts.

23. I intend to brand myself as a Louisville- and Tallahassee-based photographer on my studio's website and reference my availability and interest in photographing engagements and weddings in each location.

24. In that respect, I continue to receive inquiries through Chelsey Nelson Photography LLC's website and from other sources for photography services—including from people in Louisville.

25. Indeed, Chelsey Nelson Photography LLC remains active and I continue to serve the Louisville market as well as the market in Tallahassee.

26. On July 7, 2023 and July 9, 2023, I provided wedding celebration services—including creating engagement photographs and wedding photographs—for a wedding in Mississippi. A true and correct redacted copy of that contract is attached as Exhibit C.

27. Because I always include a blog post celebrating each wedding that I photograph as part of my wedding celebration services, I intend to post a blog post about this wedding within the next month or so.

28. On August 5, 2023, I photographed a wedding in Tallahassee, Florida. A true and correct redacted copy of that contract is attached as Exhibit D.

29. Because I always include a blog post celebrating each wedding that I photograph as part of my wedding celebration services, I intend to post a blog post about this wedding within the next month or so.

30. I also remain under contract with an existing wedding photographer client to provide boutique editing services for her. This contract extends through the end of the year, and I hope to renew it thereafter. In total, through this current contract and my prior work with this client, I will have edited about 40 weddings for this client alone. A true and correct redacted copy of that contract is attached as Exhibit E.

31. I haven't updated my studio's website to reflect my recent move to Tallahassee because of the busyness of moving my family to a new state and helping my husband prepare for his new job. But I intend to update my studio's website to explicitly note that I serve clients in the Louisville and Tallahassee areas through my wedding celebration and boutique editing services, and that I direct and target my marketing to the Louisville and Tallahassee areas, while otherwise keeping my website largely the same.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on August 25, 2023.

Cost, Fees and Payment.

Cost. The total cost ("Total Cost") for all Services is $1,799.88 and due in full by June 9, 2023.

Client shall pay the Total Cost to Photographer as follows:

Fees. Photographer's hourly rate is $350 per each hour spent on Client's Services over the allotted amount of time purchased. Photographer makes reasonable efforts to retouch and edit Client's images in a tasteful and professional manner before delivery of Client's final images. If Client requests further retouching or edits after delivery of Client's final images, then Client agrees to pay Photographer for any additional changes Photographer makes at Photographer's hourly rate. If Client implicitly or explicitly requests Photographer to continue Services beyond the hours set forth in this Agreement, Photographer will invoice Client for additional time.

Late Fees. If Photographer does not receive payment from Client within fourteen calendar days of any payment date, then Client will be charged a late fee of 1.5% of the outstanding amount per each day that Photographer does not receive payment.

- For example, if Client owes Photographer $1000 due on April 1 and fails to pay by April 14th. On April 15th, Client owes Photographer $1015. On April 16th, Client owes Photographer $1030.23. On April 17th, Client owes Photographer $1045.68, and so on.

Expenses. Client is responsible for paying for and delivering any third party products Client wishes Photographer to utilize by July 8, 2023. At Photographer's discretion, Photographer will make reasonable efforts to integrate Client's suggestions.

Intellectual Property.

Copyright Ownership. Photographer owns the copyright in any and all images he/she takes pursuant to federal copyright law (Title 17, Chapter 2, §201-02, of the United States Code.) Any and all photographs produced in connection with, or in the process of fulfilling this agreement, are expressly and solely owned by Photographer to use in the reasonable course of business.

Non-exclusive License. Photographer grants to Client a non-exclusive, worldwide license of photographs produced with and for Client for personal use and for public use so long as Client provides Photographer with attribution each time Client uses Photographer's property publicly unless and until Photographer assigns her copyright to Client. Photographs will be deemed properly attributed to Photographer when it would be obvious to any reasonable observer, reader or viewer that Chelsey Nelson Photography provided the photograph for Client's use.

Prohibited Uses of Photographs. Some uses of Photographer's property are expressly prohibited in order to maintain the integrity and quality of Photographer's reputation and work.

- Any resale of the photographs through direct or indirect means, including, but not limited to: selling the photos as stock photography; selling or allowing use of the photos by a third party such as a corporation or advertiser.
- Any illegal assignment of Photographer's work, such as allowing third party use of a photograph online or in print without attribution.
- Any use of photographs, personally or otherwise, which does not include attribution to Chelsey Nelson Photography.

- Client expressly agrees not to produce derivative works of Photographer's property, such as, but not limited to, photographs of a photograph, scans into a computer, unauthorized photo collages or other works that incorporate a substantial portion of Photographer's property in a way that distorts or denigrates the photograph's high resolution.
- Any use deemed unreasonable or defamatory, at the discretion of Photographer.
- Any retouched or further edits of photographs that materially alters the composition of the photograph, such as by applying filters, changing the colors or other means of degradation, as determined by Photographer.
- Client will not purposefully try to hide or otherwise conceal attribution to Photographer, such as by printing attribution in such small print or font that the source of the photograph is not readily apparent to the reasonable viewer.

Appropriate Conduct

Appropriate Conduct/ Safe Working Environment: The Client(s) expressly agree(s) to ensure the appropriate behavior of all attendees at the wedding/event, and additionally agree(s) to undertake best efforts to ensure that all parties involved in the event, including but not limited to the Client(s), vendors, the bridal party, all guests, and any and all attendees, behave in a manner that provides the Photographer with a safe and comfortable work environment. Any threatening, hostile, inappropriate, or offensive behavior of any kind, and any other behavior that compromises the safety or well-being of the Photographer or photography equipment or constitutes a hostile work environment will not be tolerated. What constitutes such behavior is up to the sole discretion of the Photographer in accordance with the standard of a reasonably prudent person, and will be dealt with as follows: (a) after the first offense, the Photographer will verbally notify the offending person and either the Client(s) or family member of the Client(s); (b) after the second offense, the Photographer will verbally notify the Client(s), and the Client(s) will remove the offending person for the remainder of the event (c) after the third offense, the Photographer will end wedding coverage immediately and leave the event. If the Photographer leaves the event after a third offense, the Photographer shall be entitled to retain all monies paid hereunder, the Client(s) will not be entitled to any refund, and the Client(s) agree to relieve and hold Photographer harmless as a result of incomplete wedding or event photography coverage, or for a lapse in the quality of the work.

Releases and Limit of Liability

Exclusivity. Client understands and agrees she has hired Photographer exclusive of any other service provider for the Services listed in this Agreement, and no other photographers, other than any assistant or third party that Photographer has hired to complete the Services, are permitted to provide the same Services, paid or unpaid, unless prior permission is granted by Photographer. Client accepts and agrees that third party photographers, whether professional or not, may impede Photographer's access to the bridal couple and/or clients for crucial photos, and it is Client's responsibility to ensure Photographer always has the best angle and/or position as determined by the Photographer. If the Photographer feels its work is being compromised, Photographer has Client's permission to approach Client(s) to ask them to remove the obstructive party or parties. Client initials: [REDACTED], [REDACTED]

Artistic Release. Client has spent a satisfactory amount of time reviewing Photographer's work and has a reasonable expectation that its services will produce a similar manner and style of aesthetic for Client. Photographer will use reasonable efforts to ensure Client's services are carried out in a style and manner consistent with Photographer's current portfolio and Photographer will try to incorporate any suggestions Client makes. However, Client understands and agrees that:

- Every client and wedding is different, with different tastes, budgets, and performance needs; and
- Styling is a subjective art and Photographer is an artist with a unique vision, with an ever-evolving style and technique; and
- Photographer will use his/her personal artistic judgment to create styled areas for Client, which may not include strict adherence to Client's suggestions; and
- Dissatisfaction with Photographer's aesthetic judgment or artistic ability are not valid reasons for termination of this Agreement or request of any monies returned.
- Client is responsible for delivering any props or furniture Client wishes to have by July 8, 2023.

Loss of Images. In the rare event that any or all images are lost, such as damage to camera or equipment, stolen camera or equipment or damaged film rolls, Photographer shall refund Client the corresponding percentage of lost images. For example, if 30% of the original images taken are lost, Photographer shall refund 30% of the Total Cost.

Maximum Damages. Client agrees that the maximum amount of damages he or she is entitled to in any claim relating to this Agreement or Services provided in this Agreement are not to exceed the Total Cost of Services provided by Photographer.

Indemnification. Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Photographer, its related companies, parties, affiliates, agents, independent contractors, assigns, directors, employees and officers from any and all claims, causes of action, damages or other losses arising out of, or related to, the Services provided in this Agreement. Client agrees to either secure a reasonable amount of insurance coverage to pay for any claims, causes of action, damage, attorney fees or other losses as a result of accident or negligence on behalf of the Parties to this Agreement, or if no insurance is secured, Client waives its right to directly or indirectly ask or force Photographer to pay for any such damages. Client initials: [REDACTED], [REDACTED].

Non-disparagement. The Parties mutually agree not to make public defamatory statements that would materially harm the reputation or business activities of any Parties to this Agreement.

Model Release. Please see attached as Exhibit A.

Cancellation, Rescheduling and No-Shows

Cancellation, Rescheduling of Services or No-Show Client. If Client desires to cancel Services, reschedule Services, or if it becomes impossible for Photographer to render Services due to the fault of the Client or parties related to Client, such as failure of one or more essential parties to the course to provide support or documents in a timely manner, Client shall provide notice to Photographer as soon as possible via the Notice provisions detailed in this Agreement. Upon cancellation or unreasonable delay, all outstanding fees are immediately due and payable to Photographer.

Weather Delay. In the event of a rain or weather delay, Client will be notified within 24 hours of any wedding that its Services may be reasonably altered to fit the circumstances of the situation at the discretion of the Photographer.

Force Majeure. Notwithstanding the above, either party may choose to be excused of any further performance obligations in the event of a disastrous occurrence outside the control of either party that materially affects the Services provided in this Agreement, including:

- A natural disaster (fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricane, flooding, storms or infestation); or
- War, Invasion, Act of Foreign Enemies, Embargo, or other Hostility (whether declared or not); or
- Any hazardous situation created outside the control of either party such as a riot, disorder, nuclear leak or explosion, or act or threat of terrorism.

Bad Faith Inducement: Photographer is not obligated to accept all projects. In accepting Client's request for services, Photographer determined that providing its photography services for Client's wedding and surrounding events are consistent with and does not conflict with Photographer's religious and artistic beliefs and judgment and editorial discretion. However, Photographer may terminate this agreement if Photographer later determines that providing such services will effectively communicate or advance messages that conflict with Photographer's religious or artistic beliefs. If this occurs due to Client's material misrepresentation or fraudulent inducement, Photographer shall be entitled to compensation for the services as they would have been rendered.

Failure to Perform Services. In the event Photographer cannot or will not perform its obligations in any or all parts of this Agreement, it (or a responsible party) will:

- Immediately give Notice to Client via the Notice provisions detailed in this Agreement; and
- Issue a refund or credit based on a reasonably accurate percentage of Services rendered or find a reasonable replacement to render Services; and
- Excuse Client of any further performance and/or payment obligations in this Agreement.

General Provisions

Governing Law. The laws of Kentucky govern all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including torts.

Severability. If any portion of this Agreement is deemed to be illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement remain in full force.

Amendment. The parties may amend this Agreement only by the parties' written consent via proper Notice.

Dispute Resolution. If the Parties cannot find a resolution to a dispute or potential claim by means of good-faith negotiation, then the Parties will make a reasonable attempt to resolve their dispute through Alternative Dispute Resolution or Mediation before filing a civil cause of action.

Editor's Brand and Goodwill

Editor is a for-profit Limited Liability Company that exists to create positive stories celebrating beauty, goodness, and truth. As such, Editor exercises artistic and editorial judgment, creates artwork, and uses its platform to promote these values, which are informed and defined by distinct religious and artistic beliefs. Editor reserves the right to and shall decline any work or project that promotes messages, events, services, actions, products, or organizations inconsistent with these beliefs, including works that demean people, condone racism, sexually objectify someone, celebrate pornographic, vulgar, or obscene material, or otherwise contradict Editor's artistic or religious beliefs. These values form Editor's unique brand and goodwill ("Brand and/or Goodwill"). The Parties understand and acknowledge that Editor derives significant meaning and value from its Brand and Goodwill.

Editor shall provide Client with the following services and/or products ("Services"): Boutique Photo Editing Services.

Client shall pay the Total Cost to Editor as follows: $0.35 cents per edited image, applicable sales tax required by Kentucky state law, and $0.15 cents per culled image (using the image count when full unedited gallery is received).

Editor will send Client payment requests via Honeybook.

Services, Products, Schedule and Storage

- Black & white conversion
- Editing & Engagement
- Culling (when specified)

Schedule. Editor shall deliver edited images no later than 10 days after receiving images or 12 days after receiving images if culling services are requested to provide Client with Services unless Editor gives written notice to Client, understanding that emergencies and peak editing seasons can lengthen turnaround time. If images are delivered to Editor after 5:00pm Eastern time, the 10 day turnover schedule will begin the next business day.

Image Storage. Digital copies of Smart Previews produced in the course of fulfilling this Agreement will be stored until delivery of final images and/or products. After 5 days of delivery of final images and/or products Client releases Editor from any and all liability for lost or damaged files or photographs.

Intellectual Property

Copyright Ownership.

Editor's editing and enhancement techniques create derivative works protected by copyright law. Client agrees and represents that the subject matter and intended use of Editor's derivative works does not conflict with or compromises Editor's Brand or Goodwill. By virtue of this agreement, Editor agrees to transfer to Client all copyrights in any and all work(s) Editor creates or produces pursuant to federal copyright law (Title 17, Chapter 2, Section 201-02 of the United States Code), whether registered or unregistered. Any and all products, whether tangible or intangible, produced or created in connection with, or in the process of fulfilling this Agreement, are expressly and solely owned by Client and may be used in the reasonable course of Client's business.

Permitted Uses of Product(s). Editor grants to Client a non-exclusive license of product(s) produced with and for Client for personal and commercial use.

Works Created Pursuant to the Agreement

In exchange for payment, Editor transfers ownership in full of all original works and intellectual property created by Editor during the course of completing the Services for Client. Editor's transfer of these works and intellectual property rights is contingent on Client's full and honest disclosure of the subject matter of, intended use of, and purpose for the derivative works. Client agrees to disclose information about the subject matter and any use of Editor-produced derivative works that threatens or compromises the integrity of Editor's Brand or Goodwill. Client understands that Editor relies on Client's representations of subject matter and intended use when evaluating whether to accept the project. Client agrees that any misuse in violation of this agreement or material misrepresentation or omission with respect to Client's subject matter or intended use of the works shall render transfer of ownership and intellectual property rights null and void. Similarly, such material misrepresentations or omissions shall result in the immediate termination of any license granted to Client by Editor.

No Guarantee of Work

This Agreement is not a guarantee of work by Client to Editor. This Agreement shall only state the Services to be provided by Vendor as requested by Client.

Independent Contractor Status

Editor is an "Independent Contractor" and not an employee of Client.

Non-Exclusive Agreement

This Agreement is non-exclusive; Client may hire other people to provide similar services as being provided by Editor.

Editor may provide services to third parties as well.

Termination Prior to Expiration or Completion

By Client. Client may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving written notice to Editor.

Upon termination, Client shall be responsible for compensation to Editor for Services rendered prior to Editor's notice of termination.

By Editor. With reasonable cause, such as Client's failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement, Editor may terminate this Agreement effective immediately upon giving written notice to Client. Editor may terminate this Agreement for any reason by giving thirty (30) days' written notice to Client.

No Obligation to Take Projects. Editor is not obligated to accept all projects. In accepting Client's request for services, Editor determined that Client's project is consistent with or provides no conflict for Editor's religious and artistic beliefs. However, Editor may terminate this agreement if it later determines that the project will ultimately communicate or advance messages or promote events, services, products, causes, or organizations that conflict with Editor's religious or artistic beliefs or will compromise Editor's Brand or Goodwill. If Editor, in its sole discretion, makes this determination, the agreement shall terminate and neither party shall be entitled to compensation or payment. However, if project termination results from Client's misrepresentation or concealment of the project, Client shall not be relieved of its obligation to pay Editor.

No Fringe Benefits or Workers' Compensation Insurance

Fringe Benefits. Editor understands that it is not eligible to participate in any of Client's employee benefit programs, including pension, profit sharing, health care, vacation pay, sick pay, or other fringe benefit plan.

Workers' Compensation. Editor acknowledges and agrees that Client is not responsible for payment of workers' compensation insurance since the relationship is that of an independent contractor.

Federal and State Taxes

Editor shall pay all taxes incurred while performing Services under this Agreement, including all applicable income taxes, and self-employment taxes. Client will not withhold FICA (Social Security and Medicare taxes) from Editor's payments or make FICA payments on Editor's behalf.

Editor's Duty of Confidentiality

Editor agrees that it will not, at any time, use or disclose any of Client's Confidential Information or any materials or information which Editor should reasonably expect to be confidential, including personal information related to Client's clients. Editor agrees that all Confidential Information is, and shall remain, the sole property of Client. Upon request, Editor shall promptly return to Client all materials containing or otherwise pertaining to Confidential Information. Editor agrees to not disclose business practices or techniques used by Client to any third parties.

Artistic Release

Style. Client has spent a satisfactory amount of time reviewing Editor's work and has a reasonable expectation that Editor will perform the Services in a manner and style similar to Editor's other work. Consistent with Editor's own artistic style and judgment, Editor will strive to produce edited and enhanced images in harmony with and not inconsistent with Client's portfolio unless otherwise specified in this Agreement.

Consistency. Editor will use reasonable efforts to ensure Client's desired Services are produced in a style and manner in harmony with and not inconsistent with Client's current portfolio. Editor will try to incorporate reasonable suggestions made by Client. However, Client understands and agrees that:

1. Every client and project are different, with different tastes, budgets, and needs;
2. Services are often a subjective art and Editor has an ever-evolving style and technique to reflect the Client's work;

3. Editor will use its artistic judgment and exercise its editorial and artistic discretion when providing Services for Client, which may not include strict adherence to Client's suggestions;
4. Although Editor will use reasonable efforts to incorporate Client's suggestions and desires when providing Client with the Services, Editor shall have ultimate editorial judgment and control regarding the aesthetic judgment and artistic quality of the Services;
5. Dissatisfaction with Editor's editorial judgment and control or artistic ability are not valid reasons for termination of this Agreement or request of any monies returned.

Limit of Liability

Maximum Damages. Client agrees that the maximum amount of damages he or she is entitled to in any claim relating to this Agreement or Services provided in this Agreement are not to exceed the Total Cost of Services provided by Editor.

Loss of Product. In the event that any or all product(s) are lost, such as damage to or loss of a component of the product necessary for final delivery, Editor shall refund Client a pro-rated portion of the Total Cost based on the amount of Services that were completed/provided against the amount of Services that were agreed to be completed/provided.

Indemnification. Client agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Editor and its affiliates, employees, agents and independent contractors for any injury, property damage, liability, claim or other cause of action arising out of or related to Services and/or product(s) Editor provides to Client.

Cancellation, Rescheduling and No-Shows

Cancellation, Rescheduling of Services or No-Show Client. If Client desires to cancel Services, reschedule Services, or if it becomes impossible for Editor to render Services due to the fault of the Client or third parties related to Client, such as failure to deliver the gallery file or failure of one or more essential third parties to adhere to an agreed upon schedule for the production of the gallery file in a timely manner, Client shall provide notice to Editor as soon as possible via the Notice provisions detailed in this Agreement. Editor has no obligation to attempt to re-book further Services to fill the void created by Client's cancellation, rescheduling, no-show or if it becomes impossible for Editor to provide the Services due to the fault of Client (or third parties related to Client), and Editor will not be obligated to refund any monies Client has previously paid towards the Total Cost. Client is not relieved of any payment obligations for cancelled Services, rescheduled Services, failing to adhere to the agreed upon schedule for the Services, or should it become impossible for Editor to provide the Services due to the fault of Client (or third parties related to Client) unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing. For instance, if Editor is able to secure another, unrelated client for Services, then Editor may choose, at its sole discretion, to excuse all (or a portion of) Client's outstanding balance of the Total Cost.

Impossibility

Force Majeure. Notwithstanding the above, either party may choose to be excused of any further performance obligations in the event of a disastrous occurrence outside the control of either party, such as, but not limited to:

1. A natural disaster (fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricane, flooding, storms or infestation); or
2. War, Invasion, Act of Foreign Enemies, Embargo, or other Hostility (whether declared or not); or
3. Any hazardous situation created outside the control of either party such as a riot, disorder, nuclear leak or explosion, or act or threat of terrorism.

Failure to Perform Services. In the event Editor cannot or will not perform its obligations in any or all parts of this Agreement, it (or a responsible party) will:

1. Immediately give Notice to Client via the Notice provisions detailed in this Agreement; and
2. Issue a refund or credit based on a reasonably accurate percentage of Services rendered; and
3. Excuse Client of any further performance and/or payment obligations in this Agreement.

General Provisions

Governing Law. The laws of Kentucky govern all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including torts.

Severability. If any portion of this Agreement is deemed to be illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement remain in full force.

Notice. Parties shall provide effective notice ("Notice") to each other via either of the following methods of delivery at the date and time which the Notice is sent:

1. Email

1. Editor's Email: [REDACTED]
2. Client Email: [REDACTED]

Merger. This Agreement constitutes the final, exclusive agreement between the parties relating to the Editing and Services contained in this Agreement. All earlier and contemporaneous negotiations and agreements between the parties on the matters contained in this Agreement are expressly merged into and superseded by this Agreement.

Amendment. The parties may amend this Agreement only by the parties' written consent via proper Notice.
