This order incorporates the provisions of the Parties’ stipulated Protective Order that governs the designation and use of documents marked “Confidential” or documents containing “Confidential Information,” which applies to the documents and information that are the subject of this order.

A. DEFINITIONS

As used herein, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. “Litigation” means the above-captioned matter and any appeals thereof.
2. “Covered entity” shall have the same definition as set forth in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103.
3. “Protected Health Information” (“PHI”) shall have the same definition as set forth in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103.

B. AUTHORIZATIONS, PROHIBITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO PHI

1. The parties are hereby authorized through discovery to receive, subpoena, and transmit PHI, to the extent that such information is otherwise discoverable and not objectionable, subject to all conditions outlined herein.

Pursuant to this Order, all parties are:

- a. prohibited from using or disclosing PHI for any purpose other than as provided in the Protective Order; and
  - b. required to securely destroy, return, or retain pursuant to record keeping obligations imposed by law, all copies of PHI in accordance with paragraph 12 of the Protective Order.
2. Subpoenas. Based upon this HIPAA Qualified Protective Order and commencing immediately from the date of this Order, covered entities shall COMPLY with, and are hereby AUTHORIZED and ORDERED to use or disclose PHI in response to, any and all subpoenas for records without deposition pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 to which no objection has been timely filed as well as any other subpoenas served upon them at any future time in the course of this Litigation.

3. Interrogatories, Requests for Production, Requests for Copies, and Expert Communications. In addition to the foregoing, pursuant to 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1)(i) and for purposes of HIPAA compliance, without waiver of any right to prepayment of costs or any other appropriate objection or privilege that may be timely asserted, the attorneys, employees, agents, and designees of each party in this Litigation are expressly and specifically AUTHORIZED and ORDERED to:

- a. respond to valid Requests for Production or Interrogatories served pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in the Litigation seeking PHI; and
- b. respond to valid and timely Requests for Copies served pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in the Litigation for production of documents and things without deposition concerning PHI.

4. Depositions. In addition to the foregoing, pursuant to 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1)(i) and for purposes of HIPAA compliance, without waiver of any right to the prepayment of costs or any other appropriate objection or privilege that may be timely asserted, each deponent duly noticed for deposition in the Litigation, including but not limited to a party, a fact witness, a records custodian, an expert, or a healthcare provider of any type, is expressly and specifically AUTHORIZED and ORDERED to use or to disclose to the attorneys, agents, employees, and designees of each party or each party's legal counsel in this Litigation the PHI of a person that is responsive to deposition questions or a valid subpoena duces tecum at such duly-noticed deposition in the Litigation, subject to the Parties' stipulated Protective Order.

6. The parties and their attorneys shall be permitted to use PHI in any manner allowable under the Parties' stipulated Protective Order. Furthermore, consistent with the Protective Order, prior to the disclosure of any PHI, any party or counsel shall obtain a signed acknowledgement, as attached to the Protective Order, from the person to whom the PHI is being disclosed. Counsel providing access to PHI shall retain copies of the executed Acknowledgment(s) and provide them to another party as requested.

7. Nothing in the Order shall permit the counsel for any party, other than the party representing the patient, to engage in ex parte communications with the healthcare provider for a party to this Litigation, or a party's child, concerning the treatment of that party or party's child.

8. Nothing in this Order authorizes counsel to obtain medical records or information through means other than formal discovery requests, subpoenas, depositions, patient authorizations, or other lawful processes.

9. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this Litigation. This Order shall remain in full force and effect and each person subject to this Order shall continue to be subject to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Florida, for the purposes of enforcement of the terms of this Order.
