

EXHIBIT 22

COUNSELORS AND LIFE COACHES WHO HAVE STAFFED JOURNEY INTO MANHOOD

The following information is provided as a reference for Journey into Manhood participants who may wish to follow up on their own with counselors and life coaches who have staffed Journey into Manhood in the past. These men are knowledgeable not only about same-sex attraction issues but are also very familiar with the Journey into Manhood experience, teachings and program.

Rich Wyler

Founder and Executive Director, People Can Change (www.peoplecanchange.com) and Life Coach, Higher Path Life Coaching (www.higherpathcoaching.com), Virginia
Phone: 1-434-985-8551 Email: rich@peoplecanchange.com or rich@higherpathcoaching.com

Rich Wyler is founder of the non-profit organization People Can Change and founder and co-creator of its “Journey into Manhood” experiential-healing weekend.

Building on his skills and experience in leading men through dramatic personal breakthroughs – and after years of mentoring men in their individual journeys out of SSA and sexual addictions – Rich established Higher Path Life Coaching and began coaching professionally in 2005. Rich now coaches clients by phone across North America, Europe and Australia on overcoming pornography and other sexually addictive behaviors, overcoming same-sex attractions, personal growth, developing opposite-sex dating relationships, life mission work, and achieving personal success in work and other areas of life. Rich also coaches parents and leads groups on responding to a son or daughter’s SSA. He holds a bachelor’s degree in communications from Brigham Young University. He and his late wife are the parents of two children.

David Matheson, M.S., LPC

Director, Center for Gender Wholeness (www.genderwholeness.com), Salt Lake City, Utah
Phone: 1-801-272-3200 Email: dmatheson@earthlink.net

David Matheson, M.S. is a Licensed Professional Counselor in private practice in Salt Lake City, Utah. David received his Masters of Science degree in Counseling and Guidance from Brigham Young University in 1996. He practiced for eight years under the supervision of Joseph Nicolosi, Ph.D, in Los Angeles. He is co-founder of the Center for Gender Wholeness, where his primary focus is on clients seeking to diminish unwanted homosexual feelings and develop a stronger masculine, heterosexual identity and desires.

David is co-creator (with Rich Wyler) of the Journey into Manhood experiential weekend program and an expert facilitator of deep emotional healing work. A frequent leader of JiM trainings across the US, he serves on the board of directors of People Can Change (www.peoplecanchange.com). David is married and the father of three.

Floyd Godfrey, LPC

Director, Family Strategies and Coaching (www.healinghomosexuality.com), Mesa, Arizona
Phone: 1-480-668-8301

Floyd Godfrey is a Licensed Professional Counselor and the Director of Family Strategies Clinic in the Phoenix, Arizona area, where he supervises other therapists who work in the field of sexual addictions, reparative therapy and other mental health issues. He received his education from Arizona State University and Ottawa University and has worked for 15 years with youth, adults and families in a variety of mental health settings.

Floyd has special training helping those who struggle with unwanted sexual feelings and behavior. He is the author of the book "Homosexuality: Symptoms and Free Agency" and the audiotape program "Healing Homosexuality: Testimonies of Change." Floyd is the founder of "Adventure in Manhood," an experiential weekend for men and youth (see www.adventureinmanhood.com). Floyd is a member of the board of directors of People Can Change. He is married and the father of three. He is available for phone assessments and consultations to anyone in or outside the Greater Phoenix area.

Alan Downing

Group Facilitator and Life Coach, Higher Path Coaching (www.higherpathcoaching.com), New Jersey
Phone: 1-732-766-4211 Email: alan@higherpathcoaching.com

Alan Downing brings personal experience and a deep passion for men's work to his life coaching practice. Since 2002 Alan has led numerous men's support groups in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and has staffed or led over 20 experiential healing trainings in the United States and Europe for Mankind Project International, People Can Change, J.O.N.A.H. and the International Healing Foundation. Alan is the co-creator, with David Matheson, of PCC's "next-step" healing weekend called "Journey Beyond."

Alan has been studying and practicing Psychodrama and Action Methods since 2003 at the Spring Lake Heights Counseling Center, in Spring Lake Heights, NJ, where he facilitates groups on anger management and addiction recovery. Alan is married and the father of two daughters. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in community counseling.

Bruce R. Gold

Director, Collegetown Healing Center, Collegetown, Pennsylvania
Phone: 1-610-489-0496 Email: b.gold@verizon.net

Bruce Gold operates a Healing Center in Collegetown, Penn., 20 miles northwest of Philadelphia, offering counseling for individuals and couples. Bruce has trained in modalities including Gestalt Therapy, Shadow Work, Imago Therapy, Co-Dependency, Touch Therapy and Voice Dialogue. He offers healing work on an individual basis for men dealing with unwanted SSA issues.

Bruce has staffed several Journey Into Manhood weekends as a lead facilitator of deep emotional healing work. He is a Certified Co-Leader in the New Warrior Training Adventure (www.mkp.org), an intense, transformative men's initiation that invites men to forge a deep conscious connection between head and heart, and that supports men in developing lives of integrity, accountability, and connection to feeling. Bruce has staffed or led more than 57 NWTAs weekends over 12 years. He has 20 years experience in 12-step recovery. He sees clients either during day or evening hours, and offers telephone sessions as well.

updated April 2008

Baxter Peffer, MS

National Certified Counselor

Phone: 1-412-491-5989 Email: baxterpeffer@gmail.com

Baxter Peffer is a National Certified Counselor specializing in men’s issues, including unwanted same-sex attraction, sexual addiction, and the trauma of childhood sexual abuse. With both his phone and in-person clients, Baxter joins his background in prayer ministry and theology with a clinically-directed approach, and works with both men and adolescents who seek to achieve a greater sense of masculinity and a stronger self-concept. An advocate for the benefits of creating and joining in community, he frequently staffs healing, experiential weekends, both secular and Christian-based, including Journey into Manhood (www.peoplecanchange.com), Edge Venture (www.edgeventure.org) and the New Warrior Training Adventure (www.mkp.org).

John Hinson, LPC

Family Strategies and Coaching (www.healinghomosexuality.com), Mesa, Arizona

Phone: 1-480-668-8301

John Hinson is a Licensed Professional Counselor who works as a therapist with Family Strategies & Coaching in the Greater Phoenix area. John has several years experience in leading both individual and group counseling. He has an M.A. in both counseling and Theological Studies from Reformed Theology Seminary in Orlando, Florida. He has worked at The Meadows, in Wickenburg Arizona. Now at Family Strategies & Coaching, he works primarily with men seeking recovery from same sex attraction and related issues.

John has special training in the areas of addiction, childhood trauma, family of origin dysfunction, and unwanted same sex attraction. He is also trained to work with families of persons who struggle with addictions and various sexual issues. John works closely with Exodus International, where he is listed as a referred therapist. John offers phone assessments and consultations to clients within or outside the Greater Phoenix area.

Brian Leclair

Pasadena, California

Phone: 1-626-683-0939

Email: ryebeach@sbcglobal.net

Brian Leclair holds masters degrees in counseling and in marriage and family therapy. He is in private practice in Pasadena California, where he works in-person and by phone with youth and adults working to overcome unwanted same-sex attractions and related issues. He regularly staffs the Journey Into Manhood weekend.

updated April 2008

Bobby Morgan, LCSW

Houston, Texas

Phone: 1-713-444-1598 Email: bobbymorgan9@comcast.net

Bobby Morgan is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in private practice in Houston, Texas. He specializes in gender-affirmative therapy with men who seek both freedom from unwanted same sex attraction and connection to their true heterosexual identity. Mentored by Dr. Joseph Nicolosi, PhD, he is passionate about leading men to healing in the following areas: growing sense of identity as strong, masculine men, authentic connection to their emotions, getting core needs met in healthy, non-sexual ways, releasing shame, working through pornography and other addictions and using their spirituality to surrender to the life to which they feel called. Bobby is a member of the National Association for Resaearch and Therapy of Homosexuality (www.narth.com) and regularly staffs the powerful Journey into Manhood weekend. Face to face therapy, as well as meaningful therapy over the phone, are available.

Kevin Barwick, LCPC

A New Place (www.anewplace.info), Maryland (Washington DC area)

Phone: 1-301-552-6688 Email: KevinBarwick@AnewPlace.info

Kevin Barwick of Anew Place Counseling Services is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor in Maryland and Virginia (pending). He has been in private practice for nearly 15 years. He had worked for the State of Maryland in the Youth and Family Division for over 10 years providing foster care placement services. Kevin specializes in issues related to relationship skill-building and communication, personal trauma, masculine sexuality/self-image, addictions, depression and anxiety. He honors the faith-traditions that people have, and welcomes them into the therapy process.

Jim Phelan, Psy.D

Phone: 609-668-0377

Email: jmpwhelan@msn.com Web site: www.phelanconsultants.bravehost.com

Jim Phelan received his Doctorate Degree in Psychology through the Southern California University for Professional Studies and his Masters Degree in Social Work from Marywood University's School of Social Work, Scranton, Pennsylvania. He is a Board Certified Diplomat in Clinical Social Work and a Certified Drug and Alcohol Counselor.

Jim specializes in therapy, consultation, and research particular to the topics of same-sex attraction, sexual addictions, and other addictions, such as substance abuse. He has been in practice since 1994. He has a strong background in psychopathology, having worked early in his career in the community mental health arena. Jim is the author of several articles, including one notable empirical comparison study, "Recollection of their Fathers by Homosexual and Heterosexual Men," which was published in Psychological Reports.

Not only is Jim a trained professional, but he can identify with strugglers since he has a personal exodus from addictive patterns of substance abuse and sexual brokenness. He is a Christian, married and the father of one.

updated April 2008

Enrique Roman

Group Facilitator and Life Coach, Higher Path Coaching (www.higherpathcoaching.com), New York, New York
 Phone: 201-863-8544 Email: enrique@higherpathcoaching.com

Enrique Roman is a gifted facilitator of self-discovery and personal-growth work. He has received extensive training in psychodrama at the Spring Lake Heights Counseling Center, in Spring Lake Heights, NJ, where he facilitates groups on anger management and addiction recovery.

Enrique staffs People Can Change healing weekends, leads support groups, and facilitates trainings and groups offered through the ManKind Project, which helps men live lives of integrity, accountability and connection to feeling. A native of Colombia, Enrique offers coaching to clients in Spanish as well as English and is working toward a master's degree in counseling.

Amedeo F. Colucci, MS, LMHC

Center for Inner Peace, Fort Lauderdale, Florida
 Phone: 1-954-778-2101 Email: AmedeoColucci@yahoo.com

Amedeo F. Colucci, MS, LMHC is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor in private practice in the Fort Lauderdale, Florida area where he is the Director for the Center for Inner Peace. Amedeo received his degree from Nova Southeastern University in 1982. He is currently seeking certification in sexual addictions. Amedeo is married and has three children in college. Amedeo has been helping men and teenaged boys increase their sense of masculinity through gender affirming processes, including reparative therapy, for the last eight years. He is the founder and facilitator of the Fort Lauderdale Chapter of the Roman Catholic Support Group, Courage.

Paul McNulty, LCSW

Greater Chicago
 Phone: 1-630-673-5510 Email: mcnulty@newwarrior.com

Paul McNulty is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and has been in private practice since 1989. He received his master's degree in social work from the University of Illinois at Chicago, School of Social Work. Paul specializes in therapy with men in the areas of relationships, sexuality, same sex attraction, and various addictions. He is passionate about men's work and is a member of the New Warrior Training community. Paul is also a professional member of Exodus International, NARTH, and American Association of Christian Counselors. Paul's private practice is located in the Chicagoland area.

Ken Graham, LPC, CCSAS

Director, Center for Relational Healing (www.relationalhealing.com), Nashville, TN area
 Phone: 1-615-271-0853 Email: ken.graham@relationalhealing.com

Ken has 20 years of experience in the mental health / addiction field. He is a licensed professional counselor and a certified clinical sex addiction specialist. He specializes in the treatment of addiction, trauma resolution, and couple sexual dysfunction. He and his wife of 23 years have 4 children.

updated April 2008

Dan Gray, LCSW

Clinical Director and Co-founder, LifeSTAR Network, LLC (www.lifestarnetwork.org), Salt Lake City, Utah
Phone: 801-262-4599 Email: infor@lifestarnetwork.org

Dan Gray, LCSW, is a licensed clinical social worker specializing in addictions counseling who has been in practice for more than 20 years. He has a master's degree in social work and is a Certified Sexual Addiction Therapist. He is also certified as an addictions counselor. He maintains a busy private practice, and is the clinical director of the LifeSTAR Network program, which provides individual, group, and family therapy to people struggling with pornography and sexual addictions. With his co-founder Todd Olson, LCSW, Dan has developed a variety of powerful educational tools, including a user-friendly workbook series and the highly successful Getting Started Workshops. He recently co-authored the book Discussing Pornography Problems with a Spouse: Confronting and Disclosing Secret Behaviors.

Dan is the founder and director of Wasatch Sports and Activities, which provides therapeutic experiential opportunities such as wilderness retreats and team sports training. Dan provides consultation and training services to local social service agencies as well as civic, church and professional organizations on the assessment and treatment of sexual addictions and related issues.

Amadeo Colucci, MS, LMHC

Director, Center for Inner Peace, Fort Lauderdale, FL
Phone: 954-778-2101 Email: AmedeoColucci@yahoo.com

Amedeo F. Colucci, MS, LMHC is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor in private practice in the Fort Lauderdale, Florida area where he is the Director for the Center for Inner Peace. Amedeo received his degree from Nova Southeastern University in 1982. He is currently seeking certification in sexual addictions. Amedeo is married and has three children in college. Amedeo has been helping men and teenaged boys increase their sense of masculinity through gender affirming processes, including reparative therapy, for the last eight years. He is the founder and facilitator of the Fort Lauderdale Chapter of the Roman Catholic Support Group, Courage.

updated April 2008